Kingston Notes.

If "Truth is the essence of good," the correspondent who wrote about Messrs. Holmes and Matthew in the Examiner of the 3rd inst. should know it, for he evidently took an active part in the dirty dance, and has a right to be "numbered with the puppies in the mud."

Since last fall sickness visited her frequently. There were some cases of scarlet fever, one of typhoid fever, and several of influenza. Through care and the skillful treatment of Dr. A. Marchison, all recovered except one, Miss E. Cruwys, who died of typhus.

Mr. J. Macdougall has made some extensive improvements about the cottage which he purchased from J. Henderson, Esq. The improvements add much to the already attractive appearance of the place.

It is gratifying to the people of Kingston to know that the mail carrier, Mr. H. Simmons, is always on time. His appointment to this important office has been quite an acquisition to the community.

Mr. Thomas Yeo still keeps the post office. He has performed the duties of this office for many years, and conducted everything properly.
