

Save The Children Fund

"How the Palestine refugee mothers in Syria and Lebanon appreciate our Canadian baby food and how their faces drop when supplies run short," says Mrs. R. T. Tanner, Executive-Secretary of The Canadian Save the Children Fund who is visiting the British Save the Children Fund in the Middle East. "It gave me the utmost satisfaction to be able to watch the British Save the Children Fund nurses in the crowded camps, weighing and examining babies and giving each mother a package of our baby food. Mothers are learning to bring their babies regularly to the Save the Children Fund clinic and to feed them properly, thanks to the Save the Children Funds of Britain and Canada."

It is essential that Canadian assistance should be continued so that baby food, medical supplies, honey and clothing, especially baby clothes, are always on hand for distribution.

Anyone wishing to help should contact The Canadian Save the Children Fund Headquarters at 36 Toronto St., Toronto, or their local Canadian Save the Children Fund Committee of which Mr. J. O. Hyndman is chairman.

Watts-Downe Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Thursday, May 24th, at eleven o'clock, when Ruby Thelma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Downe, Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Victor Herbert, son of Mrs. Lillian Watts and the late Percy Watts, also of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster.

The church was decorated with spring flowers and potted plants. The guest pews were marked with tiny bows of white ribbon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor-length gown of white satin, with nylon net yolk and cape with fitted bodice, long sleeves coming to points over her wrists. Her floor-length lace veil was draped from a crown and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Ralph MacDonald, friend of the bride was matron of honour, and Mrs. Victor Robertson, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. Both looked very lovely in floor length gowns of white satin with coronet head dresses of seed pearls and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

The groom was supported by his brother John of Charlottetown.

The ushers were: Mr. Victor Robertson and Mr. Walter R. Downe, Jr. During the signing of the register, Mr. Wendall Phillips sang: "I'll Walk Beside You", accompanied by Mr. Frank Johnson, A. T. C. L. who played the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore navy with grey accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother wore a navy print with white and navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at "Sandy's", in Marshfield. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Webster and responded to by the groom. The three-tier wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom. Music was furnished at the reception by Messrs. Wallace and Homer Turner, cousins of the bride.

Following the reception, the bride and groom left by car on a short honeymoon trip, the bride wearing a suit of light navy gingham with pink and navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. Milton E. MacDonald, cousin of the bride, Mr. Phil Madra, Mr. Roy Jenkins, all of New Glasgow, N. S.

Stevens - MacLeod Wedding

Baskets of multi-colored tulips and white blossoms decorated Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, P. E. I., for the marriage of Margaret Ema daughter of Mrs. John M. MacLeod and the late Mr. MacLeod, to Albert MacLean Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Stevens, Saint John, New Brunswick, which took place at ten o'clock. Rev. H. E. D. Ashford officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Donald E. MacLean, Summerside, P. E. I., was gowned in white lace over taffeta, which was fashioned on simple lines, the fitted bodice being buttoned in front with tiny covered buttons, with small Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. An overskirt of silk net completed the gown. Her finger tip veil of embossed tulle was held in place by a headress of white lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of Rapture roses.

Mrs. Donald E. MacLean, who was her sister's only attendant, was gowned in mushroom taffeta, which was fashioned with Peter Pan collar and cape, the full skirt falling in deep folds. She wore matching mitts and headress and carried a nosegay of Sweetheart and Tallsman roses.

Mr. H. Nelson Day, Saint John, N. B. was best man, and the guests were ushered by Mr. Donald F. Taylor, Fredericton, N. B. and Mr. Frank J. Walker, Saint John, N. B.

Miss Louise Cox presided at the organ and during the signing of the register played "On Perfect Love."

The bride's mother was gowned in navy blue crepe with lace inserts, with which she wore a large cream colored straw hat, navy accessories and a corsage of yellow a gown of Queen's blue crepe with roses. Mrs. Paul E. Stevens chose lace inserts, with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the reception at Villa Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left on a motor trip to the Southern States. For travelling the bride wore a honey beige suit, with cream colored straw hat and brown accessories.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside in Fredericton, N. B., where Mr. Stevens is a member of the Faculty of Civil Engineering at the University of New Brunswick.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
M L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example, A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
