VISITING WARSHIPS WARMLY WELCOMED YESTERDAY
The Canadian Naval ensign and the Stars and Stripes, often flown together in conflict are seen here waving peacefully in the breeze as the U.S.S. Cross (right) berthed alongside H.M.C.S. Buckingham (left) at the Railway wharf yesterday afternoon. Of course one of the most important things to a sailor when he gets to port is his liberty leave and an anxious group of American sailors are seen waiting in line for that slip of paper which gives them freedom ashore for a few hours.
The U.S.S. Cross is under the command of Lt. Commander J. J. Jackson, Jr. The U.S.S. Johnny Hutchins is commanded by Lt. Commander Simonet, and H.M.C.S. Buckingham by Lt. Commander Roberts.
Shortly after three o'clock the Captains and a number of officers of the three ships made courtesy calls on His Honour Lieutenant Governor Prowse, Premier Matheson and His Worship Mayor Stewart. Return calls were made to the ships later in the afternoon. The officers were greeted by Lt. Commander J. N. Kenny, officer commanding H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte, who also accompanied them on their calls.
At 5:30 last evening the officers of the visiting warships were entertained at a cocktail party aboard H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte and later at a formal dance at Government House.
The men of the ships were entertained at the local messes and many joined in the Centennial Merriment at the Rollaway and open air dance on the Market Square. The ships' crews will participate in several sporting events during the weekend including the aquatic sports and several ball games which have been arranged with local ball clubs.

W. I. Executive Holds Meeting

Enjoyable Dance Held At Government House

The executive meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Rest Rooms on August 2nd with nine members present.
Mrs. McGowan, president, presided. The meeting opened with recitation of the Creed in unison, followed by the minutes of the last meeting which were read by the secretary Mrs. R. L. Burge.
Some of the resolutions passed at the annual convention were dealt with. It was decided to help the Cerebral Palsy Society financially and make it one of the Institute's projects.
The members of the executive were asked to help with the handicraft exhibits at the Provincial Exhibition.
The following conveners were appointed for the next two years:
Agriculture: Mrs. Charles Jones, Pownall.
Citizenship: Mrs. Anthony Gaudet, St. Nicholas.
Health and Welfare: Mrs. Philip Matheson, Oyster Bed Bridge.
Home Economics: Mrs. Stewart McGregor, East Baltic.
Art and Literature: Mrs. L. G. Ramsay, Indian River.
Publicity Director: Mrs. W. E. Aylward, Morell.
Mrs. Fred Gates was appointed editor of the Institute News. Mrs. Gates entertained the members of the executive at her home where a delicious picnic lunch was served.
After lunch the supervisor Miss Robin, who is leaving to go to England to further her studies, was presented with a camera and case by the past executive.
All wished Mary a happy voyage and expressed the hope that in the future she would return to the Island as supervisor.

Funeral of Dr. MacOdrum
OTTAWA (CP) — Funeral services were held Friday in St. Andrews Presbyterian church for Dr. M. M. MacOdrum, president of Carleton College, who died suddenly Monday on a Cavendish, P.E.I., beach. Burial will be conducted by Rev. A. Ian Burnett, minister of St. Andrews, assisted by Rev. E. G. B. Foote, RCN, Protestant chaplain of the fleet.
The church was filled with scores of members of Carleton's faculty and student body, and representatives of the federal, provincial and municipal governments. Burial will be at Brockville, Ont.

RECOVER LOOT
AJAX, Ont. (CP)—Police said two small boxes containing stamps and stamped envelopes, part of the $28,000 loot of last month's post office robbery here, were found near a roadside Thursday by two small children. Officers said the boxes probably were dropped while the thieves were dividing $23,000 cash they took by ripping off the front of the safe during a night-time break-in at the isolated post office building.

INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC
The Centennial Year FLOATS will be on parade in Charlottetown on Monday, August 8, 1955. Parade will move off from Victoria Park Roadway at 2:00 p.m. Floats will assemble here from 1:00 p.m. Of necessity the Park Roadway will be closed to the public from 12:00 noon.
The route to be travelled will be as follows: Victoria Park Roadway to Rochford Street—in front of Charlottetown Hospital to Water Street, Water Street to Queen—past Reviewing Stand at Civic Centre. Queen to Kent Street, Kent to Weymouth, Weymouth to Euston Street, Euston to Ambrose Street, Ambrose to McGill Avenue past Sanatorium, McGill to North River Road, North River Road to Park Roadway. END OF PARADE.
As many of the floats are very wide and require space, especially at turns, we are respectfully requesting the public to co-operate with us by keeping all cars off this parade route, parked or in motion. It will be of great assistance to us, to the pedestrians and to the floats personnel. Cars may be parked on adjoining streets. We thank you all in anticipation of your cooperation in this regard.

OPENS BEAUTY SHOP
Mrs. Eileen (Ings) Woodruff wishes to announce the opening of her new beauty shoppe, "The Debonair", next to the Revere Hotel, on Kent St. Mrs. Woodruff is installing a new type of equipment and the most modern and comfortable furniture. Her many friends and former customers will be very glad to learn of her return to Charlottetown where several years ago she owned and operated Eileen's Beauty Shoppe on Grafton Street. For the past five years she has operated in Ontario and has studied latest style creations in cold wave and in Beauty culture. It is expected the Shoppe will be open Aug. 15th. Watch your local papers for the opening advertisement.

RETIRES
Dunstan's University where the National President, the Provincial executive and the delegates from the 38 sub-divisions in the Province will be welcomed by Rt. Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, Rector of the University, and Mrs. MacDonald before settling down to hear reports of the year's work to be given by Provincial Officers and Conveners. A buffet luncheon will be served to all in attendance at the convention in the College dining room at noon. An address by Rev. George MacCormac, Provincial Director of the C.W.L., will be a feature of the afternoon session after which the Convention will be divided into groups for discussion of League work. Pontifical benediction will be celebrated by His Excellency Bishop MacEachern in the college chapel at 5 p.m. and will be followed by the Convention banquet at 6:30 p.m.
