Football Star Makes Demand

By JIM CULLEN

Bernie Faloney, the all-star quarterback who performed for so many years with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats has been causing more than a little stir in the sports world as a result of his being traded from the Tiger-Cats to the Montreal Alouettes. Faloney has demanded a most considerable increase in salary, if he is to report to the Al's and it has been rumored that he asked for a three year contract in the amount of $200,000 which figures out to $66,666.66 per year to throw a football with Faloney accuracy and style for the Jim Trimble coached gridiron crew.

Faloney has explained that he needs a considerable increase in wages in order to compensate for the inconvenience of moving his family and for having to leave his business interests in Hamilton and take up residence in Montreal. He is involved in the machinery business in the 'Steel City'. The Alouettes have offered Bernie a salary equal to what he was drawing in Hamilton and have assured him of outside work with radio and insurance that would match what he makes selling machinery in Hamilton.

Faloney has explained he wants to be traded to Toronto rather than line up with the Al's and we presume this debate over salary with the Montreal management is merely a lever to attempt to force Montreal into trading the highly-rated signal-calling quarterback to the Argos. Surely, the former ace of the Tiger-Cats is aware that his rumored request for $200,000 is out of all reason. Proven quarterbacks in the National Football League are rewarded for their sweat and efforts at the rate of $35,000 a year and this is considered top. Players who perform for this wage in the NFL include such noted performers as Johnny Unitas and Y. A. Tittle and they are playing in a league that can afford big fees. The Prime Minister of Canada draws a salary of $43,000 a year for his sweat and intellect.

The Montreal management has insisted that Faloney will not be traded to Toronto because if they did they would be giving in to Faloney's demands and no trade in the CFL would ever stick again. We think the ace quarterback is being most unreasonable and must add that this is not the usual way for Mr. Faloney to conduct his affairs.

This time, however, he appears to be attempting to bulldoze his way to his objective.

Tid Bits From Here And There

The Maritime midget-hockey tournament will swing into action at the Charlottetown Forum tonight with action scheduled to get underway at 7:30 p.m. Lorne Hennessey's midgets are set to face-off against the Fredericton, N.B. team which captured the New Brunswick provincial championship. The Fredericton team is highly rated on the basis of their showing in an invitational midget tournament staged at Montreal Forum earlier this season. The N.B. champions were undefeated in three games. Saturday morning at 11 o'clock the Nova Scotia champs will tangle with Fredericton and in the nighttime the local representative will be pitted against Antigonish. A large crowd is expected to be on hand for tonight's action and three National Hockey League teams will have scouts in the rink to keep a sharp eye on these youngsters.

RCAF defeated Borden Nationals 5-4 in the fifth game of the Prince County Hockey League final staged at the Summerside-air base Wednesday night. The Eagles now have a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven series and will have a chance to wrap the series up in six games when the teams take to the ice at Civic Stadium tonight. If the Eagles defeat the Nationals, this will be their third hockey championship this season. Action will get underway at the Stadium at 9:15.

The Masters golf tournament got underway at Augusta, Georgia yesterday and will be concluded on Sunday with Jack Nicklaus, the golden boy of the professional golf circuit, a heavy favorite to take all the marbles in this tournament of champions.

Roger Maris, outfield star for the New York Yankees of the American Baseball League was acquitted from charges of common assault and battery filed by Jerome Modzelewski of Chicago and Fort Lauderdale following a bar room brawl in Fort Lauderdale. Judge Arnold Grevort acquitted Maris "because there is some doubt in my mind."

Leafs Defeat Canadiens; Red Kelly Leads The Way

By IAN MACLAINE
TORONTO (CP)—Red Kelly scored two goals Thursday night, his second into an empty net, to lead Toronto Maple Leafs to a 4-2 win over Montreal Canadiens and even their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-final series at two games each.

The Leafs, lethargic most of the night, scored three unanswered goals in the third period and that was all they needed after Johnny Bower had turned in a spectacular effort in the Toronto nets.

