The "Kerry Gow."

THE Academy of Music was last evening again unaccountably crowded by an enthusiastic audience, and the "Kerry Gow" was again produced by Mr. Murphy and his excellent company in splendid style. In order to give the public an opportunity to see the drama as it should be seen the management have engaged Market Hall, have set up their own scenery and stage fixings, secured as good an orchestra as they can in the city, and they intend to play for three nights, ending Friday. Those who wish to see an ideal Irish drama produced by polished artists, should not fail to attend to-night at Market Hall.

NOTES.

Not the promissory, but facts about WILSON'S SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by Red and Yellow Wrappers, or any of the imitations of the WILSONS, as a pair of clasped hands is stamped on every bar. Made by CURRIE, DAVIS & Co.

Mr. Justice Maule, of London, has returned both Church and State in England by a decidedly new departure. A small girl witness, when asked if she knew where she would go if she told a lie, said she didn't. "No do I," said the Justice, and had the small girl sworn at once.
