

Handicraft Courses Planned For Rustico

Mrs. Percy Lister, provincial handicraft director, will attend tonight's meeting of the Rustico resources development group to set up handicraft courses in the area.

Wage Rates Gain Slightly

Average weekly wages and salaries paid in Prince Edward Island in October rose slightly from the preceding month, according to an advance report on employment and payrolls, published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Nephew Dies In Ontario

Word was received this week by Thomas Brazz, Johnston's River, of the sudden death of his nephew, William (Bill) Brazz, Chapeau, Ont.

2 Viscounts Have Trouble

FORT WILLIAM (CP)—The second Trans-Canada Air Lines Viscount to develop trouble with its undercarriage in two days made a safe emergency landing at the Lakehead International Airport Sunday.

BRISTOL

Mrs. Clarence O'Brien arrived from Boston the day after Christmas to spend a week with her aged father James Whalen.

Court Fines Driver $150

A fine of $150 and costs of 40 days was imposed on John A. Lund, 26 Chestnut Street, by Magistrate A. J. Haslam in city police court Saturday.

Old Ruins Discovered

OTTAWA (CP)—Archaeologists searching the ruins of the 22-year-old fortress of Louisbourg on Cape Breton Island have uncovered the foundation of a building older than the fortress.

STONE CARVINGS TO BE SAVED

Provincial government officials have indicated that 13 stone carvings, which now adorn the Cabot Building on which demolition work is expected to start within a few days, will be salvaged.

Strike Probe Is Planned

NEW YORK (AP)—Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, Governor Nelson Rockefeller and Mayor Robert Wagner named three judges Sunday to investigate New York's news paper blackout.

Gov't Offices Widely Scattered In Ch'town

The recently elected executive of No. 8 branch, Royal Canadian Legion, Montague, is pictured above, left to right, seated, Basil MacKinnon, first vice-president; Dan Alumm, president; Athol Robertson, past president; standing, Albert Edsworth, second vice-president; Harman Mar-

NEW MONTAGUE LEGAL EXECUTIVE ELECTED

forms for the little leagues, supported scouting and at present supply space for Browns. The branch has an active ladies auxiliary.

P.W. MacDonald, Kilmur, Dies

MONTAGUE — The death occurred at the Kings County Memorial Hospital, Saturday Jan. 5, of Peter W. MacDonald of Kilmur, aged 93.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

Main offices of the department of agriculture are in the Provincial Building Annex which also contains the provincial motor vehicle branch.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER

Gerald E. MacDonald, left here Saturday by air for Graymorn, N.Y., where he is entering the Religious Order of the Franciscan Friars of the Attonment. Mr. MacDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. MacDonald, 93 Hillsboro Street.

CROCKET FURNAL

The funeral for Samuel Crockett was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church, where services were conducted by Rev. John Ball and Captain R. Walker. His worship A. W. Gaudet and members of the City Council, City Comptroller John Butler and employees of the City of Charlottetown, also representatives of the Charlottetown police force and Charlottetown fire department were in attendance. Pallbearers were Maurice Griffin, Ira Brown, George Pancher, O.S. Harper, Percy G. Acors and Wilfred Livingston.

MACLENNAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Thomas MacLennan was held from Vernon River United Church, Saturday afternoon. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. T. R. Gourge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. Weir. A due "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by Malcolm MacLennan and Lloyd MacLennan. Flower bearers were Norman MacMillan, Thomas Stewart, Patrick Wiley, Clarence MacLennan, Charles Richards and Earl Richards. Flower bearers were Peter Curran, John MacLennan, Richard MacLennan, Victor MacLennan, Richard Praught and John Wilson. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

ON BUSINESS

Neil Hooley has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

FROM MONCTON

Miss Sandra Strong of Moncton, N.B., was a welcome visitor to Montague this week. Miss Strong who is a senior student nurse at the Hawke Civic Hospital is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Strong in Montague.

IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillis have taken up residence in their new home on Queens Road, Montague.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Melish, Montague had as their Sunday guests, their son Harry Melish, Mrs. Melish and family of Charlottetown.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Miss Peggy MacLeod, Montague, leaves today for Windsor, N.S., to resume her studies at Edgemoor School.

WERE VISITORS

Louis D. Johnston and young son Ian of York and Charlottetown were visitors to Montague on Sunday.

VISITED MONTAGUE

Paul Jenkins, Becky and Peggy of New South visitors to Montague.

REPORT TASK FORCE

A dispatch from Kivik, Northern Rhodesia, reported UN Swedish jets flew over the Northern Rhodesian border, apparently on reconnaissance missions. The dispatch said Katangian Interior Minister Godofred Munongo was reported to be organizing a task force of armored vehicles and infantry in that area for a march on Elisabethville.

CORPORATION SET UP

The government went on to set up the Crown Building Corporation to handle construction details of the new building. Architects who designed the Confederation Memorial Building were engaged to design the government office building.

LIVE OVER WATER

Some old people living in Kampong Ayer—the "water village"—in Brunei are believed never to have set foot on land. The village is on stilts over water.

THOMBE

(Continued from page 1) Katangian forces Saturday were reported to have blown up two bridges leading to Kolwezi. UN sources in New York said Saturday the column intends to enter Kolwezi and will fight, if necessary, to establish itself there.

OLD RUINS DISCOVERED

OTTAWA (CP)—Archaeologists searching the ruins of the 22-year-old fortress of Louisbourg on Cape Breton Island have uncovered the foundation of a building older than the fortress.

CHANGE IN CURLING

Curling was played in Canada in the latter half of the 18th century by General Wolfe's soldiers who melted down cannonballs to make their stones.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER

Gerald E. MacDonald, left here Saturday by air for Graymorn, N.Y., where he is entering the Religious Order of the Franciscan Friars of the Attonment. Mr. MacDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. MacDonald, 93 Hillsboro Street.

CROCKET FURNAL

The funeral for Samuel Crockett was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church, where services were conducted by Rev. John Ball and Captain R. Walker. His worship A. W. Gaudet and members of the City Council, City Comptroller John Butler and employees of the City of Charlottetown, also representatives of the Charlottetown police force and Charlottetown fire department were in attendance. Pallbearers were Maurice Griffin, Ira Brown, George Pancher, O.S. Harper, Percy G. Acors and Wilfred Livingston.

MACLENNAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Thomas MacLennan was held from Vernon River United Church, Saturday afternoon. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. T. R. Gourge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. Weir. A due "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by Malcolm MacLennan and Lloyd MacLennan. Flower bearers were Norman MacMillan, Thomas Stewart, Patrick Wiley, Clarence MacLennan, Charles Richards and Earl Richards. Flower bearers were Peter Curran, John MacLennan, Richard MacLennan, Victor MacLennan, Richard Praught and John Wilson. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

ON BUSINESS

Neil Hooley has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

FROM MONCTON

Miss Sandra Strong of Moncton, N.B., was a welcome visitor to Montague this week. Miss Strong who is a senior student nurse at the Hawke Civic Hospital is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Strong in Montague.

IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillis have taken up residence in their new home on Queens Road, Montague.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Melish, Montague had as their Sunday guests, their son Harry Melish, Mrs. Melish and family of Charlottetown.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Miss Peggy MacLeod, Montague, leaves today for Windsor, N.S., to resume her studies at Edgemoor School.

WERE VISITORS

Louis D. Johnston and young son Ian of York and Charlottetown were visitors to Montague on Sunday.

VISITED MONTAGUE

Paul Jenkins, Becky and Peggy of New South visitors to Montague.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER

Gerald E. MacDonald, left here Saturday by air for Graymorn, N.Y., where he is entering the Religious Order of the Franciscan Friars of the Attonment. Mr. MacDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. MacDonald, 93 Hillsboro Street.

