LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

BEER BROS. for Dress Goods.
THE WEATHER.—Moderate winds, fair, and moderately warm.

BALL.—Invitations have been issued for a ball at Government House on Wednesday evening of Jubilee week.

S. O. E.—The quarterly meeting of Lodge Eton will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. Payment of dues and initiation.

TEA AT VICTORIA.—The congregation of Tryon, Hampton and Bonshaw purpose holding a tea at Victoria, Crapaud, on July 10th. Steamer will leave Charlottetown in morning, returning same evening. Watch the ad. for particulars.

HAVE GROWN CARELESS.—At the London Baptist convention a speaker provoked considerable laughter by quoting the saying that there would be no marrying in heaven because there would not be enough men to go round, and now the London girls are reported to have grown careless in regard to attendance at prayer meeting.—Ridgetown, Ont., Dominion.

CANADIAN TROOPS ARRIVE.—The Canadian troops reached London shortly before midnight on Tuesday and were received by Major General Methune, Sir Donald A. Smith, high commissioner and other officers and officials. General Methune inspected the contingent and expressed his pleasure at the smart appearance of the men. As they marched from the railway station to Chelsea barracks they were loudly cheered by large crowds that had been waiting their arrival.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.—The Teachers' Convention of the Western Inspectorate will meet in the Alberton High School on June 29th and 30th inst. The first session will open at 3.30 p. m. Papers will be read by Misses Squarebriggs and Durant, and Mr. J. H. Buntain. Mr. P. J. Trainor, the President, will deliver the opening address, and Mr. C. W. Kiely will give a lesson in history. At the entertainment in Woodman's Hall in the evening Miss Stentiford, of Charlottetown, will give two readings.

A FISH STORY.—Two city sports were recently trout fishing at the blockhouse, in an open boat. There was great excitement, and the captain (who by the way, is an old hand at the business) roared out that his friend had on the largest trout ever hooked at this famous resort. The boys in the other boats and also the captain, were loud in their exclamations to the recruit to hold on, take time and drown the fish. The captain, at the right time, bent forward with the landing net and landed a smelt that was on the bob fly and a large cobbler that was on the tail fly. Cheers were then given for the captain and the Queen.

THE STAGE.—The Josie Mills Company played "Twixt Love and Duty" last evening to another small house. The play was of a most pleasing character, and it was rendered in a manner which evoked hearty applause. Miss Mills as Mercy Baxter excelled herself, and she was well supported by Mr. Thayer, Mr. Harvey and other members of the company. The costumes worn by the ladies were very handsome. "Twixt Love and Duty" will be repeated at the matinee on Saturday afternoon. The specialties by Messrs. Mack and McNary, last night were up to the standard, and won several encores. To-night the comedy drama "The Black Flag" will be put upon the boards. This play was given in Charlottetown four years ago by Miss Mills' Company, and it was greatly appreciated. It will probably be witnessed by a large audience to-night. Thirty-five cents will admit a lady and gentleman to the best seats.

A VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. John A. McLaine Stricken By Apoplexy.

And Dies at the Prince Edward Island Hospital

The sudden calling away of Mr. John A. McLaine, sub-collector of Customs at St. Peter's Bay, must forcibly illustrate the truth of the Scriptural injunction that "in the midst of life we are in death." Mr. McLaine came to Charlottetown yesterday in the forenoon train from the east. He was then apparently in his usual excellent health. A few hours later whilst attending to some business on one of the wharves he was stricken with apoplexy. Medical aid was promptly called in, and Mr. McLaine was taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Here everything that skilled medical men and loving hands could do for him was done. But notwithstanding all this his condition became more serious and about one o'clock this morning the vital spark fled.

Mr. McLaine was sixty-eight years of age, and was well and favorably known in Charlottetown and elsewhere throughout the province. He leaves a wife and a son and daughter to mourn their loss. His body will be taken to St. Peter's Bay this afternoon. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock.

BETTER than cure is prevention. By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla you may keep well, with pure blood, strong nerves and a good APPETITE.
