Michener Attends 'Hanging'

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. Roland Michener, in his own words, attended his own "hanging" here.

The occasion was the unveiling of a portrait of the former Commons Speaker and member for Toronto St. Paul's in the railway committee room. The portrait will hang with those of all other speakers since the 1840 act of union, in the corridor immediately behind the Commons chamber.

The unveiling of the portrait by Cleeve Horne of Toronto was performed by Senator Ross Macdonald, opposition leader in the Senate and a former Commons colleague. Minister Diefenbaker, Opposition Leader Pearson, Social Credit Leader Thompson and New Democratic Party Leader Douglas all attended as well as some 80 other MPs of all parties.

Senator Macdonald said the simultaneous translation system was introduced in the Commons during Mr. Michener's regime.

He recalled that in his early days as speaker, he had difficulty reading the opening prayer in French. After three weeks he had asked Prime Minister St. Laurent how he sounded. Mr. St. Laurent had replied:

"I understand it, but I doubt that the good Lord Does."
