LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

See Beer Bros' March bargains. The STANLEY left Georgetown this morning. No Band at the Rink to night. I. O. G. F.—St. Lawrence Lodge to night. Second degree.

Social.—Don't forget the Sons of Temperance social this evening. REV. MRS. BULMAN'S lecture in St. James' Hall on Tuesday morning.

CITY.—Regular monthly meeting of the City Council this evening at eight o'clock. RESERVE tonight for the Mission Band concert in Zion Church. Admission 10c.

THE FOREIGN MAIL arrived in Charlottetown about half-past three this afternoon.

FOR EXERCISE.—A branch of the Murphy Gold cure institute has been opened at St. John.

NOTICE.—The funeral of the late Edmund Waller will take place from Westmouth Street to-morrow (Tuesday) at 2 p. m., by train to Sherwood Cemetery.

ALLIANCE MEETING.—The King's Co. Temperance Alliance will meet at Dundas, on the 28th of February, adjourned on that day to meet again at Montague Bridge, on March 14th.

DIPHTHERIA.—By order of the City Health Officer houses wherein diphtheria exists are to be placarded. The placards will bear the inscription in large letters, "Diphtheria—No admittance."

SEPTUAGENARY.—The Scott Act appeal case of McLeod vs. Heers came up for argument before the Chief Justice today. Judgment was reserved. W. S. Stewart for appellant; Attorney-General for respondent.

THEATRICAL.—McLeod and Melville's "Will O' the Wisp" Company play at the Masonic Temple Opera House on Saturday and Monday evenings next, March 17th and 18th. The Company is highly spoken of by the press.

IN THE ICE.—A horse owned by a man named Ferguson broke through the ice near the landing at Steam Navigation Company's Wharf about three o'clock this morning, and it was not until assistance was procured from the Hotel Davies that the animal was rescued.

THEOLOGICAL AND THE BICYCLE.—A short time ago an admirer of the Columbia bicycle wrote to the Paper Manufacturing Co. as follows: "Calling your bicycle the 'Columbia' was a mistake. If you had named it in honor of its maker, it would have settled in the affirmative and forever the much mooted question concerning the infallibility of the Pope."

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon the owner of a collared dog was fined $1 and costs, and the dog was ordered to be removed from the city and kept removed. A summons for neglecting to level the snow on the sidewalk was dismissed, the defendant testifying that they were not the owners or occupiers of the premises in front of which the snow lay.

STODDARD'S AND THE MAGIC CITY.—Stoddard's Part III and Magic City Part VI are now ready for distribution. We have received Part I. and Part II. of the Magic City, and can supply each Part from L. to VI. Both Stoddard's and the Magic City can be obtained either at the EXAMINER Office or at R. H. Mason's news stand.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—The Benevolent Irish Society and the Ancient Order of Hibernians will celebrate the festival of Ireland's Patron Saint in the usual way this year. In the forenoon both Societies will form in procession and march to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where High Mass will be celebrated and a sermon appropriate to the occasion preached by Rev. A. Macaulay. After Mass the procession will reform and parade the principal streets. In the evening the beautiful Irish drama, "Robert Emmet," will be presented at the Lyceum by the Charlotte Dramatic Club. This drama has been in rehearsal for some time, and a splendid performance is assured. There will also be the usual celebrations at Summerside, Souris, Bonaventure and other places. A special train will leave here for Emerald on Saturday afternoon and will return to Charlottetown same night.

BEVOLUTIONARY IRISH SOCIETY.—At the annual meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society, held on Saturday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Patron—James Reddin (re-elected). President—Peter McCourt (re-elected). 1st Vice-President—Thomas E. Flynn. Secretary—

2nd Vice-President—P. H. Trainor. Treasurer—James Egan (re-elected). Sergeant-at-Arms—John Bolger (re-elected). Committee of Charity—Patrick McCarty (re-elected), Jas. McGee, Edward Blackburn, Stephen Toal, Thomas Hughes.

Janitor—Edward Blackburn. The various reports showed the Society to be in a good financial condition. The night of meeting has been changed from the 10th of the month to the second Thursday of each month.

VERY UNWISE. It would be very unwise for us to draw attention to the tests by which to judge Black Dress materials, unless we were sure our own goods would stand the severest tests. But we know from experience, and customers continually remind us of the fact by their complimentary remarks that our goods are the best obtainable and our prices the lowest.

THEREFORE we again remind you of the Weight, Width, Fineness, Finish, Color and Low Price of our goods. Special value at BEER BROS. BUT if it is not Black Goods you wish for at present, we want to remind you of the wonderful line of Colored and Fancy Goods we have been selling at 49c. a yard, and of which we still have a few ends remaining.

