

BRISTOL
Miss Mabel O'Brien is spending a part of her holidays with relatives in Halifax, N.S. Word has been received here of the serious illness of Mrs. Art Ebershaw, in Halifax, where she has been living with her daughter Mary. Member of her immediate family, he left for Nova Scotia to be with his mother in her grave illness. Mrs. Ebershaw is a sister of Mrs. William MacDonald, and resided here most of her life. Miss Norma Simon left Thursday for her teaching duties in Saskatchewan, after having called home due to the sudden passing of her father during the Christmas season. Two other married sisters and her brother Ralph, also came from Hamilton, Ont. and Ottawa. They left on return Sunday morning by air.

Joseph MacDonald and his sister Mrs. Walter O'Brien, Christchurch, were in Marion day on business for a short while.

The Christmas crib in the Little Flower Church, erected every Christmas beside the altar in memory of the late pastor, Rev. Joseph Rooney, was re-built again this year. Father Rooney died in January, 1942.

William MacDonald, a retired C.N.R. section chief, who retired ten years ago recalls the time fifty-nine years ago when the train was stuck in the snow at the lot 40 railway station here, for one whole month. His late father was among those who hauled wood to fire the engines, long after the coal was used up. He remembers the days of the old narrow-gauge and the late Conductor Bill Davy, a Bristol man, was a young brakeman. Mr. MacDonald could recall many a late father was among those who hauled wood to fire the engines, long after the coal was used up. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Don even, Jr. who married some time ago have taken up residence in the city for the winter months while travelling is not so certain.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henneberry, that grand old couple who are still young at heart, left recently for Ottawa, to spend the winter months with their daughter Ellen, as they have done for the past several years.

Miss Bernadette McInnis, of the Charlottetown Hospital staff, spent the Christmas holidays with her mother in this vicinity.

Mrs. Joseph Roach who was housekeeping in the city for some time, spent the holiday season at her home here. It is understood she and Mr. Roach will go to the city to reside in the new year.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Drake, and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Drake were visitors to Charlottetown last week, also Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coffin.

When this column comes to press it will be 1964, and let us remind you this article has been writing Bristol news for thirty-four years. If we have hurt anyone in those years we are sorry.
