All Vessels Safe After Hurricane

HALIFAX, Aug. 23 (CP)-A vessel feared to have been caught in yesterday's fierce Atlantic hurricane turned up in Grand Bank Nfld., today-where she had been all week. How the fishing craft L. D. Dunton came to be reported missing in the storm was not known. The dragger P. J. Cadegan, out of Fortune Bay, Nfld., reported picking up an early-morning signal Sunday from the Dunton. The message said the Dunton was 20 miles from land off Newfoundland's south coast. It was considered likely here that communication difficulties caused by the brewing storm may have caused the Cadegan to mistake the radio message. Two other vessels missing for a time at the height of the storm turned up safely with all crew members safe.

Grain

WINNIPEG, Aug. 23 (CP)-Coarse grain prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today displayed a firm to strong tone, with October contracts leading the other contract months in the upswing. Shippers bought oats and barley while some American demand came in for both grains. Rye also came in for some American and local demand. Moderate offerings were well taken. Main factors in the price climb were the rail strike and reports of frost in the grain-growing areas of the prairies. Traders showed some concern as to whether the strike would affect future grain deliveries. There was no export business reported. Class two wheat, for export to countries outside the international wheat agreement, was unchanged. Closing prices: Oats: Oct 2 higher 87; Dec 2 higher 79 3-8; May 1 3-8 higher 80 3-8. Barley: Oct 3 5-8 higher $1.25 3-4; Dec 3 1-2 higher $1.19 1-4; May 3 1-2 higher $1.20 1-8. Rye: Oct 4 higher $1.47 1-8; Dec 2 1-2 higher $1.45 3-4; May 3 higher $1.50 1-2. Wheat: Oct 1-2 higher $3.49 1-2; Dec. unchanged $3.4n.
