

THE ATLANTIC FAIR, P.E.I., AND EXPO 67

The record crowds attending the Atlantic Winter Fair at Halifax this week got a glimpse of things to come at the 1967 World Exhibition in Montreal. At the display of Expo 67 and the Atlantic Provinces Pavilion—a joint effort of the four eastern provinces—an Expo hostess, Sonia Saumier, indicates some of the points of interest on a scale model of the 960-acre site to William Slade, a resident of Hope River, P.E.I. Mr. Slade recently joined the Expo Corporation and will work for it in the Atlantic Provinces. Miss Saumier of Montreal speaks seven languages and is wearing the official Expo hostess uniform.

A Conservative Government Means $25.00 A Month Extra To You

When you have read all the juggled figures the Liberal Party has to offer you

And when you have added the figures to your own satisfaction

And regardless of your income, when you have calculated what your total pension figure will be

Add $25.00 A Month To The Best Liberal Figures You Can Find

The high figure is the one you get if a Progressive Conservative Government is looking out for you and for Canada. The high figure is the one you get after a Diefenbaker Government has raised the Old Age Pension to $100 a month.
