

MR. AND MRS. ALVIN BRYANT

Married In Summerside Will Reside In Ottawa

Trinity United Church, Summerside, was the setting for a beautiful wedding on Saturday, August 23, at 2 p.m. when Aletha Mae Wilzabeth Richardson, daughter of Mrs. Lloyd Jamieson, Slemon Park, became the bride of Alvin Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bryant, Summerside. Rev. L.M. Murray officiated.

The church was attractively decorated for the occasion with baskets of gladioli and mixed summer flowers. Mrs. Eric Sheen was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Ferrence Einerson as she sang "Because" during the signing of the register. The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, was lovely in her wedding gown of white net over taffeta, ballerina length. The gown featured a very full skirt, with slim fitted bodice and long tapering sleeves coming to points over the hands. Her veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearl trim, and she carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses. Miss Barbara Lutes, as bridesmaid, was gowned in blue with

ELLEN'S DIARY

The Heart Looks Past The Passing Of Seasons

A robin in the baring poplar by the gateway looked down silently this morning on the stand of dahlias we had wrapped closely last night lest they should suffer from a frost in the coolness obtaining then down by this old millstream in the valley. We could fancy he shivered in the chill of the new day.

"There was no frost," James beside us at the bedroom window commented "but", he nodded "almost I'd say."

The sun was commencing to send forth first beams then, brightening the new green of the after-matted haylands, the gold of the harvest-fields, the dun of the now fading pastures. How heavy the dew was, through which the cows in the near meadow tracked as they eased along in the direction of the stable.

"Well, Ellen," James smiled, turning away to the stars "this fiddling here won't pay the rent... or get us away to our threshing!"

That was the harvest-interest of today; the threshing, and the subsequent baling of straw at "the other farm" beyond Rob's. It was a convenient day for such work with lads of helpers home from classes—Mack to drive a tractor and trailer at the gathering of stooks in the field, Gage to assist at the loading—and today to make it as he said "like old times" for James, a team and grain-wagon also fitted nicely into the prevailing harvest-scene.

"You should come to the heights of the valley opposite ours and from there look out at the fields in stook over the countryside," Jamie eldest grandson said today. "I think I never saw a prettier sight, nor all in a better harvest" he smiled.

A catchy week for the harvesting, this has been, but still it saw nice progress made. We saw a goldfinch gather seeds in the flower-border today quite out of place in the coolness obtaining. And winging swiftly above, an excruciating dragonfly darted by. And we were reminded of the seasons' present change.

And reflecting with a sigh on summer's passing, it came to mind that inwardly the heart acknowledges no change of season. Mindful of a pleasant past, it looks on eagerly to the future, ever to the hidden loveliness of the day to come. As one expresses it:

"The heart looks past the passing of the seasons. Undone, the yellow leaf, the crystal frost, Delix and corolla and scarlet seedling Scatter upon the wind and so are lost."

MR. AND MRS. LYMAN W. BAKER

Kingsboro Is Setting For A Lovely Wedding

East Point Baptist Church, Kingsboro, was the scene of a very pretty summer wedding, Thursday, August 4th, at 3 o'clock when Anita Lydia Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rose, East Baltic became the bride of Lyman Wendell Baker, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Baker of Lakeville.

The church was attractively decorated with baskets and vases of summer flowers and potted plants while the guest pews were marked with white doilies and pansies.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank Molins. The wedding music was in charge of Mrs. Clinton Stewart, who also accompanied the soloist, Miss Sandra MacGregor as she sang "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked very lovely in a floor length dress of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin with a tight fitted bodice and full bouffant skirt which was accentuated with rows of lace in front and back. The lace jacket had a Peter Pan Collar studded with simulated pearls and long sleeves coming to a point over the hand.

Her simulated pearl-trimmed head dress was caught in an embroidered silk illusion finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses with white satin bows. The bride was attended by her sister, Mavis acting as bridesmaid. She wore ballerina length gown of ice blue nylon net over taffeta with matching headress and elbow length gloves. She carried a cascade of white roses.

The best man was Robert Baker, brother of the groom. Ushering the guests was the bride's brother, Alvin Rose, and Robert Rose friend of the groom.

The bride's mother was attired in pink nylon over figured taffeta with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother chose a grey suit of rayon flannel with pink accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 40 guests at the home of the bride. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom, flanked by tall glass candelabra, also a decorated bride's cake.

The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Robert Baker. For travelling the bride wore a pink linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return from the honeymoon through the Maritimes Mr. and Mrs. Baker will reside in Lakeville, where Mr. Baker owns and operates a lumber and feed mill.

Prior to the wedding the bride-to-be was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home in East Baltic. The bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor by her friend, Miss Joan Dixon.

A well laden basket was carried in and the gifts were opened by Miss Eileen Robertson and Miss Norma Garrett.

The accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Robert Rose. Anita in her usual pleasing manner, thanked one and all for their many useful gifts, after which all joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow".

Mrs. Keith Kennedy Introduces Study Book

The Mary Miller Auxiliary of the W.M.S. of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, met in the West Parlor, Heartz Memorial Hall, on Monday evening, September 8th.

Mrs. Keith Kennedy led the devotional period, also the study group. She was assisted by Miss Isabel Rogerson, Mrs. D.W. Matheson, and Mrs. Stanley Murray. The opening hymn was "We Give Thee But Thine Own". Mrs. Matheson read the Scripture lesson from Deuteronomy 8: 11-20. Mrs. Murray led in prayer. The hymn "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life" was sung and the offering was received and dedicated.

Mrs. Kennedy introduced the new Study Book, "Christian Concerns of North American Neighbors". Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Matheson, Miss Rogerson and Mrs. Kennedy outlined briefly the characteristics of the neighboring countries of North America: Alaska, Canada, United States, Mexico Hawaii and the Caribbean Islands.

They pointed out that although the new world is predominantly Christian there is need of much missionary work. Some of the concerns of the North American neighbors are: poor health conditions in the West Indies, education, backward agricultural methods, illiteracy, discrimination against minority groups, need for church facilities adequate for growing nations.

The mission of the Church knows neither geography nor artificial boundaries. The church knows each other as God's children.

The president, Mrs. Stanley Thompson, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. G.A. Cairns, the secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Reports of various committees were heard. Message was received from Mrs. Howard Christie, expressing her appreciation of a farewell gift from the auxiliary. Plans were made to attend the missionary rally at Mt. Stewart. There was some discussion about the thank-offering service which is to be held early in October.

The meeting closed with the Missal benediction, after which the members enjoyed a social hour.
