

From Under the Grandstand

◀ IF WE HAD ONE ▶

BOB GRAY

We'll have to make a note on the calendar of Oct. 10, The date that Soiro T. bit the dust. October must be a bad month for vice-presidents. Aptly named in Agnew's case: he certainly seemed to be in charge of vice. Carol Ward should look out for a while, bad season to be a vice-president.

On to lighter topics... Mike Hennessey claimed the other day (not the registrar - the REAL Mike Hennessey) that he scored 84 points in his football career for Charlottetown Rural. How many guys know exactly how many points they scored? Punch MacIntyre and Mike Hennessey, I guess. Anyhow, we will offer a reward for anyone with the TRUTH about Hennessey's football career. The only thing he said that sounded half reasonable was his description of his favorite play. They had a tall quarterback (of course, he may have just looked tall to Mike), and the play was for the QB to drop the ball all the way down to Mike, and he would sneak through the opposition's legs. Sounds believable, kinda.

We notice from reading the latest issue of the Dal paper, that their football writer came down hard on the fans who beat up some fans who beat up some of ours when we journeyed over for the football game. He said that those who were the perpetrators of the crime should certainly not be welcome at another Dal game. We kind of hope that they come over for a hockey contest and are recognized.. but maybe not. We don't know what it is about our fans, but they sure can excite others. It got so bad that last week at Mac

Adam Field, one of our more vocal fans was attacked after the game by an incensed Mt. A. COACH, for crying out loud. And it's just a game, they say.

As we sit here under the grandstand that doesn't exist, we gaze upon the rapidly growing new library. Which reminds us that one of the first topics of debate for the brand new UPEI Debating Society will be the pros and cons of building a five million dollar library for an institution with decreasing enrollment. Should be an interesting one. The new society is under the auspices of Eddie Edmonds, noted raconteur and our own Dean of Education. Frank Likely was elected president at the first meeting, probably because he seemed to be about the only one of those present that had even seen a debate before. Anyhow, if you like to argue and want a good time, contact either of the above-mentioned gentlemen to join the society. You may be among those who go to Osgoode Law School for the nationals, as soon as the society decides what city the Osgoode Law School is in. The first meeting had it in either Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, Vancouver, or Honolulu.

The Autumn Festival planned by the Student Union sounds like a good time. The Sapphires are back. All you frosh don't realize how much fun the Sapphires can be. This is definitely not a weekend to go home to your mamas, girls. Stick around - you'll have a good time.

One of the all-time great scheduling moves has been made by the Alumni Association. Their homecoming schedule has the alumni banquet and the alumni basketball game conflicting. "Pardon my sweat madam, but it's halftime in the game, and I thought I's slip in for a bite to eat." Sure gonna be an awful funny smell at the ole banquet this year. Something like a locker room, I imagine.

Joey Smallwood is now officially entered into the UPEI Hall of Shame. He joins Ken Tobias, Gunhill Road, and the 6 feet nine inch guy who's supposed to come up every year to lead us out of the basketball woods. None of them showed up either.

Our first Annual Cadre Name the New Residence Contest is coming along nicely. We have an entry already, after one week. Just to give the competition a chance, we'll tell you what it is. "Clow Caverns"... Ever nice, eh? Keep those cards and letters coming in, folks.

Say "Yes" to sports

They said horseback riding might be uncomfortable during your period.

But you used Tampax tampons and felt fine. They said you might feel self-conscious about skating. But you relied on the protection of Tampax tampons, with nothing to slip or show or cause odor.

They said bowling might be too strenuous during menstruation. But you thought—the more exercise the better. And protected yourself with internally worn Tampax tampons.

No matter what "they" say, you know you can always be active with Tampax tampon protection and comfort.
