

19 Murder Charges Against 400 Busworker Rioting Charges

43 PERSONS KILLED Airliner Crashes After Brief Flight

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Miami to Chicago jet airliner carrying 43 persons crashed and burned Tuesday in Florida's Everglades wilderness shortly after takeoff apparently were killed. "The fuselage is busted up," said Lt. Cmdr. James Dillon, one of two helicopter pilots who found and explored the wreck. "It's been consumed by fire. Badly burned—guilted."

There were two fires burning from the air, they looked like bonfires. The tail was broken off. Other major components were scattered around.

Dillon's co-pilot, Lt. Cmdr. James Wallace, reported seeing a Miami about 1.60 p.m. Swamp buggies and other special vehicles lurched toward the pitch-dark crash scene—nine miles from the nearest road—where the Northwest Orient Airlines plane, missing 95 hours, was found by coast guard officers in a helicopter.

The plane took off from Miami about 1.40 p.m. The coast guard officers landed and explored the area with flashlights. The plane was lost.

An intensive search by planes and helicopters was initiated after radio contact with the plane was lost.

The U.S. Coast Guard said it had had several reports from people who said they had seen an explosion near a highway west of Miami about 1.40 p.m. The plane took off from Miami at 1.35 p.m.

The Boeing four-jet 720-B left Miami 15 minutes late and radio contact was lost seven minutes later.

There was no sign of trouble up to the point radio contact was lost, William Leverett, chief of the air route traffic control centre, said.

Deputy Fisheries Minister Dies In Tokyo Hotel

TOKYO (AP)—George R. Clark, deputy minister of fisheries for Canada, died here Tuesday.

He died in the Hotel New Japan. Cause of death was not immediately available.

Clark was chairman of the International North Pacific Fisheries Commission and led a Canadian delegation in fisheries negotiations now under way in Tokyo.

The Canadian embassy said that although the cause of death was not immediately known it appeared to be from natural causes. A spokesman said the deputy minister died during the night and his body was found in his hotel room this morning.

Probe Moves Into Quebec

OTTAWA (CP)—Quebec Provincial Police have taken over the investigation into the shooting of 20-year-old Donald Wattson Fleming, it was announced Tuesday.

Police Chief Walter Mahews of nearby St. Hill, Que., took a statement Monday from the justice minister's son at Ottawa City Hospital where the youth has been since the Feb. 2 shooting at the home of a social lawyer—prominent Mrs. Jayne Perley-Robertson.

The chief said reporters there that he would hold a press conference Tuesday but Tuesday he said he will discuss the case—until Attorney-General George Lapine of Quebec is aware of all details.

LESAGE OFFERS WOMEN VOICE

MONTREAL (CP)—Premier Jean Lesage of Quebec plans to give women voters a chance to tell him how they think the government should be run.

The Quebec Liberal party said Tuesday the premier will use a new series of radio broadcasts to answer questions and to chat with some women voters.

The party said women asked to submit to their local radio stations written questions they would like the premier to answer, along with name, address and telephone number.

Women whose questions are chosen will be given an opportunity to chat with the premier on the telephone. The conversation will be broadcast. The new radio series is expected to start shortly.

Macmillan Wins Easy Victory In British Vote of Confidence

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Macmillan's Conservative government easily defeated the Labor motion of non-confidence Tuesday centering about his emergency economic program to counter the effects of Britain's failure to enter the European Common Market.

The Labor amendment to a government confidence motion was beaten by a vote of 332 to 227. Then the government voted during of Macmillan's program 230 to 227.

During debate Tuesday George Brown acting leader of the Labor party said that in recent months the Conservative government had suffered a slap in the face in Paris the order of the boot in Brussels and a kick in The Bahamas for good measure.

Brown a candidate with Harold Wilson for the leadership of the Labor party was the final opposition speaker in the two-day House of Commons debate on the motion expressing confidence in the government.

The Labor amendment was the third opposition confidence motion defeated in less than two weeks. The others had dealt with unemployment and defence.

Officers Named By Lumberman

MONTREAL (CP)—Les McKimmie of Toronto Tuesday was elected president of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association succeeding A. G. Muirhead of Ottawa.

Other officers elected at the annual convention are J. P. Stephenson, Bathurst, N.B., second vice-president; and Paul Beck, Montreal, third vice-president.

ALLENATED FRIENDS

Brown said Prime Minister Macmillan and his cabinet had alienated Britain's friends in the Commonwealth and her partners in the European Free Trade Area. "Literally they haven't a clue" where to go from here, he said.

The government has nowhere to go without turning into the mistrust the ministers themselves created.

