

Training Girls.

Did girls get from childhood the same business training as boys, and were it clearly understood in all families that it is not a credit but a discredit for women to be idle, to hang helpless on the men instead of doing their own work, and, if necessary, earning their own living, I believe society would be not the worse but the better for the change.

A Duke's Acres

The Duke of Sutherland has 1,288,666 acres in five counties; the Duchess, 149,879 acres in one county; Marquis of Breadalbane, 438,358 in two counties; Duke of Buccleugh, 459,540 acres in fourteen counties; Lady Matheson (widow of Sir J.), 406,070 acres in one county; Earl of Seafield, 305,891 acres in three counties; Duke of Richmond, 286,409 acres in five counties; Sir A. Mathieson, 220,633 acres in two counties; the Duke of Athole has 194,640 acres in one county; the Duke of Argyll, 175,114 acres in two counties; the Duke Hamilton, 157,305 acres in five counties; Lord Lovat, 161,571 acres in one county; Sir Kenneth MacKenzie, 164,680 acres in one county; Duke of Portland, 165,653 acres in eight counties; Norman McLean, 143,007 acres in two counties; Lord Dalhousie, 138,021 acres in two counties. Nothing can be said of values, as these have fallen very much of late years.

A Watch the Size of a Flea.

There is a watch in the Swiss museum only three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, inserted in the top of a pencil case. Its little dial not only indicates hours, minutes and seconds, but also days of the month. It is a relic of the time when watches were inserted in snuff boxes, shirt studs and finger rings. Some were fantastic—oval, octagonal cruciform or in the shape of pearls, tulips, etc.

The youngster who wrote the following should some day be a reporter: Boys is men that have not got as big as their papas, and girls are young women that will be young ladies by and by. Man was made before woman. When God looked at Adam He said to Himself: "Well, I guess I can do better than that if I try again," and then He made Eve. God liked Eve so much better than He did Adam that there has been more women in the world than men ever since. Boys are a trouble. They are very wearing on everything but soap. If I could have my way half the boys in the world be little girls and the other half would be dolls. My papa is so nice to me that he must have been a girl when he was a little boy.

Father (to daughter who has just returned from a seminary): Have thy good instruction at the seminary Ethel?

Ethel: Yes, indeed, the professor of chemistry was splendid.

Father: Understood chemistry pretty well, did he?

Ethel: Yes, I suppose so, as he had just the loveliest eyes and brown curly hair I ever saw.

"Ob, Rowena," exclaimed Voltigern Tapemeasure, dropping on his knees without a struggle, "your beauty fires my heart—" "My daughter," said old Hengist Wheatcroft, entering the room, "I will divide the contract with you; I will fire the rest of him." Which he did.

Adoring Grandmother: Isn't he a lovely child? Calm visitor: Yes, he's a nice little baby. Adoring Grandmother: And so intelligent. He just lies there all day and breathes and breathes and breathes.

Mistress (to new servant): We have breakfast generally about eight o'clock. New Servant: Well, mum if I ain't down on it, don't wait.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.
