Compton-MacLeod Wedding

The marriage of Tillie Compton, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late David Compton of Toronto, to Harold S. MacLeod took place on March 29, 1952, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. MacLeod, Kinross, Rev. A. C. Fraser officiating. Mrs. S. A. MacLeod played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. A. A. J. MacLeod, wore a gown of white chantilly lace and net satin. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a small cap with blossom trim and she carried a bouquet of Better Time roses. Miss Marion MacLeod, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, wore a pale yellow gown of etched nylon organza over taffeta with matching headpiece, and carried a bouquet of spring flowers. Mr. Roy Campbell, cousin of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to relatives and friends who gathered for the occasion. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Edith Hume, Mrs. Kay Hume, Mrs. Anne MacLeod, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, and Mrs. Elsie Musick.

The bridal couple left later on a trip to Halifax, where they were the guests of the groom's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. MacLeod. For travelling the bride chose a grey-blue gabardine suit and a coat of navy gabardine with matching accessories.

Prior to her marriage the bride was a member of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Charlottetown, having been transferred from Toronto some time ago. It was much regretted that the bride's mother was unable to be present on account of illness.

Montague Odd Fellows Meet

The Noble Grand, Mr. Bruce MacPhee, presided at the regular meeting of Hillside Lodge, I.O.O.F. Montague, Tuesday evening.

There was a large attendance of officers, members and visitors present.

The initiatory degree was conferred by the degree team in a very impressive and dignified manner.

Guests present were Mr. Walter Seaman, of Shelburne, N.S., Mr. Clifford Keenan, grand master, Mr. John A. MacNair, and Mr. John VanMaarian, all of Charlottetown. Each guest spoke briefly, congratulating the degree staff on their splendid manner in which the lectures of the degree were given.

In his address Mr. MacNair made special mention of the capable manner in which Mr. J. H. MacGregor gave his charge. Mr. MacGregor, who will shortly celebrate his 85th birthday, is still in active member of Hillside. His beautiful charge is given word perfect in a calm and unflinching manner.

At the close of the meeting, members and guests enjoyed a social hour and a delicious lunch was provided by a committee from Acme Rebekah Lodge and served by a committee of Oddfellows.

SPRING VALLEY W. I.

The April meeting of the Spring Valley W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Hiram Harrington. Seventeen members and four visitors were present and the meeting opened by singing "Old Black Joe" followed by the "Creed."

Roll call was answered with a donation of articles for the hall kitchen. Articles were also handed in to be packed in box for Ellsworth Champion, overseas.

The Sick Committee reported getting one sick treat and the Red Cross convener asked for volunteers to knit extra sweaters as they are below their quota.

Correspondence was read and discussed and new committees appointed as follows:—Sick—Mrs. Hubert Caseley and Mrs. Dan Bryanton and School—Mrs. Hiram Harrington.

The programme consisted of 'pin
