

Dorothy Dix Says

Continued from page 2

slate clean, and make herself forget as far as possible his offense against her. She should never let herself think of it if she can help it, and we can control our thoughts if we try hard enough.

DEAR MISS DIX: Please solve this problem for us: Why is it that most homely men marry good-looking women?

ANSWER: Men marry any kind of women they please because they have the privilege of picking out their wives and so can choose girls who are balm to their eyes.

DOROTHY DIX cannot reply personally to readers, but will answer problems of general interest through her column.

The Neighbors

By George Clark

"You're not to bother Dad while the United Nations is meeting—or while the pennant race is so hot."

WEDDING BELLS

SMITH—SHEA

Autumn flowers decorated the altar and formed a beautiful setting at the Sacred Heart Church on Tuesday morning when the Rev. W. E. Monaghan united in Holy Matrimony, Estelle Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shea and Ivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brydon Smith.

Pat Shea, brother of the bride was the groomsman. During mass Raymond Ahearne sang "Hail Queen of Heaven" and "Sweet Sacrament Divine."

On the following morning the bride and groom left to spend their honeymoon in Boston and New York. For travelling the bride chose a grey suit with navy accessories.

ROGERS—LANDRY

The church of St. Mary's, Indian River was a perfect setting for the wedding, on August 23, of Dorothy Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers, Indian River, who was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Timon Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Landry of Summer.

FITZGERALD—DRISCOLL

The Sacred Heart Church in Weymouth, Massachusetts, was the scene of a pretty wedding when, at nine o'clock on the morning of June 10, Mary Giudilla, daughter of Joseph P. Driscoll and the late Elizabeth Cummins, formed the ceremony and also of Mt. Herbert, Prince Edward Island, and John Patrick Fitzgerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Fitzgerald of Weymouth, Massachusetts, received the holy sacrament of matrimony.

MACWILLIAMS—MACISAAC

The Presbyterian Manse at Alberton was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon, August 17th when Rev. George Cunningham united in marriage Kathleen, eldest daughter of Ralph and the late Mrs. MacIsaac, of Dunblane, and Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred MacWilliam of Milburn.

MACINNIS—MILLIGAN

St. John's Anglican Church, Bideford, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, August 16th, when Rev. L. A. Dignan united in marriage Phyllis Lorraine, only daughter of Mrs. Helen Milligan, to Bradford Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacInnis, Traveller's Rest.

KELLY—McCALLUM

A very pretty wedding took place at Bunbury United Church on Monday morning, September 4th at nine o'clock, when the Rev. A. S. Weir united in marriage Helen Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Kelly of Southport and Arthur E., son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Ephraim McCallum of Souris.

MACINNIS—MILLIGAN

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. White gladioli and tall white lighted tapers formed a lovely setting for the ceremony. The guest pews were marked with white gladioli flowers, tied with tiny white satin bows.

a close friend of the groom, performed the marriage ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. The bride, wearing a white organdy gown with fingertip veil, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, was given in marriage by her uncle, John MacDonald.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Ryan, wore a yellow gown and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed flowers. Mr. Thomas MacDonald, a cousin of the groom, was groomsman.

The young couple spent four days visiting relatives and friends on the island and on Friday, June 16, they left on their return journey to Weymouth, where John follows his chosen profession of pharmacy.

MACINNIS—MILLIGAN

St. John's Anglican Church, Bideford, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, August 16th, when Rev. L. A. Dignan united in marriage Phyllis Lorraine, only daughter of Mrs. Helen Milligan, to Bradford Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacInnis, Traveller's Rest.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. H. R. Found, was lovely in her wedding gown of ivory satin with fitted bodice, she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and wore a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black flowered silk jersey with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake arched with sweet peas and was cut in traditional manner.

H. R. Found, toastmaster, welcomed the guests and introduced the Rev. L. A. Dignan who proposed a toast to the bride. The groom replied and proposed a toast to the bridesmaid to which Daniel MacInnis, the best man, replied.

Amid showers of confetti and rice, the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride travelling in a suit of navy gabardine with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

KELLY—McCALLUM

A very pretty wedding took place at Bunbury United Church on Monday morning, September 4th at nine o'clock, when the Rev. A. S. Weir united in marriage Helen Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Kelly of Southport and Arthur E., son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Ephraim McCallum of Souris.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. White gladioli and tall white lighted tapers formed a lovely setting for the ceremony. The guest pews were marked with white gladioli flowers, tied with tiny white satin bows.

Enjoying The Royal Rights Of Beauty Queenship

Miss Silver Jubilee of North Bay is Margaret Simpson, 16-year-old telephone operator, who is enjoying her title of beauty queen in the flying trip that came with the title. She is at present guest of the C. N. E.

a floor-length dress of blue in puffed lines with flared skirt and portrait neckline. Her headdress, was of blue net with short veil. She wore mittens to match her dress and carried a nosegay of garden flowers.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black flowered silk jersey with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception for forty-seven guests was held at the Rendezvous Restaurant, Southport. The bride's table, decorated with bouquets of roses and lighted white tapers was centered with two three-tier cakes.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black flowered silk jersey with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake arched with sweet peas and was cut in traditional manner.

H. R. Found, toastmaster, welcomed the guests and introduced the Rev. L. A. Dignan who proposed a toast to the bride. The groom replied and proposed a toast to the bridesmaid to which Daniel MacInnis, the best man, replied.

