In the grand aggregate, Lieut. Blair took the first prize of $25, D. R. A. medal and badge, with 440 points.

President McKinley's Movements.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 30.—While President McKinley very much desires to pay more than a brief visit to his old home in Canton, he finds the duties of his office are such that he will be obliged to cut his visit there to a mere call. The president will spend a couple of days in Camp Wikoff, to correctly inform himself as to the conditions there.

FRANCE IN AN UPROAR

Sensational Development in Dreyfus Affair.

LIEUT.-COLONEL HENRY, HAS COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Was Arrested for Tendering Forged Evidence.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

PARIS, Sept. 1.—Colonel Henry, who was arrested yesterday, in connection with the reopening of the Dreyfus affair, has committed suicide.

The news has produced a great sensation in Paris.

Closely following this startling piece of intelligence was the announcement that General Lemouton de Boisdeffre, chief of the general staff of the French army, has tendered his resignation to the Government.

All France is deeply agitated and intense expectancy prevails.

In a letter De Boisdeffre explains that he resigns owing to his misplaced confidence in Lieut.-Colonel Henry, which led him to present as genuine what was forged evidence.

M. Cavaignac, Minister of War, in reply, asked General De Boisdeffre to remain to see justice rendered in the matter.

General De Boisdeffre thanked M. Cavaignac for proof of his esteem, but persisted in his resignation.

He will be replaced by General Renourd the Director of the Military College.

Colonel Henry, who committed suicide after being arrested, was attached to the War Department when Dreyfus was convicted; and he was one of the prominent witnesses who testified unfavorably to M. Zola during the latter's sensational trial on the charge of libelling military officials.

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

A Chinese Official Complains Because England Has Not Before Assisted Russia.

PEKIN, Aug. 31.—A high member of the Tsung-Li-Yamen, who is a British sympathizer, complained in the course of a recent interview that Great Britain's assurances of support against Russian aggression were belated. "Why," said this functionary, "withhold such a declaration until Russia had secured Port Arthur and France obtained considerable concessions in the south? The disintegration of the empire has begun, and today the necessity for strong action is less urgent than when Russia first obtained a foothold."

He admitted that China has broken her promises to England, but this, he argued, was because Russian pressure was too strong to be resisted. He complained of British ignorance of Russia's line of action, and asked: "Why does not England approach Russia directly with a declaration that Russia's interference in China will be regarded as a casus belli? It is useless to punish helpless China and to participate in the disintegration of the Empire. The Tsung-Li-Yamen prefers that British influence should be paramount; but it is unable to do anything unless England helps with sword in hand."

The Czar's Peace Message.

MADRID, Aug. 31.—The Imparcial yesterday, referring to the Czar's peace message, expresses the belief that his majesty's pronouncement can hardly come from a mere dreamer. It adds: Reflection convinces us that it was issued only after consultation with President Faure and Emperor William, and it foreshadows a period of great diplomatic activity. In conclusion the Imparcial says: "We urge Spain to pay close attention to the matter, as assuredly Spain is not the power least interested in it."

The Liberal is of the opinion that the Czar's object was to avert a "threatening rupture of views which prevail," adding: "The work of the Hispano-American commission in Paris is hardly worthy of mention in comparison with the proposed conference, which ought to be attended by the United States as well as Europe, for, should war break out and extend from the Mediterranean to the China Sea, Spain must awake in order to preserve the little she has managed to save from the ruin."

ROYAL COMMISSION

Suggested to Unravel the Turner Dismissal.

DENIAL FROM MR. McINNIS.

He Dares the Late Premier to Lift the Pledge of Secrecy Imposed Upon Him.

ON

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 30.—With reference to recent political incidents, the Colonist says: "In the interests of good government it is desirable that there should be the fullest possible investigation into the facts connected with the dismissal of the Turner Ministry. At present there are grave contradictions, and serious charges have been made on both sides. A royal commission will afford the only means of arriving at the whole history of the transaction, and, we therefore suggest that representations should at once be made at Ottawa on the subject and a commission be demanded. The object in having such a commission would be to reach an accurate history of the case, for an important principle is at stake."

