Walter Craig Displays Skill

By JIM CULLEN

The harness racing season is drawing to a close at the Charlottetown Driving Park with the approach of the cold weather. We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the driving and training feats of Walter Craig at the local race track this summer.

The thing that we feel makes Walter Craig one of the best horsemen at the local park in his ability to care for a horse as well as handle a set of reins with a skill that ranks him among the best.

The limelight escaped Craig at the CDP on numerous occasions as he didn't have any of the top free-for-allers under his care. Walter drove Hurrah owned by Elmer Ferguson at the beginning of the season and handled the big horse well, but Elmer's son Jack took over the driving duties about mid-way through the current campaign.

Craig has done a good job of remoulding horses that were not up to par before he started taking care of them. Chief's Gal owned by J. M. Williams, Charlottetown was never sound till this summer and Craig teamed the Williams-owned horse to a double dash victory Thursday night with a mile in 2:10 and a bit.

The veteran reinsman teamed Abner C to the winner's circle in 2:11 this year and the horse's best time last summer was 2:14.

Sunny King is another horse that has prospered under the guiding hands of Walter Craig. His best mile last year was 2:10.2 and he has been a trip in 2:08.3 this summer as well as earning $1,089. which is aproximately $300 more than he earned in the previous campaign.

At the present time Walter nas Bonnie Jack owned by Doug Hill, Charlottetown, under his care. This horse was purchased as a potential free-for-aller, but has been acting up a bit and Craig is attempting to get the Hill-owned three-year-old to perform up to par.

Walter is a familiar sight around the Charlottetown park with a tool box and his fellow horsemen have a lot of respect for his ability to shoe a horse. Very few horsemen can do as many things for a horse as 'Craigie' is capable of.

Tid Bits From Here And There

High Price owned by Ray and Larry Davidson, Charlottetown is a horse that is being talked about plenty by the followers of the pecars and trotters at the Charlottetown racing oval. This is a five-year-old horse that hadn't been to the races (with the exception of the colt stakes) till this year.

Francis MacIsaac has been training and driving the Davidson-owned horse and has done a very commendable job. When MacIsaac got this horse he hadn't been a mile in better than 2:20 and the youthful reinsman has piloted the Price Tag horse to at least three new marks this year.

MacIsaac is new to the racing circuit. He just obtained his driving licence this summer. Francis teamed the horse to a new mark of 2:13.1 a couple of weeks ago and then last week he won with him in 2:12 and a bit.

Thursday night was probably the best mile he has been this year as he chased Chief's Gal, teamed by Walter Craig, to the wire in 2:10.4 and was just barely beaten.

Charlottetown's Intermediate baseball representative handled by Forbes Kennedy will invade Queen Elizabeth Park this afternoon to battle with the Summerside Intermdiates in th opening game of a best-two-out-of-three series for the provincial championship. The second game of the series will be played at Memorial Field Sunday afternoon. Charlottetown Legion juniors battle with Fredericton Vikings in Fredericton this afternoon in the first game of a best-of-three affair for the N.B.-P.E.I. honors.

Racing action resumes at the Charlottetown Driving Park tonight with a nine dash harness racing program set to leave the wire at eight o'clock. Knightway going away in number two position looks like a good bet in the curtain raiser.

Nine Dash Card To Go Tonight

Charlottetown Driving Park presents another hankup harness racing program tonight with action slated to commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

It's another nine-dash affair, one single and four double events.

Eight horses get things underway in the single. They are Triflite, Knight Way, Shadydale Tonette, Rush Hal, Kenna K., Chief Play, Dixie Lou and Miss Lucky Belle. Take your pick of these horses. Anyone holding a win ticket in this class is most likely to get a sizeable payoff at the mutual windows.

Dashes five and nine give promise of great action. There are seven top notch pacers to fight it out in these clashes with Splurge on the rail in the opening mile. The other six hopefuls are a classy looking half dozen. Am Castle, Armond's Buddy, Sunny King, Hi Jay, Mr McElwyn Key and Mark Purdue are Splurge's opponents. Once again it looks like a real difficult chore to pick a winner.

The other double dash events are almost certain to give the feature class a real run for excitement. All these classes are well filled and the outcome should really be in doubt.

The first daily double is on races 1 and 2, the quinella on 3, the second double on 6 and 7, and the exactor on race 8.

Starting time once again—8 o'clock.

