The Dominion Department of Agriculture in co-operation with the Provincial Department of Agriculture will hold Illustration Station Field Days on the following dates at 2 p.m. sharp—rain or shine.

Farm of Robert Woodside and son, Knutsford, Aug. 8th. Speakers: Hon. C. C. Baker, W. R. Shaw, M.B.E., G. C. Warren, R. B. MacLaren.

Farm of Zenon Gallant, Urbainville, August 9th. Speakers: Hon. C. C. Baker, W. R. Shaw, M.B.E., G. C. Warren, S. D. Peacock, R. B. MacLaren.

Farm of William E. Johnstone and son, Long River, August 10th. Speakers: Hon. C. C. Baker, W. R. Shaw, M.B.E., G. C. Warren, W. N. Black.

Mr. G. C. Warren will address the ladies on "Shrubs, Flowers and Vegetable Gardening." Mr. W. R. Shaw, M.B.E., who has recently toured the British Isles and Scandinavian countries, has chosen as his topic "Some Aspects of Old World Agriculture."

A tour will be made of the farm fields and fertilized pastures, meadows, cereals, roots, potato projects and various grass seed mixtures for hay and pasture will be observed. The work of the Illustration Station will be discussed by the Supervisor.

Following the conclusion of the programme at O'Leary and New London, lunches and light refreshments will be served by the Women's Institute of Knutsford and Long River respectively.

Take this as an opportunity to meet your neighbors, to converse with Departmental representatives and view the work that is in progress.

W. N. BLACK, Supervisor of Illustration Stations For P. E. I.

Victoria, the Village by the Sea

Amongst the girls here attending this camp were Annabelle Lea, Betty Boulter and Margaret Hart.

Mrs. W. Lea, Montreal, was the welcome guest recently of Miss Elsie Boswell, Victoria.

Miss Donald MacLeod, Victoria, is spending some time in Liverpool, N. S., visiting with relatives there.

Miss Kathleen Henderson, Sydney, N. S., is vacationing in Victoria and is staying at the "Rowans" while here.

Miss Florence MacDougall, principal of the school here is attending summer school at Mount Allison University, Sackville, N. B.

Mrs. Bessie Hughes has returned to her home in the U. S. A. after a week spent in Victoria, guest of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Dougherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Metcalfe and family, Tuft's Cove, N. S., spent a pleasant holiday at one of the cottages on Mr. Karl Boulter's shore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Littlejohns, Moncton, N. B., were recent visitors to Victoria. Their many friends are pleased to see Mr. Littlejohns much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and daughter of Malden, Mass. are visiting relatives in Victoria. Mrs. Smith was formerly Mary MacQuarrie of this place.

Mrs. Everett Wotton and son George of Charlottetown, are spending a holiday in Victoria, guests of Mrs. Wotton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke.

Mrs. MacKie of Montreal, who is an annual visitor to the Village by the Sea is a guest at the Orient Hotel. She was joined last week by her daughter, Doctor Helen MacKie of Vancouver.

The Misses Janet, Charlotte and Roberta MacQuarrie, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William MacQuarrie, Malden, Mass. are guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Wilfred MacQuarrie, Victoria.

Mrs. S. R. Cameron and Miss Edith Inman have returned to Charlottetown after a week's holiday spent in Victoria, guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Inman.

The girls of the Anglican Camp, Crapaud, spent ten days very pleasantly on the Rectory grounds. One of the important events of their stay was the daily swim at Crescent Beach, Victoria.

Mrs. Maude MacPhail has purchased the dwelling-house and adjoining lot of the late Mrs. K. C. Holm and Mrs. George Cannon, Hampton; the very desirable property of her parents, Mr. Thomas Cameron and the late Mrs. Cameron, Victoria.

Mrs. J. B. Rackliffe, West Newton, Mass. is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Wright at her summer home here. Masters Robert and Donald Taylor, young grandsons of Mrs. Wright, who were also her guests for the past few weeks, have gone to Kensington to visit with relatives there.

The fishermen of Victoria are busily engaged preparing their gear for the fall season which begins August 10. The wharf is undergoing quite extensive repair work and the Dredge, Pownall, is still at work in our midst making ready for what promises to be a busy shipping season.

Victoria, the lovely village by the Sea is all astir these days as large numbers of tourists, holiday-makers, home seekers and annual visitors come and go, some to stay for the whole of summer and others for a many years because of ill health, few weeks and still others for a few brief days; but all intent upon enjoying a season of relaxation in this quiet place amongst a people whose hospitality is widely known.

A very enjoyable outing was held recently at "Spruce Nook" Victoria, when young and old alike turned out for a real out-door get-together in the form of a clam bake and bonfire to enjoy the great and glorious feeling of an evening under the stars. Needless to say all wended their way homeward, hoping that many more such affairs may take place ere summer is gone once again.

The United Church, Hampton has been moved from its present situation to a new site in the Manse grounds, due to the widening of the road for construction of the new Trans-Canada Highway. This attractive church, formerly Presbyterian, is an old building which has severely stood the test of time, and saw many scholarly and able preachers come and go. The present pastor Rev. L. Woolfrey, who has just recently been inducted into this pastoral charge, is receiving a cordial welcome for himself and family.

Mr. Whitfield Howatt and Mrs. Clay whose homes along the waterfront are closely situated to each other are making improvements which all add to the beauty and attractiveness of this up and coming town. Mrs. Clay is spending the
