PARTIES using the Telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter, with store and warehouse adjoining. Also, dwelling house and grounds, Building Plots in sizes to suit purchasers. Further information can be had by applying to: D. O'G. GAUL, 170 Fifth Avenue, New York, U. S. A. ju27-1-dy 4w 1 w

3rd. It is possible to talk as clearly when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you speak loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation as entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
