

The Paper That Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News Worth Reading All The Ads Worth Printing

Charlottetown Guardian, Three Cents. Morning Guardian, Founded 1861. Evening Guardian 1887.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1921

Annual Subscription, $2.00. Single Copies, 3 Cents. By Mail, Canada, $4.00, U. S. & A. $4.50.

DE VALERA IS NOT ON A PEACE MISSION

Say Advanced Sinn Feiners Who Declare Peace is Possible Only on the Basis of Independence and by Treaty.

DUBLIN, Jan. 7.—The Associated Press correspondent today conversed with several persons who have seen and spoken with Eamonn De Valera.

SENSATIONAL DISMISSAL FROM POST OFFICE DEPT.

Robert Fowler, Superintendent of Dead Letter Department and His Stenographer, Mrs. Puget Dismissed. Cause Not Made Public.

(Special to The Guardian.) OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—News of the dismissal of Mr. Robert Fowler, Superintendent of the Post Office Dead Letter Department by special Government order in council comes as quite a sensation in Government circles.

LIQUOR QUESTION ACUTE IN QUEBEC PROVINCE

Doubt Expressed as to Legality of Proposed Measure to Prevent Exportation of Liquor from Quebec to Other Provinces.

(Special to The Guardian.) TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 7.—The Quebec Legislature cannot prohibit the export of liquor to Ontario or any other province, is the opinion of Hon. W. E. Raney, Attorney General of Ontario.

FRENCH DESTROYERS ARE BEING SENT TO RIGA

In Response to Cables Declaring Bolsheviki Menace is Serious.

(Special to The Guardian.) PARIS, Jan. 7.—The French authorities confirm my information from Riga that the French Mission there considers the Bolsheviki danger so serious as to warrant their repeated requests by cable that warships be sent without delay.

Cigar Makers Accept Reduction in Wage

(Special to The Guardian.) HAMILTON, Ont., Jan. 7.—Following the suspension of work on December 3, in Hamilton's largest cigar factory the cigar makers local union decided to accept a general reduction of from five to ten per cent in wages taking effect immediately.

True Bill Found Against Doughty

(Special to The Guardian.) TORONTO, Jan. 7.—"A True Bill" was returned yesterday afternoon by the Grand Jury in the County Criminal Court here against John Doughty on a charge of stealing $105,000 Victory Bonds of the property of Ambrose J. Small, missing theatre owner.

RAILWAY MATTERS DISCUSSED WITH GEN. SUPT. AT MONCTON

Hon. M. Kennedy and Mr. J. A. Messervy Submit Important Matters to General Superintendent at Moncton and are Assured of Improvements in Near Future

Hon. Murdoch Kennedy, M. L. A., and Mr. J. A. Messervy returned from Moncton after interviewing the new Railway management there on matters of special interest to the Maritime Provinces.

Canadian Fleet Leaves for Pacific

(Special to The Guardian.) HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 7.—H. M. C. S. Aurora and the Destroyers, Patriot and Patricia, are expected to leave Halifax tonight for the Pacific Coast.

Closing Service of Week of Prayer

The week of prayer service held in the Methodist Church last evening brought to a close this series of prayer meetings which have all been well attended and in which a live interest was taken by those attending.

Lord Milner Resigns As Sec. of Colonies

(Special to The Guardian.) LONDON, Jan. 7.—Lord Milner today resigned his portfolio as Secretary for the Colonies. The name of his successor has not yet been announced.

No Truth in Rumor Re Union of Navies

(Special to The Guardian.) OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—The Naval Department here denies the existence of an informal compact between the Canadian Government and the Republican Party of the United States by which the latter would be permitted to use the Canadian fleet under a unit connecting link and the world States naval bases on the Pacific.

Str. Knut Hamsun Sails For Liverpool

(Special to The Guardian.) HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 7.—The steamer Knut Hamsun sailed today for Liverpool with 20,457 barrels of wool, steamer Marstenen is expected to sail tomorrow with 15,000 barrels for London.

Are Registering The Unemployed

(Special to The Guardian.) MONTREAL, Jan. 7.—The various organizations assisting in the work of registering the huge army of unemployed in this city were besieged today by these unfortunates but were only able to register about forty out of two hundred and fifty who applied on account of shortage of forms for this purpose.

DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH MAYOR O'CALLAGHAN

Landed in U. S. as Stowaway Without Passports: Held by Immigration Dept. Parolled by Secretary Wilson Without Consultation With State Department.

(Special to The Guardian.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—A conflict between the department of State and Labor is foreshadowed today over the final decision as to the admission of Daniel J. O'Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, who was apprehended by immigration authorities upon his arrival at Newport News from Ireland as a stowaway without a passport.

CONDENSED SPECIALS

GIRL WANTED FOR HOUSE work. Apply 174 Kent St.

WANTED.—BOY TO WORK after school at The MacKinnon Drug Co.

ACCOMMODATION FOR BOARDERS, near college. Apply 236 Fitzroy St.

HAY FOR SALE—4 CARLOADS if No. 1 pressed hay. In lots to suit purchasers. Apply Joseph Praught, Cherry Valley.

LOST—ON JANUARY 3RD A RETURNED soldiers button No. 29228 Reward if returned to this office.

