SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA.

The Cochrane Fizzle.

Charges against Governor Schultz.

OTTAWA, Sept. 5.

The House of Commons spent yesterday in committee of supply. The charges against Cochrane, M. P., have practically fizzled. Numerous witnesses called by the grits have exculpated him, and the only one who incriminated him was drunk when giving evidence. The committee afterwards proceeded to investigate the charges against Governor Schultz of Manitoba. A week ago, when Schultz arrived, the grits would not examine him, insisting upon the attendance and examination of other witnesses first. These parties were procured and attended yesterday, when the grits refused to examine them, insisting upon having Schultz examined first. The committee decided to examine the parties who made the charges. James Stewart, the principal accuser, made a terrible mess of his testimony, contradicting himself. He admitted that he never would have made the charges had not he been sent for to do so. The grits' objection to examine him was easily understood after his examination commenced. The grits wanted to adjourn the investigation, but the Government insisted on going on, when the grits became abusive and commenced abusing Governor Schultz. Altogether, yesterday was a bad day for the grits, and the probabilities are that the temperature will be much colder for them within the next fortnight. The sub-committee selected to prepare and report on the Martineau case, met yesterday and adjourned till Tuesday without doing anything. Amyot, in his speech on Thursday, committed the whole grit party to the support of Mercier. The Quebec grits increase in their demands that Ontario shall support them or they will sever their connections at once. There will be civic holiday here on Monday. No papers will be issued.

THE POPE'S HEALTH.

An Official Contradiction.

ROME, Sept. 5.

The announcement of the Pope's illness has been officially contradicted. He walked in the Vatican garden yesterday and gave audience to the cardinals yesterday.

Fishery Bulletin.

(Fisheries Intelligence Bureau Report.)

HALIFAX, Sept. 5.—Anticosti.—No bait, or no fishing of any kind at Quebec. Good catches of cod at St. John's River and Sheldrake; fair at Long Point, Moisie, Perce, Grand River, Newport Point and Paspébiac. Lance very good at Thunder River, Long Point and Moisie. P. E. Island.—No fishing at Alberton owing to high winds. A fair catch of cod, hake and Mackerel at Malpeque; a good haul of hake and a few mackerel hooked at Souris. Cape Breton.—Hake good; haddock fair; but cod poor at Port Hood. A fair catch of cod and a few mackerel at Igonish. A fair catch of cod at Arichat, and some mackerel hooked at St. Peter's are the only reports of fish taken to-day. Nova Scotia.—Cod reported fair at Canso and very plentiful off Lunenburg, but no bait of any kind to be had at either places. Hake plentiful at Lockport, but all other kinds of fish scarce. Mackerel are reported schooling and taking hooks freely at the head of Lobster Bay. Magdalen Islands.—Cod fishing good and mackerel fair, bait squid in fair quantities at Perce, Grand River and Newport Point, Quebec.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Exchange of School Books.

SIR,—In reply to Mr. Nicholson's letter, which appeared in your issue of yesterday, I have to say that the circulars issued by Mr. Gage describing the condition of books to be exchanged, and the introductory prices to be given, had Mr. Nicholson's consent and apparent approval. I understand that the concession in price was in lieu of an inferior book for exchange. Mr. Nicholson, it appears, considered differently. I do not know what the more expensive method of exchange, to be avoided by giving introductory rules, was.

The P. E. I. R. Picnic.

SIR,—I understand that the Railway picnic is to take place on Wednesday next. It appears very strange to me that the time chosen for this picnic is in the depth of harvest, thereby preventing a great many harvest, and I might say all farmers—from participating in the rare enjoyments afforded by this annual gathering. Could not the manager of this gathering be prevailed upon to change the date to some more suitable time? If not, it will certainly appear very arbitrary to farmers and to

A COUNTRYMAN.

Sept 4th, 1891.

A Reasonable Request.]

SIR,—It is currently reported that Wednesday, 9th inst., is the day set apart for the Railway employees' picnic. Would the committee be kind enough to postpone the picnic for a week or two as it would be utterly impossible for us to attend on that day as we will be in the midst of our harvest as we will be a fair chance, boys, and we will make it interesting for you.
