General; but whose decisions can be vetoed by the Czar who is absolute.

The third rank is occupied by the members of the cabinet, nine in number exclusive of three directors. These meet weekly for ordinary business, and are the mere tools of the Czar.

In Russia there are certain high officers chosen from among the Senators or other distinguished persons called inspectors, whose duty it is to visit each the quarter assigned him in the provinces, enquire into the conduct of the persons employed by the State, hear the complaints of the people, examine into the grounds of the sentences of the courts and sometimes reverse them. These persons are treated with the most profound respect, as the immediate representatives of the Czar, and feared lest they should carry complaints to their master.

There are in Russia more than 600,000 civiofficers, who in general exercise a very tyranl nical part; persecuting the innocent, oppressing the powerless, and extorting money from the rich; obsequious to their superiors and arrogant to their inferiors. They are thus a grievous scourge to the people.

The empire is divided into large provinces. Each of these has over it a Governor General appointed by the emperor and having under him a subgovernor, a council of regency, whom he may consult in cases of difficulty, and who concentrates in himself all the branches of the administrations, within the locality, over which he presides; and is responsible only to the emperor.

The judicial courts are various, some for criminal and others for civil matters, some for the collection of taxes and crown revenues. Judges are removable; being appointed only for three or six years. In each of the provinces there is one superior court. Judges, it is said, are far from being conscientious.

The chief object of attention with the Russian emperors is the army. In regard to the number of the Czars troops different statements have been made. Some estimate them at a million. The most probable account is that they amount to 500,000 infantry and 90,000 cavalry besides 100,000 in the country of the Caucasus. The Emperor however may call immediately under his standard almost any number of troops; but the difficulty is to pay them, the Russian treasury being loaded with debt.

In conclusion the military marine is divided into two squadrons; one on the Baltic and the other on the Black sea. These consist of 360 large vessels, 48 ships of the line, 30 frigates, 15 steam vessels of war, &c. having in all 7,500 cannon. We neglected to mention in the proper place that the imperial guard consists of 80,000 men cavalry, infantry, and artillery. Such is a short account of the internal state of Russia according to the latest accounts.

I remain,

Yours truly.

MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.—On Friday last, 27th inst., the President, Charles Palmer, Esq., delivered an able and eloquent lecture on "The Book of Job" to a densly crowded audience.

On Wednesday evening next, there will be a special meeting of the members, to divise means for the formation of a library in connection with the Association, when any favourable to the project are requested to attend.

On Friday next, John Lawson, Esq., will lecture on "The Progress of Society."

Jas. McCallum, Esq. acknowledges the receipt of £9 2s. from the Presbyterian Congregation of Cascumpec, in aid of the Foreign Mission.

Brackley Point, Jan. 23, 1854.

WESLEYAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Anniversary Meeting of the Wesleyan Missionary Society will be held in Charlottetown, on Monday evening next, to commence at 7 o'clock. The Hon. Charles Hensley will take the chair.

The Annual Missionary Sermon will be preached on Sunday evening next, by the Rev. Mr. Heustis—when a collection will be taken, in aid of the funds.

THE season has been altogether a very extraordinary one. We do not ever recollect to have seen so little snow, accompanied with such intense cold, at this advanced period of the season. It has been a great disadvantage to the farmers and others, for the roads are barely passable in many parts of the country. On Saturday, the 28th, and Sunday, the 29th inst. the thermometer was said to have ranged as low as 22—and some say 25—degrees below zero. That it was extremely cold, is indicated by the fact, that the water in several of the public pumps was frozen to that degree of solidity as to render them useless,—a thing that has not happened since they were first placed in their respective situations. The weather has since moderated, and we may, we hope, look out for a little snow.

WE see by an advertisement in the Royal Gazette that the 2d Monthly Meeting of the Liberal Reform Association is to take place on Monday evening, 6th February next, when the question to be discussed is, "Whether Departmental Government, which admits of certain salaried officers holding seats in the Legislature, is suitable to this Island." Doors open to members of the Association and invited friends. Should not the question rather be, "Whether Departmental Government which requires that certain salaried officers should represent constituencies in the House of Assembly, is suitable to this Island?"

Summary of Government Advertisements.

His Excellency has been pleased to order the name of Mr. Donald Lamont, Long Creek, to be inserted in the Commission of the Peace for Queen's County.

Public Notice is hereby, given that the Hilary Term of Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery for this Island, will commence on Tuesday the 7th day of February next, and end on the Saturday following.

Georgetown Mails.

THE Mails for Georgetown will, during the remainder of the Winter and until further notice, be made up and forwarded every Tuesday and Friday morning, at nine o'clock, instead of Mondays and Fridays.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE
WEEKLY—ENLARGED.

