QUESTION: What do you think of the UPEI Hockey Panthers?

1. Lynn Smallman, Frosh Arts. They start off well, but they lack stamina. Hopefully, they will be able to play three periods in the future and do as well as the soccer team has done.

3. Morgan Currie, Frosh, Business. They haven't quite got it together yet, but when they do they are going to wipe everyone else out.

2. Devin Kennedy, Frosh Business. They have the talent but there are too many individual efforts. They lack team unity.

4. Ruth Palmer, Soph, Education, I think that the Panthers definitely have the talent and the ability to be a driving force in the McAdam division if they can only maintain their stamina during the final period.

THE LOST SALT GIFT OF BLOOD, the latest original production by the Mulgrave Road Co-op Theatre Company, will be presented on Sunday, November 7th at the Dr. Steel Recital Hall, UPEI at 8:00 pm. It is presented by the Island Community Theatre in association with the UPEI Department of English and the UPEI Theatre Society. THE LOST SALT GIFT OF BLOOD is based on the writings of Allistair MacLeod of Inverness County, whose collection of short stories of the same title has won international acclaim for its vivid and moving portrayal of life in Cape Breton.

The Mulgrave Road Co-op Theatre Company production is the first to dramatize Mr. MacLeod's work, which has been described as "overflowing with the energies of family life..." moving, powerful and beautifully crafted..."

THE LOST SALT GIFT OF BLOOD features John Dartt, Nicola Lipman, Robbie O'Neill and Carol Sinclair, with Ron MacEachern playing fiddle and guitar music he has created especially for the play.

The Director is Hans Boggild. Designer is J.P. Camus.

This production is on tour of the Maritimes October 14th through November 16th, and is supported by The Canada Council, The Nova Scotia Department of Culture, Recreation and Fitness, The Du Maurier Council for the Performing Arts, and the people of Guysborough

County. Tickets, on sale at the UPEI Bookstore, are $6.00 for adults, and $4.00 for Students and Senior Citizens.