SUMMERSIDE HIGH PREPS

The Summerside high school team has been practicing twice weekly for the past nine days in preparation for the opening of the four-team provincial interscholastic league season which gets underway October 2nd. Today the Sum-Hi Gridders meet Moncton High in Summerside in an exhibition game. Here coach Gord Montford (second from left) aided by assistant coach Russ Lingard (left) demonstrates a handoff to three of the players (L to R) Paul Gallant (fullback); Bob Clive (Flanker) and Chuck Lapp (end).

Summerside High Gridders Open PEI Season Today

SUMMERSIDE — The town's high school football team gets its first taste of action today when it meets Moncton High School in an exhibition game at the local sports complex.

The team, coached for the fourth straight year by Gord Montford, an officer at the local RCAF station, plays in a four-team provincial interscholastic league which is slated to get underway October 2nd. The other teams in the loop are Souris, Montague Regional high schools and St. Dunstan's High.

Montford, who is assisted in the coaching chores by fellow officer Russ Lingard, began training his charges nine days ago and for the past week has been giving them two workouts a day.

Every morning at 6 o'clock the team gathered at Civic auditorium from where they travelled to Cabot Park east of here to work out on the beach and up the sand hills, doing wild sprints, relay races plus other exercises. In the afternoon the players practice either at Queen Elizabeth Park or on the sports complex.

Discussing chances of his team in the league this season, the coach said yesterday "I think we stand a good chance of placing first. I believe we can beat Souris and Montague but I know St. Dunstan's (the league champions for the past two years) is going to have a good football team. I just hope we can develop good enough to have a better team."

The sum-hi squad captured the league title three years, the first year it entered competition, and for the next two years lost out in the finals for SDHS.

When asked about his team's chances against the N.B. gridders today, Montford said he was hoping for better success than in previous contests. Both in 1962 and last year the local squad lost home and home series to the Moncton crew.

Game time today is 2 p.m. and a return tussle is slated for Saturday, October 16th in Moncton.

All but six players on the Sum-Hi squad are veterans of at least a couple of years on the team. Paul MacWilliams and Dave Johnston are for the quarterback position. MacWilliams is a real veteran, entering his fourth campaign with the high school gridders.

WFC Teams Juggle Backs For Full Weekend Slate

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Name a starting backfield in the Western Football Conference this weekend and you're one up on the coaches.

They're choking on a mid-season menu of injuries and experiments that makes prediction fruitless and wagering a great hazard.

Saskatchewan Roughriders, who have somehow kept on top despite loss of five key players, may have linebacker Garner Ekstran back for tonight's first-place battle in Regina against Calgary Stampeders.

But the club now has three new doubtful starters in halfbacks Billy Gray, Rocky Cameron and Bob Good.

"With so many injuries, and some almost ready to play, I really haven't made any decisions as to who will play, or where they will play," Rider coach Eagle Keys said Friday.

QUARTERBACK SIDELINED

Stampeders have quarterback Eagle Day sidelined in a leg cast and Jerry Keeling will be at the controls, taking the ball from Chuck Zickefoose. Regular centre Dale Parsons is just off the operating table after removal of knee cartilage.

At Vancouver tonight, in a game televised nationally at 8 p.m. PDT by the CBC, British Columbia Lions will play only 28 or 29 men against Montreal Alouettes.

The club is missing rookie Bob Apps, who would have had his first shot at the starting flanker's spot but quit the club to go back to Eastern Canada and law school; tackle Gus Kasapis, still nursing knee injury; and flanker Sonny Homer, idle with a knee ailment.

Lions have had half a dozen other players suffering 'flu and strpe throats this week, and didn't know Friday whether to count on 'flu-struck Pat Claridge as a starting end. Halfback Ron Morris will dress with a longstanding minor leg injury, but coach Dave Skrien hopes he won't have to play.

"You don't know how much this kind of thing weakens a team," lamented Skrien.

WILL USE BATTEN

For its Western swing, including a game Monday night in Edmonton, Montreal will employ Pat Batten, a new fullback from Pittsburgh and Detroit of the National League. He is an emergency replacement for George Dixon, the injury-plagued halfback who quit football Thursday.

Winnipeg Blue Bombers, host Sunday to Ottawa Rough Riders in a game nationally telecast by CTV at 2 p.m. CDT, still have three men out with leg injuries and four other players listed as doubtful starters.