Rookie Ron Ellis and captain George Armstrong were the other Leaf scorers. Bobby Rousseau and Henri Richard scored first-period goals that gave the Montrealers a 2-0 lead. They appeared to be headed for an easy victory but they frittered away many scoring opportunities in the opening 40 minutes and then folded in the third period when Ellis and Armstrong scored within 40 seconds of each other to give Leafs a 3-2 lead.

Coach Toe Blake pulled 35-year-old goalkeeper Gump Worsley from the Montreal nets with 47 seconds to go and a faceoff in the Leaf end, but the strategy backfired. Kelly slid the insurance goal into the open net at 19:32 and a crowd of 14,572, which had booed Leafs most of the night, went home happy.

FIRST OF SERIES
The goals for the 37-year-old Kelly, a veteran of 19 National Hockey League seasons, were his first of the current series and brought his all-time playoff total to 32. The goal by Ellis was the second playoff marker for the rookie.

Both Montreal goals came off power plays, bringing Montreal's total power-play output to seven in the four games of the semi-finals.

Bower, the ageless Leaf veteran, playing as though his career were at stake, continued his sensational play in the Toronto net and prevented the Habs from scoring at least five seemingly sure goals in the second period.

The Montrealers completely monopolized the play as Richard, Jean Beliveau, Rousseau and Claude Larose took point-blank shots at the 40-year-old Toronto netminder who performed all sorts of magic to keep the score down.

The Leafs were completely disorganized for almost the first two periods and only Kelly's power-play goal at 15:22 of the second session kept Toronto within reach of the free-skating Canadiens who had started out as though they would skate the Leafs right out of Maple Leaf Gardens.

First period - 1. Montreal, Rousseau 2 (Laperriere, Provost) 3:48; 2. Montreal, Richard 4 (Beliveau) 5:45. Penalties - Ferguson 9:38, Bathgate 1:59, Pulford, Shack, Rousseau 5:14, Balon 7:04, Beliveau 19:30.
Second Period - 3. Toronto, Kelly 1 (Horton, Mahovich) 15:22. Penalties - Larose 3:33, Brewer 8:57, Rousseau 9:10, Horton 12:39, Ferguson 14:54.
Third period - 4. Toronto, Ellis 2 (Stemkowski) 5:16; 5. Toronto, Armstrong 1 (Keen, Moore) 5:58; 6. Toronto, Kelly 2 (Douglas, Pulford) 19:32. Penalties - Pulford 6:15, Brewer 13:58, Larose 15:03.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—South Africa's Gary Player, an icy little killer in black, carved out a seven-under-par 65 for the first-round lead in the Masters golf tournament Thursday and became the chief culprit in the terrible slaughter of the proud Augusta national course.

Another turn of the ball on two holes—a putt on the second and a magnificent sand blast on the 12th—and the craftsman from Johannesburg would have bettered the Masters record of 64, set by Lloyd Mangrum in the first round in 1929.

Even so, it was Player who led the mass birdie assault on Bob Jones' 6,900-year, par-72 green monster.

Tied at 69 were Doug Sanders, the year's leading money winner; Wes Ellis Jr., a club pro from West Caldwell, N.J.; former U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt and Roy Floyd.

Arnold Palmer, seeking his fifth title, was one of a half-dozen at 70.

Four Canadians were entered in the 71 bracket with Leonard of Vancouver shot a 35-36-71. George Knudson of Toronto, also a pro, had a 36-36-72. Gary Cowan, Kitchener, Ont., amateur, shot 40-35-75. Nick Westlock of Toronto, also an amateur, recorded 38-41-80.

Sam Snead recorded a 75 after needing seven shots at the fifth hole.

In the 71 bracket with Leonard were Jimmy Demaret, a grandpa of 54 and three-time winner; former champion Art Wall, who birdied the last four holes; Gene Littler; and Bernard Hunt of England.

BOBBY HULL NETS WINNER

Black Hawks Edge Wings To Tie Up Semi-Finals

By JERRY GLADMAN
CHICAGO (CP)—Bobby Hull's sizzling slap shot from just inside the blue line gave Chicago Black Hawks a 2-1 win and evened their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-final series 2-2 here Thursday night.

