Legionaires To Montreal

THE MARITIME CHAMPION Summerside Junior Legionaires leave for Montreal Thursday morning to take part in the Eastern Canadian Memorial Cup semi-final's, a double round-robin affair against Ottawa Montagnards and Notre-Dame-de-Grace Monarchs.

The "take 'em in eight, to prove you're great" Legionaires are scheduled to catch the 10:05 boat at Borden Thursday morning and will arrive in Montreal Friday morning by train at approximately 8 o'clock. They will stay at the Queens Hotel.

The Islanders, usually the crowd favorite when they travel to upper Canada, play their first game Friday night against Montagnards, Ottawa District champs. Their second will be against Notre Dame, Sunday, and they meet the same team again Monday night. They play their last game next Friday, following a one day layoff. The series winner advances against either Montreal Junior Canadiens or Toronto Marlboros in the Memorial Cup semi-final.

Anyone who picks Summerside to win the series is somewhat of an optimist, to say the least. This doesn't mean however, that the Legionaires won't be giving their most. They will be out to win the game that Old Spain Penguins almost won last year. And who is to say they won't pull an upset? They have already accomplished much more than critics expected they would.

Win or lose, it will be a great experience for the Summerside lads, some of whom had never played off the Island until this season. If Montreal makes it to the NHL finals, there is an excellent chance the Juniors will be able to see a couple of their games.

Play In Richard Arena

The Legionaires will probably play all their games in the Maurice Richard Arena, where Amherst Ramblers performed against Montreal Olympics a couple of years back. It is doubtful if they will have a chance to play in the Forum.

Seasoned veterans on the Legion squad are captain David Gaudet and forwards Willie Gallant and Dave Martin. The trio saw action against the Montgnards last season and performed on the same unit this season.

The 'Kid Line', the three who took apart the Prince County League circuit in the season, consists of centre Paul MacWilliams and wingers Alan Gaudet and Bob Perry. The third line is made up of George Dalton, John Poirier, Nick Fillmore and Wayne Trainor.

The big boys on defence are Gerald Smith, Don Campbell, and Wendell Grady, with MacWilliams and David Gaudet moving back for the occasional shift. In nets is first year Junior man Joe Sonier, backed up by another, Bobby Perry. The Legionaires are coached by Grant Grady and managed by Joe Clark, under the sponsorship of the Summerside branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Officials Take A Beating

Notre Dame Monarchs won the Quebec crown from Port Alfred 3-0 in the best-of-five series, but it didn't end as simple as that.

Monarchs won the deciding game in Port Alfred Monday night on Guy Dufour's three goals by a 5-1 count Irate fans chased goal judge Gerry Hunt from the rink after the first period however when he allowed a disputed NDG goal that tied the game 1-1. Later referee Robert Lagare had to be escorted to the dressing room when he was threatened with a stick.

Such incidents disgrace amateur sports. We hope the Junior Legionaires don't run into similar difficulties.

Off The Cuff

THE DECIDING GAME for the championship of the Charlottetown Junior Hockey League between St. Dunstan's and the Legion Juveniles will be played at the Forum tomorrow night. The best-of-three round is tied at a game apiece. We saw the second game in the series, won by the Juveniles 7-2, and were very disappointed with the roughness displayed by the boys. It's hard enough to get persons to watch good hockey in the Maritimes let alone see these teams display their chippy, bumping tactics..... Milwaukee Braves are returning infielder OZZIE VIRGIL to Toronto of the International League, cutting the Milwaukee forces to 29 roster players and two non-roster. The club must be down to 27 by opening day. Looks like BO BELINSKY is back in the majors. The wild man from Los Angeles held Cleveland to one run in seven innings Monday night in a pre-season warm-up match..... LEO DEORSEY, who is running Washington Redskins in the National Football League, has turned down $7 million for the club franchise..... There is still snow falling in all areas of the Island, but we're patiently waiting for the first real sign of spring. An announcement that a baseball or softball meeting will be held..... MILT SCHMIDT, whose coaching contract was due to expire this month, has been signed to a new two-year contract by Boston Bruins..... DANNY BLANCHFLOWER, ace strategist who led Tottenham Hotspur to an European triumph, is quitting soccer. The 37-year-old wing-half lost his place in the line-up last November, and soon after injured a knee..... BILL HARTACK, not Willie Shoemaker, will ride Northern Dancer in the Kentucky Derby Saturday. Shoemaker has switched to Bill Rise..... How is this for a seven year major league baseball record? A broken collarbone, a dislocated elbow, three fingers fractured, two hitches in the service and a .180 batting average. The owner? BOB TAYLOR, catcher of the New York Mets.