Instead of being preoccupied with attempting to prove they were not to blame for the failure the ministers should be concentrating on industrial development, on co-operating with and obtaining co-operation from other nations.

Earlier Edward Heath lord privy seal said it was not a "myth" that the market talks were on the verge of success when France rejected Britain's Heath chief negotiator at the Brussels talks said France's poor reaction to the market talks the belief that acceptable arrangements could have been worked out and soon.

Labour speakers opening the two-day debate Monday had said the government was "not a cent better off."

(Continued on page 3, col. 4)

Legislative Measures Are Forecast In N.B.

FREDERICTON (CP)—The third session of the New Brunswick's 44th legislature opened Tuesday with disclosure of four legislative intentions.

They include measures to provide for rental of high school text books and to establish "a more realistic level of public liability insurance coverage for the financial protection of the innocent victims of highway accidents."

The speech from the throne, read by Premier George J. Leonard O'Brien, said legislative intentions.

He repeated that he did not know what kind of a role the Canadian forces in the Western alliance.

However, he denied having said at any time that they should "necessarily" fill a non-nuclear role.

Mr. Pearson told a press conference that at present there is a great emphasis on conventional forces for collective defence.

He said the government has been discussing statements he has made about the need for a re-examination of Canada's defence policy, the Liberal chief minister said this should take place both within and outside Parliament.

The re-examination would be carried out by the coalition.

He repeated that he did not know what kind of a role the Canadian forces in the Western alliance.

However, he denied having said at any time that they should "necessarily" fill a non-nuclear role.

Mr. Pearson told a press conference that at present there is a great emphasis on conventional forces for collective defence.

He said the government has been discussing statements he has made about the need for a re-examination of Canada's defence policy, the Liberal chief minister said this should take place both within and outside Parliament.

The re-examination would be carried out by the coalition.

Pearson Quieres On Arms Policy

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson Tuesday a conventional role "may well be the best" for the Canadian forces in the Western alliance.

However, he denied having said at any time that they should "necessarily" fill a non-nuclear role.

Mr. Pearson told a press conference that at present there is a great emphasis on conventional forces for collective defence.

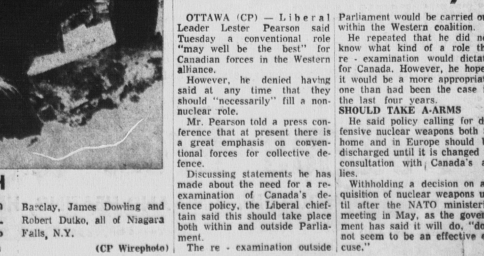

He said the government has been discussing statements he has made about the need for a re-examination of Canada's defence policy, the Liberal chief minister said this should take place both within and outside Parliament.

The re-examination would be carried out by the coalition.

FOUR PERSONS DIE IN ONT. CRASH

Barley, James Dowling and Robert Dufkin, all of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

The four men were thrown 30 feet away. Dead are: Thomas Stevens, 28, believed to be of Winnipeg, and James

Police cope off area around wreckage of plane that crashed into trees along the Niagara Parkway, near Niagara Falls, Ont., Tuesday. Police worked with inches for more than three hours to free the bodies of three of the men and the body of the

Belgian Prince Visits Canada

MONTREAL (CP)—Prince Albert of Liege arrived in Montreal a mid stormy weather Tuesday night to begin a 12-day visit to Canada.

After a brief reception at the airport, Prince Albert was scheduled to leave immediately for Ottawa by car.

The prince plans to visit five provinces—Quebec, New Brunswick, Ontario, Manitoba and Alberta.

The Belgian embassy in Ottawa says the prince's visit is of a private character. He planned to study the economic situation of Canada and examine the possibility of closer cooperation between Canada and Belgium in the commercial and industrial field.

The 28-year-old prince is heir to the Belgian throne. King Baudouin has no children.

The prince will fly to New Brunswick from Quebec City for visits in Fredericton Feb. 21 and Moncton Feb. 22. Return to Montreal, he will depart from here for Washington Feb. 23 and New York Feb. 24.

The chief said reporters there that he would hold a press conference Tuesday but Tuesday he said he will discuss the case—until Attorney-General George Lapine of Quebec is aware of all details.

He was closely allied to Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Mr. Matheson said that so far only the 1961 public accounts of the Conservative government have been brought forward and they revealed a deficit of half a million dollars. He said that the 1962 accounts, to be tabled during the session, might well show an even worse picture.

The tall, veteran politician has been a member of the Senate since 1957. He has been a member of the House of Commons since 1952.

Mr. Matheson said that so far only the 1961 public accounts of the Conservative government have been brought forward and they revealed a deficit of half a million dollars. He said that the 1962 accounts, to be tabled during the session, might well show an even worse picture.

