LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—Last evening the Young People's Association of Zion Church held their first literary entertainment. The following programme was well rendered:

HAMILTON, April 20, 1892

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurfy affliction of the scalp. They told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snowflakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when I had the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

J. S. GRAHAM, Mgr. Hamilton Branch Kemp, Jones & Peck, Manufacturers of Cider, Toronto.

TEMPERANCE.—The public temperance meeting in Victoria Division Room last evening passed off very pleasantly. Mr. Sabine occupied the chair. Excellent addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Matthews, Messrs. Caruthers, Harris and McLeis. A beautiful solo, "The song that reached my heart," was sung by Miss Laphore, and a temperance song by Mr. John Ross. Temperance readings and recitations were given by Miss Gressman, Messrs. Lawson, Small, Huntly, Simpson, and Buchanan. Mrs. Matheson, of the W. C. T. U., said the women of Canada were not anxious to become members of Parliament, but all they asked was to have a vote; and when that privilege was granted, the parliament of Canada, both local and Dominion, would go through a much-needed cleansing process. Altogether, the meeting was one of interest. Six persons signed the pledge.

The Apothecaries Hall is not run in the interest of any physician, directly or indirectly. You are not charged 25 or 30 per cent extra on prescriptions for the doctors' benefit. Therefore, bring them to me and save money. All prescriptions and family recipes shall receive my personal attention. Your obedient servant, GEORGE E. HUGHES, Apothecaries Hall, DesBrisay's Corner, Queen St., Ch'town.