TEACHER WANTED—SECOND class teacher for Richmond Station school district No. 136. Apply to John P. Gaudet, Sec.

RETURN.—WILL THE PARTY who took a mink muff from the counter at Moore & McLeod's on Friday, return same at once to Moore & McLeod's.

WANTED AT ONCE AN EXPERIENCED maid for general housework. Good wages. References required. Apply 248 Stratford St.

LOST ON NEW YEAR'S MORNING in this city, man's green sweater coat. Finder please return to this office.

PRIVATE NURSES EARN $15 TO $30 a week. Learn without leaving home. Descriptive booklet sent free. Royal College of Science, Dept. 25, Toronto, Canada. 1055-12 20MESat251

GENTLEMAN CAN BE ACCOMMODATED with rooms and board in private house with all modern conveniences. Central location. Apply "J. M. C." care of Guardian.

WANTED—MAID FOR GENERAL housework in family of three. Apply Mrs. Noel DeBlois, 28 Brighton Road.

LOST—DECEMBER 24TH, ON Western train, hand grip containing books and shoes. Finder please leave with Amos Monaghan, Whitehill, or Fred Green baggage master, Charlottetown. Reward.

WAREHOUSE FOR SALE.—2 1-2 story high. Size 25 x 50, extra heavy mortgage frame; adjoining railway switch at Elliott's siding. Could be easily taken apart and shipped. Also 1 Set Eureka Grist Mill Smuttermans, Bargains for someone. Apply to L. Wood, Hunter River.

Maritime Provinces Telegraphic News

(Special to The Guardian.) DREW'S TRIAL IN PROGRESS

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 7.—The preliminary hearing of George Drew charged with rape and doing violence to the person of a woman, Northrup today aged four and six was resumed today. One witness positively swore to seeing Drew with the children shortly before the next house in her bare feet.

HOUSE BURNED, WOMAN HAD NARROW ESCAPE

RENFORTH, N. B., Jan. 7.—A house owned by James Downey, C. N. R. car inspector, was destroyed by fire here yesterday at a loss of $2,000, partly covered by insurance. Mrs. Downey was sick in bed and barely escaped with her life. She was obliged to walk to the next house in her bare feet.

INDIANS NOT GUILTY

NTWCASTLE, N. B., Jan. 7.—A verdict of not guilty was brought in by a jury here today in the case of Peter and Frank Mitchell, the two Indians charged with the murder of John Deedam.

ALL WORK RESUMED AT SPRINGHILL MINES

SPRINGHILL, N. B., Jan. 7.—All work was resumed in the mines here today, pending a submission of the terms to the local U. M. W.

SIR GEORGE FOSTER AND BRIDE ARRIVE IN ST. JOHN

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 7.—Sir George E. Foster and bride arrived in the C. P. O. S. Empress of Britain, which docked this afternoon.

LIGHTHOUSE AT GLACE BAY BURNED

SLDNEY, N. S., Jan. 7.—The lighthouse at Glace Bay harbor, together with all the supplies for the winter which it contained, were destroyed by fire here today. The cause was discovered by people along the waterfront, when well lit for the night as well as other lights in the harbor which were put out about a week ago became a total loss.

Fluctuations in Prices Of Farm Products

ST.—The Patriot of January 4th places prominently on the front page thereof an article taken from the "Little Times" entitled: "The City Man and the Farmer." In comparing the present situation of the farmer with that of the city worker, the manufacturer, the wholesaler and the jobber, the concluding part of the article reads as follows: "The farmer despite his evident belief that he stands all alone and is being hampered from all directions by every other element in the community, as a matter of fact is not so badly off as the others."

Ontario Conservatives Hold Convention

(Special to The Guardian.) TORONTO, Jan. 7.—Hon. C. Howard Ferguson, recently chosen permanent leader of the Conservative Party in Ontario held a conference at the Albany Club yesterday afternoon with Conservative M. P.'s and discussed the coming session of legislature. It was agreed they should drop their non-political attitude of the first session of the New Farmer Legislature now that the U. F. O. Labor Government had been in power about fifteen months and be on the aggressive in future. With this end in view each Conservative member was allotted work as far as this could be done, in advance.

Mr. Frizzell Replies To The Patriot

To the Editor of the Patriot: Sir—As you have seen fit to try and drag my private business into our political discussions I hope that I will not be considered impudent in answering you after your own methods.

Should Find Out About the Embargo

(Special to The Guardian.) MONTREAL, Jan. 7.—"Before Premier Drury of Ontario and his Minister of Agriculture start twisting the lion's tail over the cattle embargo, they should make certain that Canada has something to gain from the raising of the embargo," said a Montrealer who is interested in the cold storage business in Britain and other countries of Europe.

THE WEATHER, TEMPERATURE, TIDE, MOON, ETC.

Saturday, moderate fresh east to south winds, cloudy and milder. The lowest temperature on Thursday night was 19 degrees; at 9 a. m. yesterday it was 20. The highest yesterday was 21. At 9 last night it was 19. High tide this morning at 11 and tonight at 9.55. New moon, Saturday January 9th.

Noozle the Sunshine Kid

"AND I KICKED ON THE HEAT LAST SUMMER!"