LESAGE OFFERS WOMEN VOICE

MONTREAL (CP)—Premier Jean Lesage of Quebec plans to give women voters a chance to tell him how they think the government should be run.

The Quebec Liberal party said Tuesday the premier will use a new series of radio broadcasts to answer questions and to chat with some women voters.

The party said women asked to submit to their local radio stations written questions they would like the premier to answer, along with name, address and telephone number.

Women whose questions are chosen will be given an opportunity to chat with the premier on the telephone. The conversation will be broadcast. The new radio series is expected to start shortly.

Royal Couple Land At N.Z. South Island

NELSON, N.Z. (Reuters)—Queen Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, arrived here today to begin their tour of New Zealand's South Island.

They had a calm crossing over the royal yacht Britannia over the 2,000-mile journey, which separates the two islands, after leaving New Zealand's capital of Wellington just after midnight.

SAUCY HOLSTEIN IS DEAD AFTER CARE OF 23 YEARS

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—A 23-year-old pig named Saucy Holstein, who was the only one who scored was an army photographer. Michael Bachmann shot her 14 times with his camera as she darted across a clearing.

Bachmann was a black and white pig, weighing 1,500 pounds and as fast as a deer.

She was named with 400 deer when the Navy bought the land. All cattle on Monday near the top of a hill where she used to stand guard over the range she refused to surrender.

SPECIAL CONSTABLES ARE SWORN IN

Fourteen men from across the island were last night sworn in as special constables who will comprise the first group of a proposed 60-man auxiliary police force attached to the provincial civil defence organization. Here, Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McGuigan right administers the oath to six of the trainees. Left to right are George G. Gillespie, Cornwall, Melvin D. MacKinnon, North River, Sterling W. Baker, Midgell, William R. Oulton, Alberton, Herbert P. MacLean and J. Leavelle Wesson, both of Charlottetown. (See story on page 5.)

ISLAND FINANCIAL MESS FORECAST

Matheson Expects Defeat Of MacLean, Macquarrie

By FARMER TISSINGTON
Capital Bureau, The Guardian
OTTAWA (CP)—An exposure of the "true" financial situation in Prince Edward Island at the coming session of the House and the defeat of Conservative candidates Han, J. Angus MacLean and Health Macquarrie in the forthcoming federal election were forecast Tuesday here.

Mr. Matheson was in Ottawa as head of a delegation of 18 Island Liberals attending the national Liberal Council meeting which concluded Tuesday. Among the delegates were Alison Gillis and Ira Lewis, Liberal candidates in Queens and John Mulhally, candidate in Kings. The Liberal candidates is to be chosen at a convention Thursday in Summerside.

Mr. Lewis forecast the defeat of Mr. MacLean and Mr. Macquarrie because they have both

Island Born Man Is Named ADB Executive Director

OTTAWA (CP)—Dr. Ernest Weaks, 31, director of economic studies for the federal public works department for the last nine years, was named Tuesday by Prime Minister Diefenbaker as executive director of the Atlantic Development Board.

The senior appointment for the newly-created board takes effect March 1.

Executive director, Dr. Weaks is chief executive officer responsible for supervision and direction of the board's work and staff.

Before going to the public works department, he was director of economics with defence production and had served in the trade transport carrier.

He has also been a member of the federal cabinet secretary in the Privy Council office and formerly was an instructor in economics at Oxford University.

Fittingly enough, Dr. Weaks is a Charlottetown native. He was born at Mount Allison University in Sackville, N.B. He was a student of the International New Brunswick Rhodes scholar in 1933.

Burglars Make Haul From Plane

AMSTERDAM (Reuters)—KLM Royal Dutch Airlines said early today that currency worth about $20,000 had been stolen at nearby Schiphol Airport from one of its planes arriving from Johannesburg, South Africa.

The stolen money was part of a consignment amounting to nearly $4,000,000, the airline said. The theft occurred Sunday but was announced only today.

SAUCY HOLSTEIN IS DEAD AFTER CARE OF 23 YEARS

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—A 23-year-old pig named Saucy Holstein, who was the only one who scored was an army photographer. Michael Bachmann shot her 14 times with his camera as she darted across a clearing.

Bachmann was a black and white pig, weighing 1,500 pounds and as fast as a deer.

She was named with 400 deer when the Navy bought the land. All cattle on Monday near the top of a hill where she used to stand guard over the range she refused to surrender.

INSIDE TODAY

Announcements, notices	12
Births, deaths	12
Business, markets	13
Comics	11
Editorials	11
City News	12
Kings County	4
Summerside	12
Sport	10
Women	7