ON the 11th of last April THE DAILY TRIBUNE, having completed its twelfth year, was enlarged more than one fourth, or to the size of The London Times making it considerably larger than any other cheap Daily published in this country or in the world. No change in price was made in consequence of this Enlargement—the paper being still afforded to Mail Subscribers at $5 per annum and sold to Carriers and to Agents ordering it by Express or Mail for distant sale at $1 50 for one hundred copies, or $15 per thousand copies, payable in advance. At these prices our aggregate receipts for our entire Daily edition do not exceed the sums we pay for Paper and Ink, leaving all other expenses to be defrayed from our receipts for Advertising. In other words, we return to each purchaser of our paper from us, his money's worth in the naked sheet we send him, looking for the reward of our own labor and the heavy expenses of Telegraphing, Correspondence, Reporting, Composition, Printing, Mailing, Book-keeping, Rent, &c., to our Advertisers alone. We do not think it now possible to cheapen newspapers beyond this point; if it ever shall be hereafter, we intend to be even with the foremost in demonstrating the fact.

Our SEMI-WEEKLY, EUROPEAN and CALIFORNIA editions were enlarged simultaneously and equally with the Daily, and also without any increase of price. We respectfully solicit a comparison of our Semi-Weekly at $3 per annum, [two copies sent a full year for $5, and ten copies for $20,] with any $4 or $5 Semi-Weekly, and will cheerfully send copies for this purpose upon directro post-paid application.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE entered on its thirteenth year on the 3d of September, it was enlarged to the size of the Semi-Weekly and Daily, adding more than one-fourth to its capacity—also without increase of price. This Enlargement adds at least $20,000 per annum to our expenses, in addition to the previous cost of our Daily Enlargement already effected. All our editions from the 1st of September appeared in entirely new and beautiful type, prepared expresely for this paper. Our Steam Cylinder Presses are not surpassed by any in the world. Even though our Weekly Edition should be rapidly run up to 100,000 copies, we are prepared to print and mail every copy on the day (Thursday) that the form is put to press, without interrupting or retarding the regular issue of our three Daily editions, amounting to Twenty-odd Thousand copies. We stand ready to adopt any improvements, however expensive, which will enable us to disseminate intelligence more freshly and effectively, and shall especially hail, as we labor to effect a radical improvement in the celerity and reliability of the Mails.

THE TRIBUNE has not now its character to make or to proclaim. It has not been and never can be a mere party organ. It has supported the Whig party because the distinctive principles of that party appeared to favor the great ends which it has laboured to subserve; it never advocated a measure because it was proposed or sustained by the Whig party. It holds itself at all times as free to condemn unsound principles, unwise measures or corrupt acts should the two former be propounded or the latter perpetrated by Whigs as though they had emanated from the hostile camp. In so far as Peace, Liberty, Education, Temperance, Internal Improvement and Industrial Development may be subserved by acting with the Whig party, it must continue to be, as it has been, Whig.

Though never acting with any Abolition or other one-idea party, THE TRIBUNE is and must be the relentless foe of Human Slavery, as of whatever else tends to degrade Labor and obstruct the intellectual and social development of any portion of mankind. Were it able to perceive that a vote in New-York could abolish Slavery in Carolina, it might attach itself to some one of the expressly Anti-Slavery parties: lacking that light, it declines to abandon the substances for the shadow of political good. But while it does not see its way clear of any effective Political action against Slavery in the States which now cherish it, it regards the defeat of whatever effort to extend the giant wrong under the flag of our Union, or to obstruct by its power the progress of Abolition in other lands, as among the most urgent and sacred of public duties, not to be subordinated to any party consideration whatever. And, while it does not propose to make Anti-Slavery the basis of Political action, other than defensive, it will neglect no opportunity, remit no effort, so to diffuse Light and Truth as to render the continuance of Slavery impossible in a land irradiated by the sun of Christianity and boasting itself the great exemplar of Political Justice and law-guarded Freedom.

For Temperance in all things, but especially the disuse of Intoxicating Beverages and the legal suppression of the Liquor Traffic, we shall struggle, as we have struggled, unflinchingly and untiringly. We regard the Maine Law as essentially the most beneficent statute of our day, and confidently hope to see it soon prevail universally.

The Congressional Reports and Washington Correspondence will, as heretofore, be both reliable and satisfactory.

The Markets for Grain, Cattle, Cotton and other products of the country, will receive proper attention, and be reliably reported in THE TRIBUNE.

On our correspondence with the most important points throughout the world we need not here dilate. Of the fact that our Associate, BAYARD TAYLOR, is now on the other side of the globe, sending us advices from the seat of war in China, and expecting soon to depict for our readers the physical, moral and social characteristics of jealousy-guarded Japan, the public is already aware He will probably return by way of Australia and California, in both of which we have several correspondents. Briefly—we shall spare no expense to keep our readers well advised on every subject of interest, and doubt not that the same generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to us will continue to repay all our exertions.

Any friend who believes he will do good by increasing the circulation of THE TRIBUNE is authorised to solicit and receive subscriptions; and, on due proof that money has been mailed and postpaid to our address, we take the responsibility of its safe transmission. Specimen Copies will promptly be sent without charge to those requiring them, and we trust many friends will be moved to ask their neighbours and acquaintances to join in making up a Club to commence with our Enlarged Sheet and New-Type on the first of September, or at any time thereafter.

A limited amount of space in the WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be appropriated to advertising.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

Single copy, 1 year, 52 numbers. . . .	$2 00
Three copies, 1 year, 52 numbers. . .	5 00