The dismissal of the Turner Government continues to be the main subject dealt with in the newspapers here and of general conversation. W. W. B. McInnis, M. P., gives the Times this evening a letter denying the insinuation that he sought to be taken into the Turner cabinet. On the contrary, he says, Mr. Turner pestered him with offers. He draws a striking picture of the ex-Premier discouraged with defeat scheming to save himself from being ousted, accuses him of trachery to his colleagues and dares him to lift the pledge of secrecy imposed by him and say the exact condition he (Mr. Turner) was willing to agree to.

HALIFAX HORSE WINS.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER]

BANGOR, Sept. 1.—The Halifax horse Amerigue won again yesterday a $200 purse.

With Klondike Gold.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 31.—The steamer Rosnoke arrived here yesterday from St. Michael's with four hundred and fifty passengers and gold dust which a conservative estimate places at $1,100,000. The bulk of it is the property of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Northwest Trading and Transportation Co. The amount consigned to the bank is $60,000. A majority of the passengers were men who went to Dawson City in last year's rush. They have no gold, but lots of experience. The fortunate passengers numbered about 75. Of these probably twenty five had over $10,000 each. The amounts held by the remaining fifty range from $100 to $50,000. The following is a list of the richest ones and the amounts they have brought back: N. W. Jenkins, $53,000; Theo Anderson, $50,000; Geo Carmack, $35,000; Stick Jim, $35,000; Tagish Charley, $35,000; Ike Powers, $15,000; H. Doane, $15,000; F. Renaud, $15,000. These men were among the first who went to the Klondike. Geo Carmack was the discoverer of the Klondike. He located the first claim on Bonanza creek.

THE CZAR'S PLAN APPROVED.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—John Morley, liberal member of parliament, former chief secretary for Ireland, Sir John Lubbeck, the distinguished scientist and liberal unionist member of parliament for London, and many other men of position in the political and scientific world, have expressed their approval of the czar's plan.

The total loss in American army and navy in the recent war is reported to be 23 officers and 236 men killed and 87 officers and 1,406 men wounded, an aggregate of 1,752. In the Civil War the Union army alone lost 4,142 officers and 62,916 men killed, and in addition 43,012 died from wounds. The mortality from disease is likely to be very heavy, and no reliable estimate can yet be made.

ON THE SQUARE.

SIR.—It is a very pleasant sight, these fine summer mornings and evenings, to see the cows (and occasionally bulls) peacefully grazing on the rich pasture land known as Rochford Square. Sometime ago, I intimated, through your columns, the advisability of placing a few seats under some of the trees of the square but now that it has been turned into a pound I cheerfully withdraw the suggestion. I could not understand, at first why bicycle riding should have been forbidden and that it should be necessary to employ a policeman in plain clothes to enforce it. But I see it all now. There would be a danger of running into the cows using the paths. Bicycle riders, please remember that cows and policemen have the right-of-way on Rochford Square until further notice.

CITIZEN.

RUM'S DOINGS AT CARDIGAN.

SIR.—As a community we islanders are a self-satisfied lot and console ourselves with the belief that we are the most moral, law-abiding, peaceful people on earth. But if the criminal records of our courts were carefully compared with those of larger places complacent people would be surprised at the ugliness of our statistics. In the district from which I hail there has been a carnival of small crimes, which if allowed to go on must culminate in some dreadful disaster. Shops are broken into and goods removed, stables robbed of harness, horses, cattle, etc., sheep stolen from various pastures, dairies robbed. These were mostly small crimes. No resident of King's County is a better man than Alexander Alley, of Cardigan Mills. Yet this splendid man has been the victim, for years, of the most malignant unprovoked persecution, believed to originate from the rum sellers. His mill gear has time after time been mutilated or stolen, and farm property carried off. But these depredations appear to have been too feeble and slow to satisfy the "gang." So a wholesale job was planned which, if entirely successful, would have wiped Mr. Alley and his whole family from this earth. His valuable mill property was burned down and his residence saturated with kerosene oil and also fired but discovered in time to save it and the lives of the inmates. Of course Mr. Alley is a firm supporter of the temperance cause, and the rum always takes the wrong way to carry its point.
