FROM OTTAWA.—The Island riflemen are expected home from Ottawa on Monday night.

PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE. — The Prince of Wales College will reopen on Tuesday next, September 4.

THE FASTNET arrived from Summerside this morning at five o'clock and leaves for Halifax this afternoon at four.

DISCHARGING.—The schr. Mary P. is discharging a cargo of 150 tons best anthracite coal for Peake Bros. & Co.

LABOR DAY.—There will be no issue of THE DAILY EXAMINER on Monday next—the day being declared a public holiday.

THE ELLIOTT.—The steamer Elliott arrived last evening from Boston with a large cargo chiefly flour for Carvell Brothers.

TELEPHONIC.—As Monday next will be a statutory holiday, the telephone office will be open only during the same hours as on Sundays.

MARRIAGES BY WHOLESALE. — Sixteen marriages are booked to take place next week in the parish of Notre Dame de Grace, Hull. This is an unusually large number considering the season of the year.

RAIWAY PICNIC.—The annual picnic of the railway employees will be held at St. Peter's Bay on Monday next. A splendid programme of sports has been prepared, and a good time is guaranteed all who attend.

THE SURETIES JUSTIFIED.—This morning, James McNeill, of Wood Islands, sent up for trial in the Supreme Court on a charge of shooting young McMillan, was admitted to bail, the recognizance being entered into before H. James Palmer, Stipendiary Magistrate for Queen's County, and H. V. Palmer, J. P. There are three sureties of $800 each, viz., Charles E. Robertson, John D. McLeod and George Offer, and McNeill himself in $1,600.

LIGHT WANTED ON THE SQUARE.—The Patriot hopes that the band will continue to play in the Square while the fine weather continues; and THE EXAMINER hopes that the city authorities will throw a little more light upon the scene. It is hard for a band to play well without sufficient light, and strangers who go to the Square to hear the music are not favorably impressed by a dull flickering light, only enough to make darkness visible.

OVER THE WHARF. — At Halliday's wharf, on Thursday afternoon, a horse attached to a truck wagon took fright and backed over the wharf into the water. A young man named Halliday jumped over and cutting the harness, separated the horse from the vehicle and after considerable trouble got him ashore. But the animal was so long in the water that he died soon after reaching the shore. Had there been a proper railing along the sides of the wharf the accident would not have been possible.

STANFORD'S RETORT. — Once Senator Stanford was travelling through California in his train. The train had stopped at a small town, and the Senator was leisurely strolling back and forth on the platform at the depot. A baggageman was unloading trunks, and in doing so carelessly pitched one on to the platform, and it burst open. The Senator looked at it and remarked, "Well, that's a shame." The baggageman impudently asked, "Do you own this trunk?" The answer came quickly, "No, young man, but I own this road."—Horseman.

DEATH OF THOMAS HIGGINS.— Thomas Higgins who was severely injured by a fall at Messrs. Auld Bros. warehouse on Wednesday last, died at eleven o'clock last night remaining unconscious till death. Drs. Kelly and Warbuton performed a post mortem on the body. They found the skull badly fractured in two places, one at the base, the other extending direct across the forehead. They also found large blood clots pressing upon the brain. The injuries being of such severe nature it is surprising that death was not instantaneous. The remains were taken to Kensington this afternoon. Rev. G. M. Campbell held services at the house corner of Weymouth and King Sts. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of our citizens.

THE CATHEDRAL BAZAAR.—From what is being done in the way of making preparations for the new Cathedral Bazaar it is quite evident it will be one of the greatest attractions of the season. The ladies of St. Dunstan's, together with several committee of gentlemen in charge of the movement, are untiring in the efforts to make it a most brilliant affair. The members of the Decorating Committee have completed the flooring of the Skating Rink, and the result of their labors is highly creditable. They will at once begin the more artistic work of decorating the interior of the building, and from the well-known reputation of these gentlemen in matters of this kind, the decorations alone will be something that everyone should see. This Bazaar opens on Monday, 24th September.