No greater sacrifice has been made by us this year, but we want and must have dozens of empty shelves to hold the large stock of Spring Goods now being selected by members of the firm in London and New York.

BEER BROS. Weather Bulletin. Toronto, March 12, 10 a. m. Westerly wind, fine, stationary or a little lower temperature.

RACES ON THE ICE.

The races on the ice on Saturday afternoon last were largely attended, and the proceedings were orderly and well conducted throughout. The course was straightaway, from a point off Lewis' farm. The ice was in fair condition. The programme consisted of a 2.50 class and a green race. Many of the heats were closely contested. Below are the summaries:—

The judges were: A. N. Large (starter), L. J. Ostrander, H. McLeod. Patrol Judge, D. McMillan.

The prize money was promptly paid over at the conclusion of the races.

PERSONAL. Hon. J. W. R. Charles, Billefroid, was at the Hotel Davies on Saturday and left for home this morning.

Mr. M. E. Maloney, of Quebec, one of the best-known commercial travellers on this circuit, is here on a business trip. He is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Professor Robertson crossed to Picton to-day on return to Ontario. On the way he will deliver two addresses in New Brunswick.

The fellow-boarders of Mr. William Welch, M.P., at the Hotel Davies, presented that gentleman with an elegant overshoes pipe on the eve of his departure for Ottawa.

The Ottawa Citizen reports that Lieutenant-General Howan has appointed as his private secretary Mr. Daron, of the patents branch of the Department of Agriculture.

Senators Macdonald and Ferguson, and Messrs. Davie, McLean, Welsh, A. G. Macdonald and Yeo, M. P.'s, were amongst the passengers in the Stanley from Georgetown to-day. All except Senator Macdonald went down to Georgetown last evening by special train. They are en route to Ottawa to be present at the opening of Parliament on Thursday next.

Mr. BELMAS, of the Gulars, will lecture in St. James' Hall to-morrow evening, on the "Idylls of Tennyson," in the place of Mr. Bartlett.

High grade flour.—If the best is none too good for you, it's worth your while to get Ogilvie's Hungarian Patent, Ogilvie's Strong Bakers, or Five Roses. Milled from the best Manitoba wheat. For sale by Santerson & Co.

Y. W. C. T. U.—Everyone should reserve Thursday evening, March 15th, for the Demorest silver medal contest to be held in the hall of Upper Prince Street School. This will be the second contest and we guarantee that all interested in temperance work will have an enjoyable as well as profitable evening's entertainment. The names of contestants will appear later. Admission only 10 cents. mar 12 '94

TO-DAY the contest for the World's Chess Championship opens in New York City. Steinitz and Lasker, the famous experts, will play a series of ten games for a stake of $2,250 a side. Not less than three or more than four games are to be played weekly until the result is decided. It is further agreed that draws are not to count.

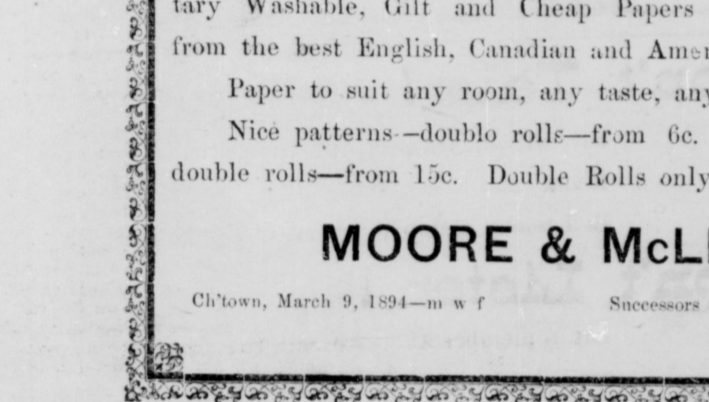

The public have decided that the STAR TAILOR is beyond the reach of competition in the many bargains he is showing at present. We cannot conveniently sit down just now to give full particulars, but our order book reveals the secret. We certainly do give what we advertise, and you will miss it if you fail to take advantage of the present prices. Our Spring Wear are very nice. Indeed they are of the latest shades and patterns. It would do you good to see them, even if you failed to buy, but don't fail to see them anyway.

One Price Clothing and one quality—the best. You find both at the Great Clothing Store, No. 132 Queen Street.

Oneness is not the only peculiarity of our prices either; the striking feature is their lowness, and just now they're down with a large D. It's like looking for colder weather when the weather has struck 40 degrees below, to expect lower figures for clothing than we're offering this week. Our clothing isn't down, though, if prices are. Our Spring Suits are models of style, make-up, fit and finish, and are unexcelled for durability. These are the Excelsior Spring Suits. Don't wait when we are selling such beautiful Suits for a few dollars
