

OBITUARY.

The death of Thomas Foley, Esq., adds confirmation to the truth of the old saying "In the midst of life we are in death."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Grand Dramatic Entertainment in the Lyceum.

Very Successful Celebrations at Emerald and Souris.

The celebration of the Feast of Ireland's Patron Saint in this city was brought to a close with a dramatic entertainment in the Lyceum.

We announce, with deep regret, the demise of Miss Evelyn E. Morris, daughter of Thomas Morris, Esq., who died on Saturday last after three days' illness.

We regret to hear of the death of Grace Muriel, aged three years and nine months, youngest daughter of Captain Finlayson of the steamship Stanley.

HINTS TO EXPORTERS.

The Canadian Correspondent of the London Times Discusses Apples and Butter.

The quality of Canadian cheese also has become so distinct that steps are being taken to have all produced within the country for export officially branded.

The concert at Emerald was another attraction of the evening. The special left Charlotteville about 6 o'clock with a goodly number on board.

ST. PATRICK'S AT SOURIS.

The day at Souris was observed with more than the usual amount of enthusiasm.

NEWS NOTES.

The morning papers generally comment upon the absurdity of Mr. Labouchere's amendment, which prays the Queen to go what no power can perform.

Mr. Anderson, who is in charge of the Canadian exhibit at the Midwinter Fair at California, writes that Canadian grain is making the best showing there of all grain exhibits.

The Morning Post says—An amendment to the address in regard to the Government, and resignation has immediately followed.

The Wagon Medicine—An inmate of the Poor House named Martin, yesterday took a mouthful of a liniment he was using for rheumatism in mistake for some other medicine, and was taken suddenly ill.

Perfect health is seldom found, for impure blood is so general. Hood's Sarsaparilla really does purify the blood and restore health.

USE SKO-A'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and nerve restorer.

lowed by a musical sketch and sequel by Mrs. Dr. McLellan, Miss Lottie McWade and the choir, all of which was done well and truly appreciated.
