Easter Sunday Is Observed In All Kensington Churches

Special Easter Sunday services at Kensington with the observance of Holy Communion at the Protestant Churches and Easter Masses at the Roman Catholic Church of the Holy Family were all attended by large congregations.

The Rev. Eric Ingraham conducted the service at St. Mark's Anglican Church at 11 a.m. where appropriate music and floral gifts added to the Easter atmosphere of the service. Easter lilies were placed about the altar in memory of Mrs. Catherine Rogers by her husband and family; in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Moase by the family; in memory of David L. McInnis by his wife and family; in memory of Mrs. Luey George by her sister and brother; and by Mrs. Foster Ellis in memory of her parents. Also donated for decorative purposes were cut flowe by the Guild and the W.A., and potted plants by Mrs. William Gill and Mrs. Atwood Blak[illegible].

At the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. E.H. Bean spoke from the text, "For as often as Ye eat this Bread and Drink this Cup, Ye do show the Lord's Death till He Come". 1 Corinthians, 11; 26. The choir rendered two anthems, "The King Immortal" (Walter A. Shawker) and "Now is Christ Risen", (Fred A. Holfon), and beautiful flowers adorned the sanctuary, including a potted plant placed in memory of John Arnold Douglas by his wife and family.

At the United Church at 11 a.m. the minister, the Rev. L.M. Murray preached on the theme, "Christ's Resurrection and Ours" from 1st Corinthians: 15-20. "But now is Christ Risen from the Dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept". The Junior choir rendered an Anthem, "Jesus Lives", and other appropriate hymns for Easter and the communion service were sung. A beautiful Easter lily placed by Mrs. Alexander MacKay was the centre of the floral decorations, and potted chrysanthemums were donated in memory of Mrs. J. Archibald MacKenzie by her husband and family.

The worship service in the Sunday School at 10 a.m. was conducted by Mrs. L.M. Murray and members of the Explorer group including Kathleen Walker, Nancy Clark, Dianna Cousins, Betty MacFadyen and Barbara Millar.

At the 7.30 p.m. service special Easter music was rendered by the Senior choir and the Junior Girls and Boys Choirs. The Rev. Mr. Murray preached the sermon on "Were You There When He Rose From the Grave?"

Good Friday services were held in all churches. At the United Church, the Rev. Alexander MacKay conducted the service and the Rev. L.M. Murray was organist for the Good Friday messages in scripture and praise. The congregation joined in the hymns, "There is a Green Hill far Away", "Ride on, Ride on in Majesty", and "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross". The choir sang the following hymn anthems "Bread of the World", "Go to Dark Gethsemane", "O Come and Mourn with Me Awhile", and "O Sacred Head now Wounded". The priase selections were interspersed with appropriate scripture selections read by the Rev. Mr. MacKay, Mr. Gerald MacKenzie and Mrs. Robert Carruthers.

At St. Mark's Anglican Church the Good Friday service concluded the Lenten services held each Wednesday evening when the subject of the meditations were "The Cross, The Eucharist and You". A suitable film was shown at the close of each service.
