Donation at Pownal.

A most enjoyable time was spent in Pownal Hall, on the evening of the 4th inst., where, according to their usual custom, the good people of Pownal and surrounding settlements met to pay their respects to the Rev. Mr. Coulter and his estimable partner, and also to listen to one of the best musical and literary entertainments ever given in Pownal. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather and the state of the roads, which prevented many from attending, the Hall was well filled by a most attentive and appreciative audience, whose sunny smiles, lighting up honest, intelligent countenances, were pleasant to behold.

Richard Smith, Esq., presided, and by his able and gentlemanly conduct in the chair, contributed greatly to the success of the entertainment. The Choir, under the management of Mrs. Ethel M. Sentner, who has justly won the reputation of being one of the best musicians on the Island, acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner, and gave conclusive proof that at no distant date, Pownal can boast of a choir second to none on the Island.

Recitations by Mrs. Colter, Miss Joyce L. Lane and Miss Lavina Clarke; and readings by Messrs. A. A. Moore, W. A. Thompson, J. M. Campbell, A. McLeod and Master Percy Carver, were well received. A vocal duet by Miss Mary Macrae and Miss Lillie Moore, and one by Messrs. L. Sentner and J. M. Campbell were remarkably well rendered. An instrumental duet by Mrs. Sentner and Mr. George Moore was a rich musical treat. One feature of the entertainment was a pleasant surprise to the audience, both on account of its rarity and the admirable manner in which it was executed. Miss Carrie Sentner, a little English girl, nine years old, lately adopted by Mrs. Sentner, sang two solos in so sweet a voice and to such perfect time, as to roll forth the warmest expressions of appreciation from the audience. Both the musical and literary parts were of a high order, and were, without exception, well sustained. At the close quite a number of beautiful cakes, contributed by the ladies of the congregation, were sold by auction. One of the most beautiful of these was purchased by the gentlemen of the choir, and presented to Mrs. Sentner, as a slight token of their respect and esteem for her as their leader. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the choir and also to the chairman, to which suitable replies were made; and after singing a parting hymn the audience dispersed. Quite a respectable sum was raised for the benefit of the occupants of the Mission House, who were no doubt much pleased by this tangible evidence of the people's appreciation of their untiring efforts in the Master's Cause.

Clyde River, March 9.

Three Rivers Dairyman's Association.

A meeting of the above Association was held in New Perth School House on Feb. 22nd, which was well attended by the residents of the neighborhood.

James D. Dewart, Esq., President of the Association, occupied the chair, and introduced Charles Palmer, Esq., of Charlottetown, who delivered an interesting and instructive lecture on "Farming in P. E. Island."

The lecturer called attention to the fact