DIDN'T LIKE THE STATES.—Le Courier de St. Hyacinthe, of Quebec, writing on the repatriation movement, gives figures showing that 126,000 individuals came back to Canada from the United States during 1893. This number, with that of 1892, makes a grand total of 172,430 souls who have again come to their native country. The figures are compiled from custom house records.

The United States, like other nations, is piling up its list of naval failures. The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius, which was at one time held to typify a revolution in naval construction as great as that caused by the appearance of the Monitor, has been officially condemned as a failure, and is to be hatched over into a torpedo catcher. Uncle Sam will spend a good many dollars before he learns what not to do with his new naval schemes.

DIED.

In this city, on Friday evening, August 31st, Thomas, eldest son of John Higgins, aged 17 years.

According to Chinese papers the Chinese troops attacked the Japanese in the Corean passes on the 13th August, and between that day and the 18th defeated them in four more or less serious combats. The Chinese are either good fighters or good story tellers.

NEWS NOTES.

A despatch from Rome says 60 Canadian pilgrims will be received by the Pope to-morrow.

The paper contributed by the Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone to the August number of The Nineteenth Century has received high enconiums from the Church press in England.

Salmon are so plentiful in the British Columbian rivers that canners refuse them, and they are selling in quantities for manure.

The Nicaraguan Government, which imprisoned the British Vice-Consul, has now expelled him from the country. Small nations can do things in these days what a considerable power would not dare to think of. They presume on their own littleness, like the toy terrier who barks at the Newfoundland dog, because he knows the latter thinks it beneath his dignity to take any notice of such an assailant.

The butter indusiry of the United States is of immense importance. In round numbers there are from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth sold annually in each State. In 1890 Illinois produced 95,000,000 pounds, worth about $20,000,000; Wisconsin, 45,000,000 pounds, worth $9,000,000; Iowa, 100,000,000 pounds, worth $21,000,000; Minnesota, 42,000,000 pounds, worth $8,000,000; Michigan, 40,000,000 pounds, worth $7,500,000.

Ex-President Harrison's friends announce that he is not a candidate for nomination at the next Republican convention and would only accept it if it should come to him with practical unanimity. This no doubt means that Mr. Harrison is pulling the wires to make sure that there will be practical unanimity. Mr. Harrison does not say so much as some who are known to be aspirants for the nomination, but he thinks much and knows a great deal deal, and keeps his eye on all the current events of the political movement.

Count Lyszkeewicz, whose estates are near Krottingen, Russia, has been on bad terms with his tenants for several months. Several tenants refused to pay rent. On Saturday the Count seized 30 head of their cattle as security. The peasants were intensely excited by the appearance of the Count's officers, and let the cattle go only after having been driven with clubs from the sheds. Early on Monday morning one hundred of them, armed with old muskets, scythes and pitchforks, marched to the Count's castle. They demanded the cattle back. Some twenty servants and foremen ordered them to leave the neighborhood. In the fight which followed four of the Count's employes and six or seven of the peasants were killed, and many others were wounded.

A new book on the monetary question by Henry Dunning McLeod, puts the following questions to bi-metallists:

"Suppose that gold and silver are coined in unlimited quantities, and a fixed legal rate is enacted between them.

"1. Is it the fixed legal ratio enacted between the coins which governs the relative value of the metals in bullion?

"2. Or is it the relative value of the metals in bullion which governs the relative value of the coins?

"3. And if it be found impossible for any single country to maintain gold and silver coined in unlimited quantities in circulation together at a fixed legal ratio, is it possible for any number of countries combined to do so by an international agreement."

There is a small, but possibly a growing, element in Canadian political life, which favors bi-metallism and the establishment of a legal ratio between gold and silver. It is suggested that they should come before the public with an answer to Mr. McLeod's questions when next they introduce their hobby.
