

THE CROWDS REALLY KNOW

The Islanders have a keen sense of Value and when you see them congregated in force rest content the Values are there.

That's Why This Sale Still Packs 'Em In

Yes, folks, search where you will . . . you'll find no such values . . . no such eager crowds.

Junior League City Hospital Monthly Meeting

The Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital held its regular monthly meeting May 6th at the Nurses' Residence, with 38 members present.

The president, Mrs. George Chandler, opened the meeting with prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary and adopted, also the following correspondence: Letters of thanks from Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reardon, Mrs. G. D. Stewart, Mrs. James Hornby, Mrs. Walter Lawlor and student nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital, The Catholic Social Welfare Bureau workers for their annual tag-day, and the Charlottetown Playground Commission for a representative to attend their meetings. The financial statement was read by the treasurer and approved.

Mrs. Jack MacEachern, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee reported on a very successful tag-day held in April also the "Spring Bonnet Tea" which was an outstanding success, both financially and socially. Mrs. MacEachern thanked the members for their co-operation in making the Tea such a success.

The president then asked Mrs. Ivan Laurie, Mrs. Thomas Montaghan and Mrs. Ivan Hughes to look after the nurses' reception to be held at the Holy Redeemer Community Centre on May 28th following the graduation exercises.

Mrs. Mitchell MacDonald was appointed to attend the Charlottetown Playground Commission meetings as representatives of the League.

Names of the members were taken to assist with the Catholic Social Welfare Bureau tag-day. A library has been completed in the Charlottetown Hospital and a discussion on the distribution of the books to the patients was held. It was decided to hold the annual meeting on Friday, May 30th.

Following the adjournment lunch was served by the committee in charge.

TRINITY W. M. S.

The May meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the Social Hall on May 1st. The President, Mrs. Leo Saunders, occupied the chair. It was a large and appreciative audience that listened attentively to the worship service led by the President. The opening hymn, "The Glory of the Spring How Sweet," was written by Thomas Gill and has been called an exquisite lyric. The theme of the meditation was Life's Pattern, and Jesus the pattern. "The love of the Father Eternal is over us all the way, in shadow and pain as well as in sunshine. Our lives are as a rug woven by a blind weaver. The threads that make up the warp are gold and blue and brown - The wool is foggy grey and heather purple, but all blend together in the gold and grey of the pattern of our lives." The worship service was brought to a close by singing "Lord of the Lands, etc." and Mrs. Ashford led in prayer.

The minutes of the April meeting were read and approved. The usual large number of calls was made to the hospital and shut-ins. An interesting quiz on the study book, used during the winter, dealing with home missions was part of the program.

The members brought many parcels of clothing to be sent to Korea, and the supply committee was instructed to look after the mailing of same.

The President welcomed two new Canadians from Holland to the meeting. Light refreshments were served and a warm friendly feeling pervaded the whole service.

LADY FANE W.I.

The regular meeting of the Lady Fane W. I. met on Thursday evening, May 1 at the home of Mrs. Gordon Cotton. In the absence of the president, the vice-president presided and the meeting opened by repeating the de and Creed.

Roll call was responded to by seven members and two visitors were present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed.

One member extended a vote of thanks for treat received when sick, and the committee gave their reports.

It was moved and seconded that 25 cases of cans be ordered. Collection for the evening amounted to 90 cents.

Some discussion took place on the executive meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Robbles on May 31. Mrs. Lewis Francis invited members to meet at her home for the next meeting when the lunch committee will be Mrs. Chet Wilson and Mrs. Park Francis.

On motion the meeting adjourned and lunch was served by the hostess.