CROCKET FURNAL

The funeral for Samuel Crockett was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church, where services were conducted by Rev. John Ball and Captain R. Walker. His worship A. W. Gaudet and members of the City Council, City Comptroller John Butler and employees of the City of Charlottetown, also representatives of the Charlottetown police force and Charlottetown fire department were in attendance. Pallbearers were Maurice Griffin, Ira Brown, George Pancher, O.S. Harper, Percy G. Acors and Wilfred Livingston.

MACLENNAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Thomas MacLennan was held from Vernon River United Church, Saturday afternoon. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. T. R. Gourge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. Weir. A due "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by Malcolm MacLennan and Lloyd MacLennan. Flower bearers were Norman MacMillan, Thomas Stewart, Patrick Wiley, Clarence MacLennan, Charles Richards and Earl Richards. Flower bearers were Peter Curran, John MacLennan, Richard MacLennan, Victor MacLennan, Richard Praught and John Wilson. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

ON BUSINESS

Neil Hooley has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

FROM MONCTON

Miss Sandra Strong of Moncton, N.B., was a welcome visitor to Montague this week. Miss Strong who is a senior student nurse at the Hawke Civic Hospital is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Strong in Montague.

IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillis have taken up residence in their new home on Queens Road, Montague.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Melish, Montague had as their Sunday guests, their son Harry Melish, Mrs. Melish and family of Charlottetown.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Miss Peggy MacLeod, Montague, leaves today for Windsor, N.S., to resume her studies at Edgemoor School.

WERE VISITORS

Louis D. Johnston and young son Ian of York and Charlottetown were visitors to Montague on Sunday.

VISITED MONTAGUE

Paul Jenkins, Becky and Peggy of New South visitors to Montague.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER

Gerald E. MacDonald, left here Saturday by air for Graymorn, N.Y., where he is entering the Religious Order of the Franciscan Friars of the Attonment. Mr. MacDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. MacDonald, 93 Hillsboro Street.

CROCKET FURNAL

The funeral for Samuel Crockett was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church, where services were conducted by Rev. John Ball and Captain R. Walker. His worship A. W. Gaudet and members of the City Council, City Comptroller John Butler and employees of the City of Charlottetown, also representatives of the Charlottetown police force and Charlottetown fire department were in attendance. Pallbearers were Maurice Griffin, Ira Brown, George Pancher, O.S. Harper, Percy G. Acors and Wilfred Livingston.

MACLENNAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Thomas MacLennan was held from Vernon River United Church, Saturday afternoon. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. T. R. Gourge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. Weir. A due "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by Malcolm MacLennan and Lloyd MacLennan. Flower bearers were Norman MacMillan, Thomas Stewart, Patrick Wiley, Clarence MacLennan, Charles Richards and Earl Richards. Flower bearers were Peter Curran, John MacLennan, Richard MacLennan, Victor MacLennan, Richard Praught and John Wilson. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

ON BUSINESS

Neil Hooley has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

FROM MONCTON

Miss Sandra Strong of Moncton, N.B., was a welcome visitor to Montague this week. Miss Strong who is a senior student nurse at the Hawke Civic Hospital is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Strong in Montague.

IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillis have taken up residence in their new home on Queens Road, Montague.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Melish, Montague had as their Sunday guests, their son Harry Melish, Mrs. Melish and family of Charlottetown.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Miss Peggy MacLeod, Montague, leaves today for Windsor, N.S., to resume her studies at Edgemoor School.

WERE VISITORS

Louis D. Johnston and young son Ian of York and Charlottetown were visitors to Montague on Sunday.

VISITED MONTAGUE

Paul Jenkins, Becky and Peggy of New South visitors to Montague.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER

Gerald E. MacDonald, left here Saturday by air for Graymorn, N.Y., where he is entering the Religious Order of the Franciscan Friars of the Attonment. Mr. MacDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. MacDonald, 93 Hillsboro Street.

CROCKET FURNAL

The funeral for Samuel Crockett was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church, where services were conducted by Rev. John Ball and Captain R. Walker. His worship A. W. Gaudet and members of the City Council, City Comptroller John Butler and employees of the City of Charlottetown, also representatives of the Charlottetown police force and Charlottetown fire department were in attendance. Pallbearers were Maurice Griffin, Ira Brown, George Pancher, O.S. Harper, Percy G. Acors and Wilfred Livingston.

MACLENNAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Thomas MacLennan was held from Vernon River United Church, Saturday afternoon. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. T. R. Gourge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. Weir. A due "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by Malcolm MacLennan and Lloyd MacLennan. Flower bearers were Norman MacMillan, Thomas Stewart, Patrick Wiley, Clarence MacLennan, Charles Richards and Earl Richards. Flower bearers were Peter Curran, John MacLennan, Richard MacLennan, Victor MacLennan, Richard Praught and John Wilson. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

ON BUSINESS

Neil Hooley has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

FROM MONCTON

Miss Sandra Strong of Moncton, N.B., was a welcome visitor to Montague this week. Miss Strong who is a senior student nurse at the Hawke Civic Hospital is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Strong in Montague.

IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillis have taken up residence in their new home on Queens Road, Montague.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Melish, Montague had as their Sunday guests, their son Harry Melish, Mrs. Melish and family of Charlottetown.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Miss Peggy MacLeod, Montague, leaves today for Windsor, N.S., to resume her studies at Edgemoor School.

WERE VISITORS

Louis D. Johnston and young son Ian of York and Charlottetown were visitors to Montague on Sunday.

VISITED MONTAGUE

Paul Jenkins, Becky and Peggy of New South visitors to Montague.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER

Gerald E. MacDonald, left here Saturday by air for Graymorn, N.Y., where he is entering the Religious Order of the Franciscan Friars of the Attonment. Mr. MacDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. MacDonald, 93 Hillsboro Street.

CROCKET FURNAL

The funeral for Samuel Crockett was held Sunday afternoon from Trinity United Church, where services were conducted by Rev. John Ball and Captain R. Walker. His worship A. W. Gaudet and members of the City Council, City Comptroller John Butler and employees of the City of Charlottetown, also representatives of the Charlottetown police force and Charlottetown fire department were in attendance. Pallbearers were Maurice Griffin, Ira Brown, George Pancher, O.S. Harper, Percy G. Acors and Wilfred Livingston.

MACLENNAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Thomas MacLennan was held from Vernon River United Church, Saturday afternoon. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. T. R. Gourge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. Weir. A due "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by Malcolm MacLennan and Lloyd MacLennan. Flower bearers were Norman MacMillan, Thomas Stewart, Patrick Wiley, Clarence MacLennan, Charles Richards and Earl Richards. Flower bearers were Peter Curran, John MacLennan, Richard MacLennan, Victor MacLennan, Richard Praught and John Wilson. Interment took place in the church cemetery.

ON BUSINESS

Neil Hooley has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

FROM MONCTON

Miss Sandra Strong of Moncton, N.B., was a welcome visitor to Montague this week. Miss Strong who is a senior student nurse at the Hawke Civic Hospital is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Strong in Montague.

IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gillis have taken up residence in their new home on Queens Road, Montague.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Melish, Montague had as their Sunday guests, their son Harry Melish, Mrs. Melish and family of Charlottetown.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Miss Peggy MacLeod, Montague, leaves today for Windsor, N.S., to resume her studies at Edgemoor School.

WERE VISITORS

Louis D. Johnston and young son Ian of York and Charlottetown were visitors to Montague on Sunday.

VISITED MONTAGUE

Paul Jenkins, Becky and Peggy of New South visitors to Montague.

RECEIVES NEWS

Alex J. Young, 82 Walden Drive, received the sad news from his brother, John D. Young, of the passing of his wife Marion, Jan. 4, at their home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

IN OULRY

Wendell Ferguson, Hampton, spent his holidays with his brother Douglas and Mrs. Ferguson in O'Leary.

AT SOUTH MELVILLE

LAC Winston Provencer arrived on the Island Saturday from Chieftown, Ont., to spend two weeks holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Provencer, South Melville.

ENTERING ORDER