all joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". A delicious lunch was served and a most enjoyable time was spent in dancing to music supplied by Messrs Ivan Day, Joe Wigmore and William Durant.

Mr. Alphonzo Connell entertained with several of his poems and Mr. Tyndal Semple delighted all with his step dancing.

THE ADDRESS

Dear Mother and Dad:

"If you have friends worth loving, love them, yes! let them know that you love them 'ere life's evening tinge their brow with sunset glow".

In this verse is expressed the heart felt love of all the members of your family on this your wedding anniversary. You are a mother and a father worth loving and we tell you so. What we cannot say in words, we say with flowers. The beauty and fragrance of the flowers, speak of your lives to us, and influence of your lives to us. The following little verse expresses what your marriage has been.

Two volumes bound in one complete, With thrilling story old but sweet. No title needs the cover fair. Two golden hearts are blended there.

And out of the golden hearts you have made a home for all your children. It was in this home, we learned the best and noblest lessons of life. Now we gather tonight in this home to wish you both many more happy wedding anniversaries together.

Bless this house, O Lord we pray, Make it safe by night and day, Bless these walls so firm and stout, Keeping want and trouble out. Bless the roof and chimney tall. Let thy Peace lie ever all. Bless this door, that it may prove Ever open to joy and love. Accept this little gift as a token of our love.

Signed on behalf of your family.

To Mr. and Mrs. Heath Caseley: Dear friends and neighbors: It is with great pleasure we join you on this happy occasion to extend our best wishes and congratulations on this the forty-sixth anniversary of your marriage. During these years that seem so short as we look back, the world beyond our small Island Province has seen many changes and advances in the fields of science, culture and mode of living. Not all of the changes have been for the best and our land has engaged in two world wars, but by and large the years have been good.

In our homes during these years many changes have come. Family trees have been broken, and we have laid away many of those we loved. Personal and material losses and reverses have been borne and the day to day duties of the farm life have taken much of our time and strength, but we are sure that there is no community where true neighbourliness and helpfulness is less talked about and more experienced than it is in this area. You have helped so many of us through the years, that it would be useless to un-umerate the number of times we have called upon the Caseley's and been helped of you it can be said "None ever called on them in vain".

Help that you gave with difficult jobs on our farms, hours

ELLERSLIE AND BIDEFORD

Mrs. L. A. Burligh was hostess to the United Ladies aid and W. M. S. on Thursday evening March 7th, and was also hostess to the Women's Institute on March 8th. Both meetings were well attended. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oatway and family have moved to their home in Freeland after spending the winter in Bideford, where Mr. Oatway took up residence to be you watched beside sick beds, as well as your generous support of all community and church work. Friends and stranger alike enjoyed the warm welcome and generous hospitality of this home from Elhel's delicious meals to Heath's love of music.

Your up to date farm property is a real credit to the appearance of our locality, as with pride, we tell strangers who lives in "that nice place along the road." We have watched your fine family grow and make their own contribution to this and other communities, rejoiced with you over the arrival of bright and lively grandchildren and we realize that your first great grand child, "David Riley" holds a very special place in your regard.

As you enjoy your well earned years of less active work, may God's richest blessing rest upon you and yours. We express of love and respect in this tangible way and assure you of our sincere good wishes for the future.

Signed on behalf of your Friends and neighbors.