DOWN TO BUSINESS

Leaf goalie Johnnie Bower drops to pin the puck under his pad in the first period of the National Hockey League semi-final in Toronto last night, Toronto defenceman Allan Stanley (26) swoops in to cut off Claude Larose (23) of Montreal Canadiens.

Leafs Shut Out Canadiens; Force Series To The Limit

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs scored a 3-0 win over Montreal Canadiens here Tuesday night to even their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-finals at three games each.

The Leafs outskated the Canadiens all the way and veteran goaltender Johnny Bower turned in an airtight performance.

The outcome set the stage for the climatic seventh game at Montreal Thursday night.

Bower, officially 39 years old, turned aside 25 shots in the game, making four big saves in the scoreless first period.

Don McKenney and defenceman Bob Baun made it 2-0 for Toronto in the second period and Andy Bathgate banged in the third Leafs goal in the third as Leafs sat back with their lead and picked their openings.

Bower, coming up with a fine game in the face of criticism of his performances in the last two games, saved on good scoring chances by Canadiens Claude Provost, John Ferguson, Dave Balon and rookie Claude Larose in the first period, during which Leafs had a territorial edge, but Montreal had the better scoring chances.

McKenney counted his third goal of the series at 8:59 of the second off a strong play by defenceman Allan Stanley.

BOUNCED SHOT

The rearguard took a back pass from Dave Keon at the Montreal blueline, bounced a shot off a linesman, got the puck again and avoided a couple of Montreal players to drive a screened shot at goaltender Charlie Hodge.

McKenney grabbed the rebound, fanned on his first try, then backhanded a 15 - footer high into the net as Hodge dropped to the ice.

Baun made it 2-0 about five minutes later when he broke away after stopping from the penalty box. In the clear from centre ice, he was overtaken in side the Canadiens blueline by defenceman Guy Talbot.

But as the two defencemen battled for the lastly sliding puck, Hodge sprawled out in an effort to smother it and it went underneath him into the net.

Baun started the play for Leafs' third goal in the third period, barreling over the Montreal blueline and dumping the puck to Red Kelly. The left winger dumped the puck across to Bob Pulford, who was cruising in alone on Hodge.

Ullman Fires 'Hat Trick' As Wings Crush Chicago

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

DETROIT (CP)—The battling Detroit Red Wings, powered by little Normie Ullman who scored three goals and assisted on two others, walloped Chicago Black Hawks 7-2 Tuesday night in the sixth game of their Stanley cup semi-final.

The Red Wings, incensed at what coach Sid Abel called a steal on a Black Hawk goal in the fifth game at Chicago Sunday night, out - hustled, outskated and out-hit the Hawks throughout most of the 60 minutes. They never were behind and they gave the Black Hawks little chance to get organized.

The Red Wings, who played this game as if they had it all wrapped up from the opening faceoff, were held to a 1-1 standoff in the first period. They whipped in three goals in 11 minutes and 26 seconds in the second period to put the game out of reach, square the series 3-3 and force a decisive and dramatic seventh game at Chicago Thursday night.

NORM ULLMAN

The referee in that one will be Frank Udvari, the man who allowed the hotly-disputed Chicago goal that tied the game 2-2 and then Hawks won it 3-2 with less than four minutes left to play.

COACH FINED

Udvari was the target for Abel's charges and the Red Wing coach paid $500 for his indiscretions. He was fined that amount by National Hockey League president Clarence Campbell just a few hours before the teams took the ice tonight.

Abel didn't back down from his charges, including a blast that Udvari didn't have a gut left and Campbell, in a statement, declared: "These statements constitute one of the most serious accusations that can or ever has been made against any NHL official."

SUMMARY

First period—1. Detroit, Ullman 4 (MacDonald, Smith) 5:57; 2. Chicago, Wharram 2 (Hull, Mikita) 6:31. Penalties—Jeffrey 2:22, Wharram 4:37, Hillman 8:18, Barkley 15:47, Murphy 17:44.

Second period: 3. Detroit, (Howe, Ullman 7:00; 5. Detroit A. Pronovost 4 (Henderson, Barkley) 13:06; 6. Chicago, Mikita (Wharram) 15:45; 7. Detroit Ullman (Jeffrey, M. Pronovost) 16:28. Penalties — Jeffrey 2:06; Nesterenko 6:51; Barkley 10:07; MacGregor 16:51.

Observations Given By Clarence Campbell

VANCOUVER (CP) — Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, says hockey today is almost pantywaist compared with what it was 15 years ago.

