CHARLES WATTS.—The morning Telegram says: "Mr. Watts is a scholar and orator, and handles his opponents with great fairness. He leaves an impression that he is thoroughly in earnest, and anxious to discover the truth." CUT WITH A PICK.—Hugh Martin, a laborer employed by the Waterworks Contractors, had a pick accidentally driven through his left hand by a fellow employe on Saturday evening, while at work in the pipe trench near the Medical Hall. EVENING SALE.—Fancy goods, clocks, watches, silver-plated knives, spoons, &c., this (Tuesday) evening, June 26, at Rooms, 11 Queen Street, commencing at 7 o'clock sharp. This is bankrupt stock, and must be sold.—A. McNEILL, Auctioneer. Y. M. C. A.—A meeting of the active members of the Y. M. C. A., to appoint delegates to attend the Convention at Amherst on the 26th July, will be held in the Upper Parlor of the Association this evening at 8 o'clock. All the members are requested to be present. HIS EYE INJURED.—Yesterday while a young lad named Francis McNaughton was watching the workmen chipping one of the large pipes for the waterworks several pieces of the flying metal got into one of his eyes—one sticking on the ball and the other on the lid. REVIVAL SERVICES.—Special services are still being continued at the Christian Church, Upper Great George Street. A goodly number have already been converted and united to the church. This evening at 7.45 Dr. Burr will address the audience having for his theme: "Will it Pay?" FOUND.—The body of the late Clarence T. Hamilton, who was drowned on the 7th January last, while skating on the lakes between Windsor Junction and Halifax, was recovered on Sunday evening, on the shores of Lake Charles. The body was in a good state of preservation, and the skates and boots were covered with mud. The remains were interred yesterday afternoon. SOURIS TEA.—The congregation of St. Mary's Church, Souris, intend holding one of their high-class teas, at that place, on the 1st August next. The tea will be held on the beautiful grounds near the Convent, and will be under the management of a committee who will leave nothing undone that will tend to the comfort and pleasure of those who attend. There will be the usual reduced rates along the line of railway. ELOPEMENT.—The Halifax papers state that a girl named Hart, belonging to that city, eloped last week with a man named Williamson, who belongs to St. John, and who is the father of four children, his wife being still alive. Williamson went to Halifax in search of work and while in the city boarded with Miss Hart's parents. He made love to the girl with the above result. The guilty pair are said to have gone to Boston. SYMPATHETIC.—The following report of the committee appointed by the Central Baptist association of Nova Scotia to meet with the Rev. Edward Whitman was warmly supported and unanimously adopted. "Your Committee having listened to Bro. Whitman's explanation of the sad calamity that has befallen the Church at Charlottetown, P. E. I., in the burning of their beautiful place of worship are of opinion: 1st—"The cause demands the sympathy and aid of the entire denomination." 2nd—"That the effort should be made to raise not less than $2,500 in Nova Scotia, and that one thousand of this sum should be raised within the bounds of this association. Miss McGARRY.—Commenting on the recital of this talented lady, the Boston Advertiser says:—"Miss McGarry's selections were of uncommon variety, made with a view to exhibiting the dramatic scope of the reader. She brings to her work, indeed, a better mingling of qualification than is often seen; a refined presence, an intellectual face and a general flexibility of gesture that suits the action to the word with an easy spontaneity—never overdone. Her voice lends itself admirably to its subject, of smooth, timbre and full compass, and it is quite obvious she loves her work. On the whole this reader has more versatility and natural aptitude for her calling than any one we have lately seen in this line of art." See advertisement in another column. BEAR SKIN.—A correspondent of the Pioneer says: About three weeks ago, Mr. Peter Warren, of Brockton, Lot 4, in company with his son, entered the forest about dusk, with gun and axe, in search of a huge bear, that had committed depredations in the neighborhood. About nine o'clock Warren was discovered slyly making his way toward some bait which Mr. Warren had laid. Just as the brute was about to help himself, Mr. Warren fired, and the bear dropped dead. Ten days afterwards Mr. Warren and son made another hunt with the same intentions and weapons, and bagged a second bear, but not so large as the first one. Owing to the darkness of the night and intervening trees, Mr. Warren could not take aim as he wished, and the bear did not drop dead. He managed to escape when father and son assailed him with axe and club, and after a fierce struggle killed him. They deserve great credit for their bravery on both occasions.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER. REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. The Candidates Chosen. HARRISON FOR PRESIDENT. Morton for Vice-President. CHICAGO, June 25 (11.10). The convention has been called to order. Mr. Boutelle, of Maine, takes the platform to withdraw Blaine's name from the convention. He says, without attempting to give construction to the language he would read the despatches from Blaine. He reads despatches from Edinburgh, earnestly requesting his friends to refrain from voting for him (Blaine.) At 11.22 the balloting was resumed. At 12.05 p. m., California changed, Blaine 5, Harrison to Allison. Florida gave Harrison 4, Kansas gave Harrison 6, Kentucky, Harrison, 10. Up to Maine, Harrison then gained 18. Henderson, of Iowa, withdrew Allison's name. Senator Cullom, of Illinois, said the vote of Allison will go to Harrison. Colorado gave Harrison 6, Connecticut 11. The assurance received soon after the withdrawal of Allison that his vote would go to Harrison took the last hope from the friends of Sherman. Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, finding that the game was up, told his friends to fall in line. As soon as it became known that New York would not desert Harrison, there was no longer any doubt of the result, the reading became a mere formality. Harrison was nominated after Tennessee's vote had been cast, giving him 431 votes. Only a single vote stood by Sherman in Pennsylvania and after that the states vote. The Harrison movement became a landslide. The ballot resulted as follows: Eighth and last ballot. Harrison, 549; Sherman, 118; Alger, 100; Gresham, 54; Blaine, 5; McKinley, 4. The result was received with a burst of applause. The great crowd arose and shouted until it had tired itself out. Cries of "He's all right" were heard, ending finally with three cheers for Harrison. The Convention became quiet enough to hear the official announcement of the result. When the count had been made and it was found Harrison was chosen his nomination was made unanimous. At 2.10 p. m.—Moved recess to 5 p. m. Declared not seconded. Great confusion. The roll is being called for nomination of Vice-President. 2.30 p. m.—Dewey, of Kentucky, nominated Bradley for Vice-President. After a motion to adjourn had been voted down the Convention went on with the regular order of placing in nomination candidates for Vice-President. The name of Wm. O. Bradley, Kentucky, was placed in nomination by Texas, seconded by Kansas, Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, Michigan. Senator Sewell, of New Jersey, stated that it was the intention of New Jersey to present the name of William Walker Phelps for Vice-President. As the members were tired he moved for recess until 6 o'clock, which was agreed to. At 6.07 p. m.—The convention was called to order. Griggs, of New Jersey, presented the name of Phelps for Vice-President. Miller, of New York, rose to nominate Levi P. Morton. McElwee, of Tennessee, presented Wm. R. Moore for Vice-President. Moore withdrew. Morton was nominated for Vice-President at 8 p. m. The first ballot was taken as follows:—Morton, 591; Phelps, 119; Bruce, 11; W. F. Thomas, 1. There was great excitement over the attempt of Mr. Boutelle, of Maine to present a temperance resolution. Mr. Boutelle's resolution pledges the sympathy of the Republican party to all wise and well directed effort to promote temperance and morality. His resolution was adopted by an almost unanimous vote. At 8.44 the convention adjourned sine die.
