ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of Mr. H. Green. Drawing in perspective has been almost a lost art in this community. Yet it is a very valuable one, and Mr. Green, who has obtained a South Kensington advanced grade certificate and a Queen's prize, is well able to impart it. All teachers of public schools should know something of this art, and pupil teachers attending Prince of Wales College and Normal School will do well if they attend Mr. Green's classes.

THE EARTHQUAKE!

Sympathy from the Queen.

ANOTHER SHOCK.

Aid for the Sufferers.

A SHOCK IN CANADA.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.

The following despatch was received by cable to-day from Queen Victoria:

BALMORAL, Sept. 3.

To the President of the United States,—

I desire to express my profound sympathy with the sufferers by the late earthquakes, and await with anxiety for fuller intelligence which I hope may show the effects to have been less disastrous than reported.

(Sgd.) THE QUEEN.

A despatch from Summerville, near Charleston, says: "Send 300 tents direct to this place. The shocks still continue and many families are homeless. Special performances will be given in all the principal theatres and places of amusement in the city, for the benefit of the Charleston sufferers."

NEW YORK, Sept 3.

The associated press is informed that another heavy shock of earthquake occurred at Charleston a few minutes ago. All the wires to that city have been lost.

LONDON, ONT., Sept 3.

An earthquake shock was felt here last night. It lasted half a minute and made windows rattle and floors tremble.

Shot in the Brain.

OTTAWA, Sept. 3.

This afternoon, Archibald S. Campbell, aged 25, son of Sir Alexander Campbell, was found dead in his bed-room at his father's house. In his right hand was clenched a revolver with one chamber discharged. The bullet had entered his brain. No explanation can be offered for the sad event, which, it is said, was accidental, but there were no eye-witnesses. Sir Alexander only returned from England on Saturday.

A Statement Denied.

LONDON, Sept 3.

Lord George Hamilton, first Lord of the Admiralty, replying to interrogations in the House of Commons this afternoon, denied that any agent of the United States had access, through the firm of Sir William Armstrong & Co., to designs intended for several vessels under confidential consideration by the British Government.

The Evangelists will follow the lecture with an "inquiry meeting"

Boston Markets.

BOSTON, Sept. 1.

POTATOES.—The market is liberally supplied with Potatoes, but there is a fair trade and prices are steady at 55 to 65c per bush, the outside for best New Hampshire stock. Sales in barrels at $1 75 to $2 per bbl. Sweets plentiful, with sales at $2 to $2 50 per bbl.

EGGS.—There has been a fair demand for fresh stock, with sales of Eastern extras at 17½ to 18c, and Prince Edward Island firsts 15½ to 16c per dozen.

FISH TRADE.—There continues to be considerable excitement in the market for mackerel. Two fares from the North Bay were sold in Gloucester as soon as they arrived at $12 per bbl, sea packed. Sales of P. E. Island were sold at $10 to $11 per bbl, but a part of late receipts are held at $12. Inspected lots of Bay sold in Portland at extreme prices, say $9.50 for No. 3; $12 for No. 2; and $20 for No. 1 per bbl. The market is very much unsettled, and it is impossible to give quotations that will hold good for more than a day at a time. Advices from the Bay fleet are not favorable. Some vessels are on their way home with a good fare but others have done very little and the fishing season in the Bay will soon be closed. The advance has checked the jobbing trade, and very few new orders have been received the past three days.

Codfish continues in liberal supply, and prices are easy, with a dull trade.
