

HAPPENINGS

Dr. and Mrs. Benson Auld and children of Halifax, N.S. spent the holiday weekend in Charlottetown visiting Dr. Auld's mother, Mrs. J. R. Auld and his brother W. C. Auld and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis MacDonald and Mrs. and Mrs. Lloyd MacDonald and the latter's three children, Gregg, Jeff and Nancy, left recently for Toronto, Ont. after spending a pleasant vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy MacDonald, Albany, Argle Shore, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Latourneau of Campbellton, N.B.

Mr. D. A. MacNeill of Stanley Bridge, left Summerville on Wednesday for Halifax, N.S. where he will enter the Victoria General Hospital for treatment.

Andrew and Billy Walker of Summerville are vacationing with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. MacLean, Eureka, N.S.

Mr. and Mrs. George (Joey) Schurman and family, Rankin, Lia and Stephen, arrived in Summerville by car this week from Sherbrooke, Louisiana, and are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schurman.

Mr. and Mrs. C.K. Pugh and daughter Ted, South Plainsfield, N.J., and Mrs. Robert E. White and daughter, Gracie of Memphis, Tenn. are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cotton, Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fyfe, Long River and Mrs. John Fyfe, Stanley Bridge, returned recently from a holiday tour of the Maritimes, going by Borden and returning by Wood Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson and daughter Susan of North Sydney, N.S., spent the past weekend at Margate where they were guests of Miss Olive Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. William Thomson.

Miss Barbara Ruth Brown Reservationist with T.C.A. at Edmonton, Alta., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brown, Margate.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mallat, Montreal are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cousins, Baltic.

Mrs. Ingham Jardine and Mrs. James Jamieson who are retiring from the staff of Kensington Elementary School, were presented with gifts at a banquet held at the Summeridge Club, English, attended by the teachers and their escorts, Mrs. Gordon Cousins and Mr. Cousins.

Mrs. George Harding has returned to her home at Kensington after spending the past month at Wood Islands.

Regular expenditures voted at the meeting included: $30 towards the upkeep of the chaplain's room at Prince County Hospital; a contribution to the magazine "Canadian Scene"; Encyclopedia Britannica year book for the school library; $10 towards prizes for the 11th annual provincial flower show, to be held in Summerville, 1 August, under the sponsorship of the chapter; $100 for the usual $100 bursary awarded annually to a deserving high school graduate or student nurse two $100 bursaries would be given; one to Miss-Idol of Tyne Valley, a nurse-in-training at Prince County Hospital, and the second to Wayne Matheson, Summerville, who will attend Prince of Wales College, Halifax, N.S., spent the weekend with her sister Mrs. Kenneth Walker of Summerville and family, Rankin, Lia and Stephen, and her daughter Mrs. Robert Steeves and Mr. Steeves.

Miss Betty MacLean, RN, of Halifax, N.S., spent the weekend with her sister Mrs. Kenneth Walker and Mr. Walker of Summerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Campbell, Summerville has as a recent guest Mrs. Belle Campbell of Pinchmount, Mass.

Mrs. George Harding has returned to her home at Kensington after spending the past month at Wood Islands.

As the chapter's official delegate to the national meetings, Mrs. Smallman gave an interesting review of the business dealt with at the convention. It was decided that letters would be addressed to the Mayor and town council, the Canadian League and the Summeridge firm who contributed towards the purchase of the lobster supper. The next regular meeting will be held in October.

At the chapter's official delegate to the national meetings, Mrs. Smallman gave an interesting review of the business dealt with at the convention. It was decided that letters would be addressed to the Mayor and town council, the Canadian League and the Summeridge firm who contributed towards the purchase of the lobster supper. The next regular meeting will be held in October.

At the chapter's official delegate to the national meetings, Mrs. Smallman gave an interesting review of the business dealt with at the convention. It was decided that letters would be addressed to the Mayor and town council, the Canadian League and the Summeridge firm who contributed towards the purchase of the lobster supper. The next regular meeting will be held in October.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

Margate UCV Plans For Church Nursery Picnic

By A New Name was read by Mrs. Garfield MacFadyen. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved by 12 members with a verse of scripture concerning the word "Peace". The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. Walden MacKinnon; vice - president, Mrs. Garfield MacFadyen; secretary, Mrs. Lois MacFadyen; treasurer, Mrs. Richard MacFadyen; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bea MacFadyen; and chairman, Mrs. Harold MacDonald; buying committee, Mrs. Charles Fritzel and Mrs. Kenneth MacKinnon.

Roll call was answered by 12 members. Mrs. Walden MacKinnon gave a gift for a shawl. The correspondence included a thank-you note and invitation to the 7th anniversary of the P.E.I. Presbytery on July 10. The mile books were opened and closed.

Following the meeting lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by members of the committee in charge.

ENTOMBED CHARIOT

A chariot and skeletons of four horses were found in an Italian remains in a tomb at ancient Salamis on Cyprus, believed dating from the 6th century BC.

THE ROBIN ROOM

● LUNCH or DINE in the Robin Room
● In quiet country surroundings
● Early American atmosphere
● Excellent cuisine
● Your Chef Tielemans Erickson

SHERWOOD ACRES MOTEL

Opposite the Airport

Buying - Selling - Renting

FAST AND FAIR DEAL
Phone 894-3268

In the Front Office of Real Estate Business Lists of Buyers and Sellers.