KELLY—McCALLUM

A very pretty wedding took place at Bunbury United Church on Monday morning, September 4th at nine o'clock, when the Rev. A. S. Weir united in marriage Helen Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Kelly of Southport and Arthur E., son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Ephraim McCallum of Souris.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. White gladioli and tall white lighted tapers formed a lovely setting for the ceremony. The guest pews were marked with white gladioli flowers, tied with tiny white satin bows.

The toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. Mr. A. S. Weir, who in his pleasant manner expressed the best wishes of all to Helen and Arthur for a long happy married life. The toast was very fittingly responded to by the groom and the wedding cake was cut in traditional fashion by the bride and groom.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black flowered silk jersey with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception for forty-seven guests was held at the Rendezvous Restaurant, Southport. The bride's table, decorated with bouquets of roses and lighted white tapers was centered with two three-tier cakes.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black flowered silk jersey with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake arched with sweet peas and was cut in traditional manner.

H. R. Found, toastmaster, welcomed the guests and introduced the Rev. L. A. Dignan who proposed a toast to the bride. The groom replied and proposed a toast to the bridesmaid to which Daniel MacInnis, the best man, replied.

KELLY—McCALLUM

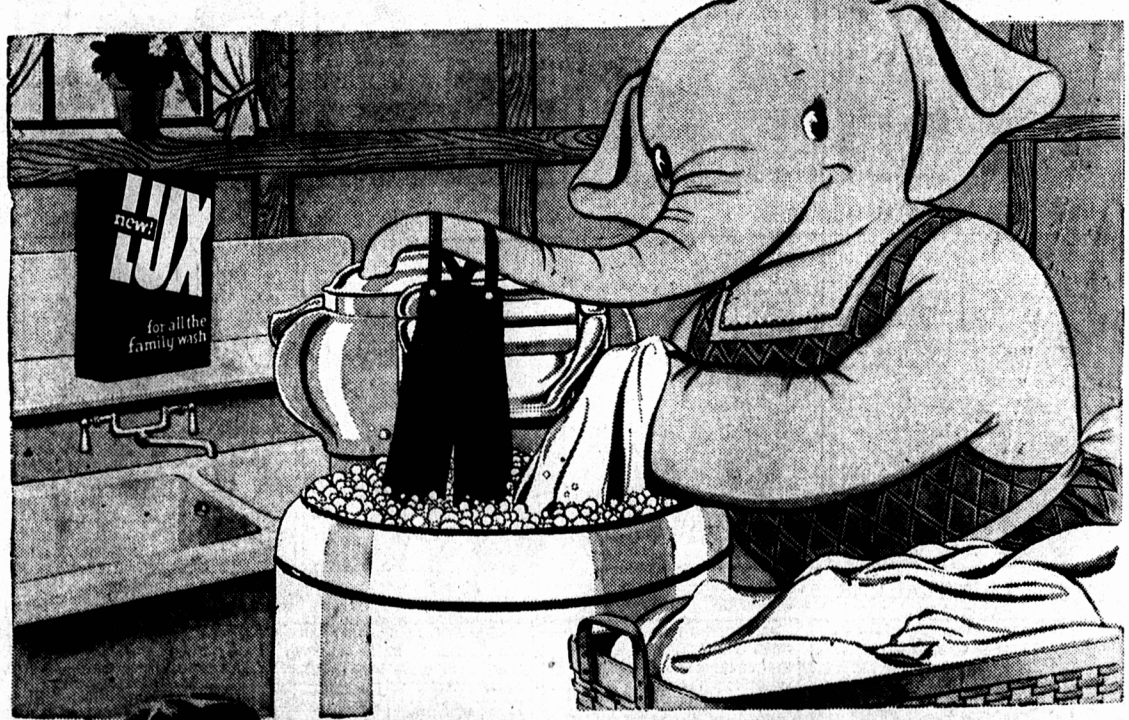

A very pretty wedding took place at Bunbury United Church on Monday morning, September 4th at nine o'clock, when the Rev. A. S. Weir united in marriage Helen Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Kelly of Southport and Arthur E., son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Ephraim McCallum of Souris.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. White gladioli and tall white lighted tapers formed a lovely setting for the ceremony. The guest pews were marked with white gladioli flowers, tied with tiny white satin bows.

couple, amid showers of confetti and rice, left on a honeymoon trip to the U. S. A., the bride travelling in a suit of brown gabardine with accessories to match, and a corsage of pink roses.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. McCallum will reside in Souris where the groom is employed with the Post Office Department. The bride was a valued employee of the New Glasgow Creamery, New Glasgow, P. E. I., where she was known to many through her position as secretary. She was widely entertained prior to her marriage and was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

NEW POWER for the Family Wash

BRAND NEW LUX has jet blown power to give you a cleaner wash than ever before

It really is wonderful. No washday soap gets clothes cleaner, whiter, brighter. And no washday soap is more economical. New Lux is blown from high-power jets into high-powered concentrated soap grains that wash everything with the greatest of ease.

Only LUX, famous for the best in soaps, could give you this great new product!

kitchen castle

Gay as all outdoors! The walls of pale sunshine... cupboards a soft moss green... table tops and counters, tomato red. And the floor! A magic reflection of these rich natural colours, captured in Gold Seal Congoleum.

Advertisement for CONGOLEUM LIMITED MONTREAL, featuring a logo and product details.