The goal, Hull's sixth of the series, came midway through the final period and had a crowd of over 19,000 screaming for several minutes. Linemate

Chico Maki accounted for the other Hawk marker.

Veteran lightwinger Gordie Howe scored for Detroit, his third goal of the series.

SPORT TAKE 2 HAWKS
The Wings played even with Chicago for the first period, but the next two periods saw the Detroit club tire and the Hawks come on strong.

It was a hard, fast-skating game with Hawks handing out heavier checks. The Wings seemed just a step slower than the Hawks and Chicago's checking kept Detroit off balance for the last 40 minutes.

HALF-SHONK
Much of the credit for the victory had to go to goalie Glenn Hall and the excellent coverage he received from his defence.

Hall stopped 24 Detroit drives and made a number of spectacular saves in the final period.

The defence played a big role in the win with Elmer (Moose) Vasko paving the way. On several occasions the giant defenceman went down in front of the net to smother a shot.

Roger Crozier played perhaps his strongest game of the series and couldn't be faulted on either goal. Crozier made 28 saves.

The winning tally was a typical Hull goal, scored in spectacular fashion. He took Maki's pass just over the Chicago blue line, gained momentum with each step and let go with a booming drive from just behind the Detroit blue line.

He was hit just prior to getting the shot away and was on one skate when he fired. Crozier, who barely had time to see the shot, moved to the right side and the puck picked off the left corner. It was the blond leftwinger's 39th goal in 40 playoff games.

BROKE TIE-FAST
Detroit defenceman Marcel Pronovost went off for hooking at 6:57 and it took the Hawks only one minute to break the scoreless deadlock.

The Hawks were swarming the Detroit net and, when Crozier went down on his back to make a save, the stocky right-winger flipped the puck over his prone body.

Howe's goal also came on a power play with defenceman Al MacNeill sitting out an interperiod call. Floyd Smith dug the puck out of the corner and passed out front to the 30-year-old Howe. The big rightwinger quickly poked the puck over Hall, who was down on the play.

The Wings had their biggest opportunity to change the complexion of the game when centre Phil Esposito was given a five-minute major for high-sticking Pronovost. The Detroit defenceman took four stitches in the forehead.

FUT ON PRESSURE
With Esposito in the box, the Wings put on the pressure. But Hall, bolstered by a tightened Hawk defence, kept the puck out.

With the Chicago penalty killers handing out solid checks, the Wings were only able to get three shots on goal.

The pace slowed down midway through the second as a result of several icing and off-side calls. The Hawks did most in the skating and shooting as the Detroit club appeared to tire.

Detroit, as in the third game, appeared to lack the sharpness they exhibited in the opening two matches. On the other hand, the Hawks were that much sharper.

Referee Vern Bueffey called eight minors against Detroit and four against the Hawks. Esposito's highsticking call was the lone major penalty of the game.

SUMMARY
First Period—1, Maki 2 (Esposito, Pilot) 7:57; 2, Detroit, Howe 3 (Smith, Ullman) 8:57; Penalties—MacGregor 1:02; Pronovost 6:57; MacNeil 8:05; Esposito, major, 9:45; Barkley 15:46; Mikita 15:46; Pilot 16:29; Howe 17:49.

Second period - Scoring: none. Penalties—Barkley 0:42; Joyal 7:27, 16:38.

Third period - 3, Chicago, R. Hull 6 (Maki) 9:04. Penalties—Howe, Pilot 11:09.

Nicklaus, Lema, Aaron Lead Mass In Masters
By WILL GRIMSLEY
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Favorite Jack Nicklaus, Tony Lema and Tommy Aaron led a mass attack on the Augusta national course with five-under-par 67s Thursday for a share of the first-round lead in the Masters golf tournament.

Lema, the British Open champion, came to the 18th green with a chance to take undisputed first place but three-putted, missing from two feet.

He had made a spectacular charge after firing eight straight pars. Starting at the eighth, he reeled off four straight birdies, then one over par and an eagle at the 530-yard 15th.

Tied at 69 were Doug Sanders, the year's leading money winner; Wes Ellis Jr., a club pro from West Caldwell, N.J.; former U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt and Roy Floyd.