Coach Bud Grant is juggling his defence to stem Bombers' losing streak at four games, and may play three players cut by NFL clubs. They are Bob Taylor from Minnesota and Mario Mariani from Washington, both defensive ends, and Monty Kiffin from Minnesota, an offensive tackle.

On the doubtful list is quarterback Kenny Ploen. If Ploen's sprained wrist doesn't allow him to throw the ball, he will give way to Dick Thornton and take a pace in the defensive backfield.

Eskimos look for big things from Billy Martin, a four-year two-way veteran with Chicago of the National League, who is expected to share a halfback spot with Butch Pressley.

Coach Neill Armstrong has had no injuries to contend with since he lost fullback Bill Tobin and rookie halfback Jim Fauver to the 30-day injured list.

The tight WFC standings have Saskatchewan with 11 points, Calgary with 10, B.C. nine, Winnipeg eight, and Edmonton six.

PEI Ball Teams Face Full Slate

No less than four P.E.I. baseball and softball are sated to play in Maritime playoffs today. In baseball the Charottetown Legion Juniors meet the Fredericton Vikings at Marysville, N.B. in the first game of a best of three semi-final for the Maritime Junior baseball title. Charlottetown whipped the current title holders, Summerside, to gain the semi-finals.

Three Island softball teams also will see payoff action. The RCAF Eagles face possible elimination from the Maritime Senior 'A' semi-final when they travel to St. John, N.B. to meet the Schooners in the second game of a best of three series. The Eagles were soundly whipped in Summerside last weekend by a score of 7-1.

The John Hughes coached National Park All-Stars will host Loggieville, N.B. at Memorial fied in the second game of the Maritime Senior B semies. The ocal team lost last week in Loggieville, in a fifteen inning marathon that ended in a 1-0 score for the N.B. team. This game at the field tomorrow should be a real thriller.

Borden, the P.E.I. Intermediate D champions will meet the N.B. Champs, a combined team from Ketepic, Bemont and Morna in the first game of the Maritime semi-final series at Borden this afternoon. This Borden team disposed of Dow's Sports men to gain the entry into the playdowns.

Argo's Shatto Is To Retire

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Argonaut backfield star Dick Shatto announced Friday that he will retire at the end of the current Eastern Football Conference season.

Shatto told Argonaut managing director Lew Hayman and head coach Bob Shaw of his decision at a short meeting before the team practised Friday.

"I just feel now is the time," Shatto said. "After 12 years of football, I feel that rather than stay around and play ball for another year or two I should begin to concentrate on my job with the radio station and begin to let my family get to know me."

Shatto is a salesman with Toronto radio station CFRB.

"My wife has had to raise the family since I started in football and my oldest boy knows me mainly as a football player, not a father."

Earlier Friday, Shatto said he had turned down an offer to run in the federal election Nov. 8 in the Toronto riding of York Centre, now held by Liberal James Walker. Shatto had been asked to run as the Progressive Conservative candidate.

"I considered it very seriously, but I decided against running for politics at this time."

Later, however, he said that if the opportunity came to run on the municipal or provincial level, "I would have to give it serious consideration."

Muscle And Brawn Galore At Leaf Training Camp

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP) Toronto Maple Leaf, a "big" team by National Hockey League standards, are apparently getting bigger in the eyes of assistant general manager Frank (King) Clancy.

Clancy, a one-time player and coach with the Leafs, made the observation as he watched 73 players go through a session of stops and starts at the Toronto camp under the urging of Joe Crozier, coach of the Leafs' Rochester American Hockey League farm club.

"We've got rid of the 'feather dusters' and replaced them with brawn and muscle," said Clancy. "I've been at over 30 hockey camps . . . and I've never seen so many big guys on the ice at one time with one team. What meat and muscle—and most of them can skate."

He made particular reference to defenceman Marcel Pronovost, forward Larry Jeffrye and centre Orlando Kurtenbach. Last year Pronovost and Jeffrey were with Detroit Red Wings and Kurtenbach with Boston Bruins. They arrived at the Toronto training camp through off-season trades.

ANTICIPATES SCRAP

"I can hardly wait to see someone make the mistake of taking a reef at Pronovost or Kurtenbach," said Clancy. "And its bound to happen."

Crozier dismissed the players according to age with the over 35s going first, followed by the over - 30s, over - 25s and the younger players.

