

Dark Lightning

By Helen Topping Miller CHAPTER II (Continued)

Spring was not concerned with problems or emotions but went on stirring her golden brew, and the vapor of it lay like a mist of gull in the air, mixing grieved old trees quaken and every young thing stir with a strange, uneasy agony.

'Hopalong Cassidy' In Modern Age

The "Hopalong Cassidy" of the gasoline age, 21-year-old Bill Martisch of Kitchener, Ont., is seen above arriving in Orillia, Ontario, via "Rocky", his horse, on the last leg of a 11,000-mile journey which took them to Halifax, Victoria and several hundred places in between.

He had been sitting on the forty-yard line while he was straight-arming some guy to block a pass, it would have come the same way, like a shock of rose-colored lightning. But it wasn't a happy feeling.

He hadn't even a job he was something now that people felt sorry for. He moaned a little, involuntarily, and the nurse got up out of her chair and Sim poised his razor, disturbed. "Let me move him a little," the nurse said, and Gary shut his eyes and thought how like the devil he must look to her, with father on half his face.

"I'll be doing my dancing on the end of a chain of pipe," he said dearily. "Good-by — have a swell time."

"I will, I'm going with Bob Ferguson. He's a smooth dancer. And he doesn't get tight — that's something."

"That's a lot," Gary conceded. "Good night."

That night his temperature went up a point. People came next morning and poked his ear and took cultures and things and looked wise and wondered what had gone wrong. Gary said nothing but he knew that everything had gone wrong. It was a circle that went round and round in his head every night, beginning with a pressing unhappiness and flaring up into resentment that later burned out in shame.

SYMBOL OF STRENGTH — A motto that was Charlemagne's in the year 800 forms part of the newly authorized insignia of Headquarters Allied Forces in Europe. The Latin phrase around the shield means "Crime does not pay". It stands as a warning against would-be aggressors as the West builds its strength. In the center is a tower in silver, symbolizing "the fortress of Europe." On the gateway to the tower are the letters "CE" standing for Central Europe. Behind the tower and pointing upward is the sword of Charlemagne.

Accident-Free Motorists To Receive Benefits

TORONTO, (CP) — A greater number of Canadian accident-free motorists will soon be eligible for safe-driving credits which will cut their private passenger automobile insurance rates, it was announced Saturday by the Canadian Underwriters Association and the Independent Automobile Insurance Conference.

The two groups represent most of the 200-odd competing automobile insurance companies in Canada. The credits will apply both to renewals of existing policies and to new applicants for insurance who can qualify, the statement said.

The "preferred risk rating plan" was first introduced in Canada last April to provide reduced bodily injury, property damage and collision rates for a limited group of accident-free automobile owners. It will be broadened Feb. 1 to include most of the other groups into which private passenger cars are divided for purposes of rating.

Keep Publicity To Minimum On Internal Security

NEW YORK, (CP) — A Canadian jurist told an international conference of legal experts Saturday the Canadian government has found it desirable to keep publicity to a minimum in administering its internal security policy.

Mr. Justice Ivan Rand of the Supreme Court of Canada, addressed the conference on "community security vs man's right to knowledge" held in connection with the bicentennial of Columbia University.

Outlining the government attitude toward Communists and others it employs "whose minds may be tainted with hostile purposes," he said that while such persons cannot be permitted to engage in vital activities, they should neither be "treated as outcasts" nor be denied "the privilege of remaining and participating in the neutral life of the country."

"The individual is not subjected to public exposure which, whatever his guilt or innocence, might destroy his standing in the community; and when the case is intelligently dealt with, as by transferring him to other departmental work, he may be enabled to give to the country, in purely civil activities, service of high value."

No Defects Evident Mr. Justice Rand added that "there has been no evidence" that such policy has shown "serious weaknesses or defects." Security policies of Switzerland, France, Italy and the U. S. were discussed by representatives of those countries. Whitney Seymour, chairman of the American Bar Association, said a long-standing policy of "toleration" of the Communist party in the U. S. had led to shock and disillusionment. He said great injury had been done to the U. S. and the people had "made up their minds as to certain steps that must be taken to preserve security." One decision was that the Communist party was a Soviet conspiracy.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ELBY B. HOWLETT Heaven is richer and Annandale much poorer because of the passing to the glory-land on Nov. 21 of Mrs. Elby B. Howlett of Annandale, at the comparatively early age of 56 years.

The late Mrs. Howlett was born in Annandale on March 27, 1879, a daughter of the late Edwin and Emma (Jenkins) MacParlane. She lived in Annandale all her life where she occupied a large place in the life of the community.

Consequently her passing is an irreparable loss to the locality where everyone was her friend. Many who visited the Annandale branch of the Prince Edward Island Libraries of which she was Librarian, will recall her never-failing courtesy and helpfulness.

She was a competent organist and served in that capacity in the United Church of Canada and the Baptist Church for many years. Every good cause could count on her wholehearted support. The removal from the community of one
