Hints as to Thriving.

Hard work is the grand secret of success. Nothing but rags and poverty can come of idleness. Elbow-grease is the only stuff to make gold with. No sweat, no swee'. Every man must build up his own fortune now-a-days. Shirtsleeves rolled up tead on to broadcloth

Believe in travelling step by step; don't expect to be rich in a jump. Slow and sure is better than fast and flimsy. Every little helps, as the sow said when she snapped at a gnat. Every day a thread makes a skein in a year. Brick by brick houses are built. We creep before we talk, walk before we run, and run before we ride. In getting rich, the more haste the worst speed. Haste trips up its own heels. Hasty climbers have sudden falls.

Make as few changes as you can; trees often transplanted bear little fruit. If you have difficulties in one place, you will have them in another; if you move because it is damp in the valley you may find it cold on the hill. Where will you find land without stones or meat without bones? Stick-to-it is the conqueror. He who can wait long enough will win.

Do not be above your business. He who turns up his nose at his work quarrels with his bread and butter. He is a poor smith who is afraid of his own sparks. There is some discomfort in all trades exceptchimney-swe-ping. If sailors gave up going to sea because of the wet, if bakers left off baking because it is hot work, if ploughmen would not plough because of the cold, and tailors would not make our clothes for fear of pricking their fingers, what a pass we should come to! Nonsense, my fine fellow, there's no shame about any honest calling; don't be afraid of soiling your hands, there's plenty of soap to be had.

Plod is the word. Every one must row with such oars as he has, and he can't choose the wind he must sail by such as God sends him. If the cat sits long enough at the hole she will catch the mouse.

Take time by the forelock. Be up early and catch the worm. The morning hour carries gold in its mouth. He who drives last in the row gets the dust in his eyes; rise early, and you will have a clear start for the day.

Look most to your spending. No matter what comes in, if more goes out you will always be poor. The art is not in making money, but in keeping it.

Free Trade.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size.

The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain the same size.