Allan Stanley, the 38-year-old veteran defenceman from Timmins, Ont., stuck around until the over-25s left the ice.

One of the first to retire in this age group was goalie Johnny Bower. The Prince Albert, Sask., native will be 42 years old Nov. 8.

"That's the only time I've ever admitted my age," laughed Bower. "I started out with the under-25s but decided I'd better quit before I became too touchy."

Missing from the early Leaf practices were Wally Boyer, Gerry Ehman, Bob Perrault, Bronco Horvath and Stan Smrke. Ehman and Perrault were the only ones given permission to arrive late.

Also unable to make the camp was Dave Parenteau, a centre who scored 143 points with Flin Flon Bombers of the Saskatchewan junior league last year. He suffered an ankle fracture in an industrial accident several days ago.

It was almost the end of the Brown Bomber's career as world heavyweight champion. He defeated Jersey Joe Walcott in 1947 and 1948 and retired the following year, since there were no challengers.

NFL Schedule Begins Today

NEW YORK (CP)—Fourteen National Football League teams begin the 1965 season Sunday, joining eight American League clubs already in the fray.

As one New York writer expressed it, the only thing certain about the U.S. professional football season is that baseball's Minnesota Twins will play in the world series.

In Sunday's NFL action, world champion Cleveland Browns are favored to defeat an improved Washington Redskin club despite the absence of ace flanker Paul Warfield.

Baltimore Colts, the team which lost out in the 1964 championship game, is matched against powerful Minnesota Vikings led by quarterback Fran Tarkenton.

New York's struggling Giants with newly - acquired quarterback Earl Morrall are underdogs against the Dallas Cowboys led by Don Meredith.

GREEN BAY FAVORED

The formidable backfield duo of Paul Hornung and Jimmy Taylor upon whom quarterback Bart Starr may call is expected to lead Green Bay Packers to an easy victory over Pittsburgh Steelers, directed by new coach Mike Nixon.

Detroit Lions, also with a new coach, Harry Gilmer, face Los Angeles Rams guided by the quarterback team of Roman Gabriel and Bill Munson.

Bill Triplett's return after a year on the sidelines due to a lung ailment is expected to help St. Louis Cardinals defeat Philaadelphia Eagles, whose quarterback Norm Snead has been ineffective in exhibition games.

The final encounter matches also-rans Chicago Bears and San Francisco '49ers.

Quebec Team Visits Cuba

MONTREAL (CP) — An All-Star team chosen from Quebec province's amateur baseball players will visit Cuba next week for a series of goodwill games.

Marcel Racine, president of the National Federation of Amateur Baseball, said Wednesday 21 Canadian players are scheduled to play 21 games in Cuba. They will leave Montreal Tuesday.

The announcement came after cancellation of the Junior World Series of baseball, which was to be played in Mexico next week. A mix-up over stadium reservations left the teams with no place to play.

Canada's representatives were to be an All-Star team chosen from across the country.

The Junior World Series will

King's Finals Resume Sunday

The Kings County Baseball finals resumes Sunday at Mt. Stewart. Game time is 2.30.

Morell won the first game beating Mt. Stewart 3 to 1 Sunday at Morell. The series will be the best 2 out of 3 for the Kings County Cup. Probable pitchers for the game will be Art Coffin for Mt. Stewart and Louis Murphy for Morell.

Chuvalo, Terrell Meet In Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — Merv McKenzie, Ontario athletic commissioner, said Friday the World Boxing Association title fight between champion Ernie Terrell and Canadian champion George Chuvalo will be held here Monday, Nov. 1.

The fight, at Maple Leaf Gardens, will "definitely be for the world championship," said McKenzie, former president of the WBA. "The World Boxing Association recognizes it as a title fight and as far as we're concerned there's only one titleholder and that's Terrell."

He said that as far as the WBA and the Ontario commission is concerned Cassius Clay "is just another fighter."

The WBA does not recognize Clay as champion. They stripped him of his title after he signed a rematch clause to defend his title against Sonny Liston.

Under the fight contract signed last week, Terrell will be paid 35 per cent of receipts and Chuvalo 25 per cent, with a guarantee of $45,000 each.

Irv Ungerman, Chuvalo's manager, said Friday the promoters, All Canada Sports Promotions—a group of 10 Toronto businessmen—are still negotiating to have the fight carried on closed-circuit theatre tlevision.
