A BIT OF ADVICE.

Take kindly all that is kindly meant,
Be first to thank, be last to resent;
Give smiles to all who give smiles to thee,
And those who come frowning feign not to see;
And oh, believe me, this is the plan
To lighten, to brighten, the lot of man.
Seem blind when the faults of a friend appear,
Seem deaf when the slanderer's voice you hear;
Seem dumb when the curious crowd you meet,
And they bid you the slanderer's tale repeat;
And oh, believe me, this is the plan
To lighten, to brighten the lot of man.

GAMEKEEPER AND POACHER.

A Desperate Encounter and a Timely Rescue.

The Yorkshire (England) Factory Times, of March 16th, contains the story of a bout between a gamekeeper and a poacher, in which the former came out second best, and would have been killed but for a timely rescue. The poacher was not a man, but an infinitely more subtle and dangerous antagonist; and but for the intervention of a Canadian its coveted victim would to-day be numbered with the dead. The story, as related in the English paper named above, is as follows:

Mr. James Coulton was for twenty-five years gamekeeper on the estate of Weld Blundell Esq., Southport. Several months ago he was attacked with partial paralysis, and what the doctors termed softening of the brain. He was confined to his bed and had lost all hope. Hearing of the (great Canadian) Hawker remedies, he was induced to give them a trial. After taking four bottles of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic, and a box of Hawker's liver pills, a change manifested itself; a continuous improvement took place, and he is now well. He is to-day able to go about all the advocations of his daily life. Nothing but Hawker's tonic saved him, for he was bedridden and the fiat had gone forth that his case was hopeless."

It does not require a very brilliant mind to draw the right inference from the above clear and emphatic statement. It is that any person in an infeebled state of health, from whatever cause, will find in Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic a sure agent for the restoration of health and strength. The terrible poacher, Disease, has no armor to withstand the power of these great remedies. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is a certain cure when faithfully used for all disease arising from nerve exhaustion, weakened or impaired digestion or any impoverished or impure condition of the blood, and the prostrating effects of la grippe or any nerve weakness of heart or brain arising from worry, overstrain of mind or body or excesses of any nature. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic and Hawker's liver pills are manufactured by the Hawker Medicine Co., St. John, N. B. Canada, and can be obtained from all druggists and dealers. Tonic fifty cents a bottle or six bottles for $2.50. Pills twenty-five cents a box.

Don't Stuff a Cold.

If you do you will nine times in ten, have a fever to starve.

A cold is a shock received by the myriad nerves that bristle near the surface of a human body. This shock is transmitted to the nerve centres, and then back to the mucous membranes, forcing a great amount of blood to the membranes, creating a more or less severe irritation and consequent rise in the temperature, followed by chills. Excess of food in the stomach still more increases the temperature, and, worst of all, helps clog the secretions or natural outlet of the body. It is high time we broke away from the old notion which, like some others, has done more harm than good. For example, in years past how many poor fever sufferers, burning with an internal fire and thirst, were hurried to an untimely grave because not allowed cooling drinks or a bit of ice by the old time treatment for fevers, as foolish as the adage for colds. At last one cunning delirious patient went ... to a pump of cold water and drank his fill; determined not to leave until the well ran dry, he slacked his fever, recovered, and doctors learned a lesson. Experimenting with a severe cold is a dangerous custom, as most persons try one remedy only until some friend suggests another "sure cure," as Mark Twain so humorously describes. When slight hoarseness or tightening of the nasal membranes warns one of a sk... exposure or chill from wet, act promptly; a delay is dangerous. With children it may mean croup and strangulation; with adults, catarrh, bronchitis, perhaps pneumonia. If neglected, nothing can prevent the sneezing, red nose, and woe-begone look of a person with a cold. Scores of mothers would as soon go to bed without matches in the house, as without that old fashioned remedy, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, near at hand for croupy children. Used with a mild laxative, as described in a pamphlet which I. S. Johnson and Co., Boston, Mass., will send free to anyone, Johnson's Liniment will cure a cold for adults quicker than any known remedy. A mild nutritious diet, a gentle physic to open the secretions, and a bottle of that old Anodyne from your druggist, will conquer any cold. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment was originated by an old family physician more than seventy years ago.

Westport, N. S.

Capt. G. C. Haley, of the Schr. Jessie B. says: that for the last 4 years he had been a great sufferer from rheumatism in his knee, which at times swelled up and became very painful. He tried many remedies without success untill he obtained some of Dr. Manning's german remedy, which gave him instant relief. He also says: "I have used it for indigestion, flatulence, cold in the stomach, cramps, neuralgia, and in fact for almost every kind of pain or ache. I would not be without it, he adds, at any price." Dr. Manning's german remedy is manufactured only by the Hawker Medicine Co'y., St John, N. B., and is for sale by all druggists and dealers.
