This Track And Field Show

TRACK and field has made a tremendous resurgence in this country in the past two years, and Dave Boswell, with able assistance from fellows like Jack Reedy, Charlie Bailem and Jacques Boudreau, is mounting a fine show in the first time in this nation-wide development.

Today's gatherings of champions and future champions of Maritimes would convince even the most sceptical that the runners, jumpers, pole vaulters, and throwers of assorted pieces of equipment are really in the forefront of the sporting scene.

The meet will offer, for the first time, the pole vaulting artery of Summerside. All Green—after the Canadian record in his field, Groom has been vaulting for several years and has made headlines with his great ability, but, oddly enough, his appearance today at Memorial Field is the first time that he has ever displayed his talents before a Charlottetown gathering. "This observation was passed along last night" by Dave Boswell, who regards today's meet as the greatest gathering of track and field stars ever assembled in this province.

Best Middle-Distance Runner

"WE HAVE the best middle-distance runner in the Maritimes here today in Mike Noble," says Bill Ledwell. "He can run the mile in 4:15, the half in better than 1:50, and the quarter in something like 49 seconds. He should have Track and Field of Halifax, perhaps the best sprinter in the Maritimes; Bob Simmons, tops in the field events; and this Jackson fellow from Bridgewater. There may be the best of the best in Canada."

Dave reported last night that his heavy entry list became even heavier. Halifax boosted its representation from eight to 18. There is sending 12 instead of two, and in another eleven-hour move, Antigonish has sent a team of five, which is 10 more than they were expected to produce.

Events at Memorial Field get underway at 7:30 p.m. and will continue right through until this evening, with the main events—the finals in the open events—started for the afternoon. The opening on the first day at Memorial Field. There may not be a single record left unbroken when the sun sets over that picturesque park this evening.

Tonight's Race To Be Aired

Interested in tonight's $200 free-for-all at Sackville Downs, the B. Cruikshank Memorial Pace, is almost as big as if the race were being staged at the local track, mainly because two of the named speedsters, James Byrne and Lanny Hays, are starters.

The Island entries in the big race, richest in the Maritimes for the class, were shipped to Halifax Thursday. Algonia Bell said last night that Greenberg's June Byrd is right for the race, and Clark Smith has Tammy Hall in line. The race will be carried by CFNY radio tonight, on a special Maritime network. The races will be carried by many Fleming and CIBC stations in the Maritimes, from CIBC Halifax. Other stations on the network are Fredericton, Saint John, Moncton, Sydney and Halifax. So "the B. Cruikshank" will be the most widely heard of the Maritimes. Broadcast times tonight are 9:00 p.m. to 9:30, and 10:30 to 11 o'clock.

Dee's Boy Should Win

Dee's Boy should come out on top in this one, on the strength of recent performances. Race fans are still talking about his double victory on August 1 in 2:03.1 and 2:03.4, and he was the winner of the Big Evening Pattern Cup at the Gold Cup and Sorensen Stakes in 2:05.1; he was 4:43 in the Monday night feature at the Old Home week show, and he had a 3:2 summary at Sackville Downs when Dee's Boy was 2:05.1.

JUNE BYRD looked good at that Sackville Downs event when he was 2:03, but the Charlottetown mare sagged in the Old Home week events and was 5:4 on Monday night and 3:6 on Tuesday. He was 4:15 in the Sackville Downs event on the other hand, looked very good in winning the first heat of the Monday night free-for-all in 2:07.1, and in the big Friday night classic he turned in a very excellent 2:2 summary.

Penicillin reacts on Leo Duchrocher

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Duchrocher, Los Angeles Dodgers coach and former manager of New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, collapsed Friday after a routine check-up at a hospital with a "violent case of penicillin allergy."

The 32-year-old Duchrocher was stricken while sitting in front of his locker before a game with the Montreal Expos at Shea's Grounds. He never was completely unconscious, but seconds after the attack he slumped, clutching his chest and gasping.

Duchrocher was stretched on a clubhouse bench and a doctor was summoned over the loud-speaker system. Dr. W. A. de Hastings of Malone, N.Y., who was attending the game, said: "It was a penicillin allergic shock. He had an abdominal cramp, a penicillin shot, he got an infection during the afternoon."

Duchrocher remained conscious and tried to talk. "I can't move my left arm," he complained.

Dr. Louis Park, who has an office in New York, rushed in to aid Dr. Hastings. He said: "The doctor took a penicillin shot again, I wouldn't touch it."

Duchrocher was taken to Roosevelt Hospital.