He also says the NHL is the most successful sports organization in the world. He likened critics of it to kitchen help kicking the boss.

In a taped interview with sports director Al Davidson of New Westminister radio station CKNW he said:

"Oh, I've been in hockey, professional hockey since 1936. That is pretty near 30 years and the game we're playing today isn't violent in terms that I've observed them both as a referee and as an official."

DOESN'T CONTROL NHL

Earlier Campbell said he does not have control of the league.

"I carry out the policy of the owners and the NHL is, in spite of what anybody may say, the most successful sports organization in the world

"There is nothing that can match it in that way. There are some people who don't like the way we operate but this is only the kitchen - help kicking the boss."

He said statements attributed to Senator Hartland Molson, head of the Montreal Canadiens organization, were taken out of context. The senator has been quoted as saying that he is not happy with the trend and violence in hockey.

"I happened to be in on the meeting at which he was present and I know exactly what was said and I know what was decided and I am sure he did not intend to leave any particular impression of this kind at all.

"I know what steps are being taken as well as anybody; as a matter of fact I'm partially responsible for formulation of the basic decisions that were taken at our last meeting."

Asked if he is happy with the refereeing of the NHL semi-final series, he said the standard has been pretty good.

There had been one major rhubarb and one disputed goal . . . "now that's not bad out of 16 games."

EFFORTS ABANDONED

KARACHI (AP) — A West German mountaineering expedition sent word to this Pakistan capital Monday bad weather has forced it to abandon efforts to conquer 26,660-foot Nanga Parbat. It has been conquered twice, both times—in 1953 and 1962—by teams headed by Dr. Herrling Koffer, the man in charge of the present nine-man expedition

NHL President Fines Sid Abel

DETROIT (CP)—Coach Sid Abel of Detroit Red Wings was fined $500 Tuesday for remarks he made about referee Frank Udvari's officiating in the fifth game of the Detroit-Chicago Stanley Cup semi-final at Chicago Sunday night. Red Wings lost the game 3-2.

The loss was Detroit's third in the best-of-seven series. Announcement of the fine was made about 15 minutes before the Wings and Black Hawks met in the sixth game—in a statement by President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League.

Abel blew his top in the third period of the Sunday game when Udvari allowed a Chicago goal by Ken Wharram that tied the score 2-2. The Hawks broke the deadlock with less than four minutes left to play in the game.

SID ABEL

Abel declared the goal was a steal and said also that the official didn't have a gut left.

Abel was informed of his fine by Campbell, in Toronto for the sixth game of the Maple Leaf-Montreal cup semi-final, earlier today.

Campbell issued a statement released here by Ron Andrews, publicity director of the National Hockey League, announcing the fine. Abel was handed the statement about 30 minutes before Red Wings took the ice for their pre-game warmup.

Campbell said it is quite permissible to criticize an official for an alleged error in judgment or observation in the discharge of his duties but Abel's statements constitute one of the most serious accusations that can or ever has been made against any NHL official.

MUSCULAR REACTION

When a horse dozes, a muscular reaction locks its leg joints into place.

Orwell Cove Wins Ch'ship

Orwell Cove and District calf club defeated Millview 3-3 in a game played at the North River rink last night. This victory gave the winners the championship of the Pownal midget league.

T. Grant and R. Noonan paced the winners attack as they each fired a brace. J. Sullivan notched a singleton for the Orwell Cove squad.

G. Grant denied the twines twice for the losers and R. Drake accounted for the third marker.

Legion's Sportsmen Dinner Will Feature NHL Stars

Officials if the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion last night confirmed the engagement of some of the biggest names in Canada's world of sport for their 'Centennial Salute to Hockey', slated for the local Legion on Wednesday evening, May 6.

Brig. W.W. (Bill) Reid, member of the Centennial committee on sports, received definite word that Danny Gallivan, the Voice of the Montreal Canadiens; Frankee Selke Jr., of the Montreal organization; Frank (King) Clancy, assistant coach and general manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs; and Leonard Patrick (Red) Kelly, Liberal MP and star of the Toronto Leafs, will be in Charlottetown for the sports extravaganza.

There are other notables coming, to add to this already impressive list of sports notables. Jean Beliveau of the Montreal Canadiens is almost certain to attend, but final confirmation on his presence is still pending. Our own Forbes Kennedy will represent the Boston Bruins, and it is expected that Chicago Black Hawks and Detroit Red Wings will send along their biggest names - Bobby Hull and Gordie Howe. The name of the representative of the New York Rangers is not yet available.

In addition to these, Jim Trimble, one of the biggest names in professional football, the coach of the Montreal Alouettes, will likely attend, and Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, may join the list of notables attending.

