

Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion contains the hypophosphites.

These alone make it of great value for all affections of the nervous system.

It also contains glycerine, a most valuable, soothing and healing agent. Then there is the cod-liver oil, acknowledged by all physicians as the best remedy for poor blood and loss in weight.

These three great remedial agents blended into a creamy Emulsion, make a remarkable tissue builder.

FROM MONTREAL STAR.

"GLENCOE."

Here's to you Uncle Kruger! slainte! an' slainte go leor! You're a dacint ould man begorra; never mind if you are a Boer! So with heart an' half me bouchal, we'll drink to your health to-night; For yourself an' your farmer sojers gave us a raal good fight.

I was dramin' of Kitty Farrell away in the Gap o' Dunce, When the song of the bugle woke me, ringin' across Glencoe; An' once in a while a bullet came pattherin' from above, That tould us the big brown fellows were sendin' us down their love.

'Twas a kind invitation an' written in such a han' That a Chinaman couldn't refuse it—not to spake of an Irish man; So the pickets sent back an answer, "We're comin' with right good will." Along what they call the kopje, tho' to me it looked more like a hill.

"Fall in on the left," sez the captain, "My men of the Fusiliers; You'll see a great fight this morning—like you haven't beheld for years?" "Faith, Captain dear," sez the sergeant, "you can bet your Majuba sword If the Dutch is as willin' as we are, you never spoke truer word!"

So we scrambled among the bushes, the boulders an' rocks an' all, Like the gauger's men still—huntin' on the mountains of Donegal; We doubled an' turned an' twisted the same as a hunted hare, While the big guns peppered each other over us in the air.

Like steam from the Devil's kettle the kopje was bilin' hot; For the breeze of the Dutchman's bullets was the only breeze we got, An' many a fine boy stumbled, many a brave lad died, When the Dutchman's message caught him there on the mountain side.

Little Nelly O'Brien, God help her! over there at ould Bally-bay, Will wait for a Transvaal letter till her face an' her hair is grey For I seen young Croohore on a stretcher, an' I knew the poor boy was gone, When I spoke to the ambulance doctor, an' he nodded an' then passed on.

"Steady there!" cried the captain, "we must halt for a moment here." An' he spoke like a man in trainin', full winded an' strong an' clear. So we threw ourselves down on the kopje, weary an' tired as death, Waitin' the Captain's orders, waitin' to get a breath,

It's strange all the humors an' fancies that come to a man like me; But the smoke of the battle risin' took me across the sea— It's the mist of Benbow I'm seeing; an' the rock that we'll capture soon Is the rock where I shot the eagle, when I was a small gossoon.

I close my eyes for a minute, an' hear my poor mother say; "Patrick, avick, my darlin', you're surely not goin' away To join the red coated sojers?" but the blood in me was too strong— If your sire was a Connaught Ranger, sure where would his son belong?

Hark! whist! do you hear the music comin' up from the camp below? An odd note or two when Maxims take breath for a second or so,

School Children's Eyes Supply Their Intellect

G. F. Hutcheson, OPTICIAN AND JEWELER, Charlottetown.

Liftin' itself on somehow, stealin' its way up here, Knowin' there's waitin' to hear it, many an Irish ear.

Augh! Garryowen! you're the jewel! an' we charged on the Dutchman's guns, An' covered the bloody kopje, like a Galway grey-hound runs, At the top of the hill they met us, with faces all set and grim; But they couldn't take the bayonet—that's the trouble with most of them!

So, of course, they'll be praisin' the Royal, an the men of the Fusiliers, An' the newspapers help to dry up the widows an' orphans tears, An' they'll write a new name on the colours—that is if there's room for more; An' we'll follow whenever they lead us, the same as we've done before!

But here's to you Uncle Kruger! slainte! an' slainte go leor! After all you're a dacint Christian, never mind if you are a Boer! So with heart an' half me bouchal, we'll drink to your health to-night For yourself an' your brown faced Dutchman gave us a raal good fight!

WILLIAM HENRY DRUMMOND. Montreal, October 26th, 1899.

Duration of the War.

A fairly correct forecast of the probable duration of military operations in the Transvaal, says the Army and Navy Gazette, may be gathered from the fact that the government are contracting for a period of eight months for the supply of bread and other military requisites rendered necessary by so large a number of the Army Service Corps having left for the front. This favors the belief that the War Office are of the opinion that the British troops will most of them be back in their old quarters by May, 1900.

Dr. A. W. CHASE

The wonderful success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills adds to the fame of the great doctor whose name is familiar in almost every home as the author of the world famous Recipe Book.

Scores and thousands of grateful men and women have been rescued from the miseries and dangers of kidney disease by this greatest of all kidney cures.

Mr. D. C. Simmons, Mabes, Ont., writes: "My kidneys and back were so bad I was unable to work or sleep. My urine had sediment like brick dust, I was compelled to get up four or five times during the night. I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and concluded to give them a trial. I have only used one box and am completely cured. I was a great sufferer for 18 years, but my kidneys do not bother me now. I enjoy good rest and sleep and consider Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills a boon to suffering humanity."

AMBITIOUS CITY AGAIN

Mr. Harry Bawden, of Hamilton, Ont Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills

Hamilton, Oct. 16.—Mr. Harry Bawden of this city corroborates the report printed recently relating to his cure of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills. "For six years," he says, "I suffered with Lumbago and Kidney Disease. I tried everything under the sun, but absolutely nothing I ever took gave me the slightest relief. A friend advised me about one year ago to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I finally decided to do so, and purchased one box and found relief. I used in all five boxes and am completely cured.

The case has created quite a stir and there are found, too many warm, endorsers of Dodd's Kidney Pills in this city. Little faith is put in the many imitations on the market, the verdict being that the original is the best.

Rheumatism Can't Exist

When the kidneys are kept healthy and vigorous by the use of A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, it is Uric Acid left in the blood by defective kidneys that causes rheumatism. Dr. A. W.