City and Country Service - Call Day or Night
For experienced and confidential service without obligation

John W. Mackenzie

Real Estate Consultant - Appraiser & Broker
289 Queen Street - Charlottetown
Member of Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards.

THE ROBIN ROOM

● LUNCH or DINE in the Robin Room
● In quiet country surroundings
● Early American atmosphere
● Excellent cuisine
● Your Chef Tielemans Erickson

SHERWOOD ACRES MOTEL

Opposite the Airport

Buying - Selling - Renting

FAST AND FAIR DEAL
Phone 894-3268

In the Front Office of Real Estate Business Lists of Buyers and Sellers.

City and Country Service - Call Day or Night
For experienced and confidential service without obligation

John W. Mackenzie

Real Estate Consultant - Appraiser & Broker
289 Queen Street - Charlottetown
Member of Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards.

Buying - Selling - Renting

FAST AND FAIR DEAL
Phone 894-3268

In the Front Office of Real Estate Business Lists of Buyers and Sellers.

City and Country Service - Call Day or Night
For experienced and confidential service without obligation

John W. Mackenzie

Real Estate Consultant - Appraiser & Broker
289 Queen Street - Charlottetown
Member of Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards.

Buying - Selling - Renting

FAST AND FAIR DEAL
Phone 894-3268

In the Front Office of Real Estate Business Lists of Buyers and Sellers.

City and Country Service - Call Day or Night
For experienced and confidential service without obligation

John W. Mackenzie

Real Estate Consultant - Appraiser & Broker
289 Queen Street - Charlottetown
Member of Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards.

Buying - Selling - Renting

FAST AND FAIR DEAL
Phone 894-3268

In the Front Office of Real Estate Business Lists of Buyers and Sellers.

City and Country Service - Call Day or Night
For experienced and confidential service without obligation

John W. Mackenzie

Real Estate Consultant - Appraiser & Broker
289 Queen Street - Charlottetown
Member of Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards.

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

WOOD ISLANDS BOY IS WED IN CEREMONY AT HAMILTON, ONT.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM K. EMERY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wentworth Baptist Church, Hamilton, Ontario, on May 12th, when Lillian Marie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Smith of Hamilton was united in marriage with Malcolm Kenneth Emery, son of Mrs. Eric Stewart and the late Mr. Daniel D. Emery of Wood Islands, P.E.I. James Taylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with assorted mums and the guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

Mrs. Jardine Is Honored At Farewell Party

KENSINGTON - Mrs. Ingham Jardine was guest of honor at a farewell party held at home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Beatrix, Kensington, on Thursday evening, June 28, when a number of the Kensington Presbyterian congregation gathered to greet her with gifts.

The Rev. E.H. Beas, chairman, spoke briefly, recalling that Mrs. Jardine had been a member of the Kensington School for many years, a d active in other organizations of the church as well and noted that she will be greatly missed as she goes to make her home elsewhere. An social appreciation and good wishes was read by Mrs. Horace Hechtbert. A gift on behalf of the Ladies Aid was presented by Mrs. Roy MacArthur, and a well filled purse from those present, was presented by Miss Mae Walker. On behalf of the members of the church, a gift of money was presented by Mr. John Burrows.

Previously at a regular meeting of the WMS, Mrs. Jardine had been presented with a life membership in the Society. The recipient responded fittingly, expressing her thanks to all and all social good followed, and the singing of old favorites was enjoyed, with Mrs. Charles Kennedy at the piano.

The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by 114 ladies of the church. Mrs. Jardine has taken up residence in Summerville.

H. BENNETT CARR Insurance Consulting

Dist. Super. Sun Life of Canada
Phone 4-8171 - 4-6453
Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Historic Fraternity

Old-time Greek-letter fraternity in the U.S., Phi Beta Kappa was founded in 1776 at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Va.

They Donahue and Sharon Hugueny are surrounded by an enthusiastic mob of students who have volunteered to work in his tobacco fields when he makes a determined bid to break her father's monopoly in this climatic scene from Warner Bros. Technicolor production of "Parrish," opening today at the North River Drive - In Theatre.

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN TUPPER

Gail Montgomery Becomes Bride Of Mr. Edwin Tupper

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his

On Saturday, 19th of May, at 2:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, Helen Gail Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Montgomery became the bride of Charles Edwin Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tupper of Pictou, Nova Scotia. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Summers, Mr. Christopher Goodrich, M.A., Mus. Bacc., accompanied Miss Barbara Rogers who was the Maid of Honor, and Mr. Peter MacKay, who was the Best Man. The bride was escorted to the ceremony and the wedding prayer during the signing of the register. Baskets of white shasta mums adorned the church while the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace over bright satin with fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline and long thin pleat sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and pink miniature roses.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Joyce Smith as maid of honor, Miss Gayle Rogers and Miss Margaret Carrigan as bridesmaids. They were identical street length bouffant skirted dresses of rose lace and taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, their headpieces were pouffe veils held in place with matching bows, and they carried white carriages.

Peter R. Emery attended his