Danny Gallivan, a native of Whitney Pier, N.S., will be master of ceremonies for the glittering function, and Brig. Bill Reid is the chairman for the dinner.

Tickets for the reception and dinner, which will be held in the Clover Club at the new, well-appointed Legion Home here, will sell for $25 each, and there is a limited number available. Proceeds from this fund-raising venture will be turned over to three deserving causes: the P.E.I United Appeal, the P.E.I Retarded Children's Association, and the Legion sports program.

The function is being sponsored by the local branch of the Legion, with Freeman Mitchell past president of the Charlottetown Branch, as chairman of the overall organizational committee. Working along with him are Charlie Ryan, president of the Legion sports committee, and Eddie Brown, who is looking after entertainment for the program.

Early ticket hunters can purchase their tickets now at either the Charlottetown or Summerside branches of the Legion.

School Basketball Tourney Slated For Sat. At Souris

By ED CLINTON
Souris Bureau of The Guardian

The big sport event this week will be the basketball tournament to be held in Souris Saturday. This is an elementary school affair with six teams from four schools competing. As far as we can ascertain, this will be the first such tournament ever to be held on the Island. The tournament is divided into two divisions, boys and girls, with champions being declared in each division.

The girls teams will be from Summerside RCAF, Montague Elementary and St. Mary's Convent of Souris. The latter two schools will be putting inexperienced players on the floor. The boys teams will be from Summerside RCAF, Montague Elementary, and Souris Elementary, and the same remarks about the girls teams, applies to the boys.

This program is guided by Bob Mills, Montague, and he will be assisted on the local scene by Reg Peters. The tournament will take place in Souris Regional High School, and will start in the morning, and run all day until all games have been played. It would be nice to see a good turn-out of fans to watch the kids in action.

COMMISSION FUND DRIVE

While we're on the subject of kids, the Souris Recreational Commission have announced that they will be undertaking a fund drive within the next few days. The commission's funds have ceased to exist, and a commission member told us that they managed to finish the winter program, only through the generosity of certain individuals, who donated of their time, money, and the use of their cars for transportation.

With the exception of the Regional High School, the Commission furnishes all sports necessities for Souris all year around. This takes quite a bit of money. True, they do get some money from Physical Fitness, but this only pays a small portion of the expenses. So Souris fans, when the drive starts, dig down.

A well organized sports program goes a long way in combatting juvenile delinquency. And thanks to the sports commission in Souris, and their program, this is not a problem in Souris. Be thankful, and help keep this program going.

BASEBALL HANDY

One would hardly think, by looking around outside, that the local baseball season is not too far away, but it isn't. The teams usually hold their first practices about the middle of next month, and shortly thereafter the King's County Baseball League gets underway with its schedule. This league, probably the least best organized, is at the same time the province's most popular and best attended.

From an organizational viewpoint, the league, each year, is usually slow to get underway, and a novice at attending these meetings would be quite willing to swear that this year the league would not exist, but, it always does. The usual pattern for the first meeting is for about two teams to be at the meeting place on time, and possibly three more teams to send delegates who arrive about two to three hours late. At this stage, it is usually decided that because of lack of representation, nothing definite can be decided, and the meeting is adjourned.

The second meeting goes a little better, with usually only one team not represented. The next executive is elected and the schedule approved. Any later meetings called, for protests, or whatever, are usually poorly attended. An attempt was made two years ago, and tried again last year to keep, league statistics, but due to the lack of cooperation by some of the teams this was only partly successful. A complete report of statistics will be forwarded to all teams within the next ten days.

Last year the league was composed of Mt. Stewart, Morell, St. Peters, Souris, Cardigan, Georgetown, and Peakes. All teams played twice a week, except Peakes, who played only on Sundays. Just what teams will be competing this year is hard to say, but present reports indicate that Morell, Mt. Stewart, St. Peters, and Georgetown will be definite starters.

Cardigan and Montague have lost players, while Souris has to decide whether or not to use a complete team of minor leaguers.

SOURIS BOWLING NEWS

The regular schedule in the Souris Mixed Bowling League continued last week with a full slate of games. The regular schedule continues this week, and also, the fourth and possibly deciding game in the Men's League will be played on Saturday night, with the Night Hawks meeting the Smoke Eaters.

The league standings up to April 5th are: Old Pros 41½, Knowalls 38½, Lassies 33, Jets 29¼, Sputniks 28¾, Hottentots 26, Ramblers 24, VIP's 22½, Millionaires 19¾, Go-Getters 16½, Lakers 13¾, Flyers 9¼, and Tempos 3¼.
