KENSINGTON - Three act comedy "The Campbells Are Coming" to be presented by Hope River Players in King George Hall, Wednesday, June 20th, 8.00 P. M. Full of laughs. Don't miss it. Sponsored by Junior Chamber of Commerce. Admission 50 cents.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS - Mrs. Hillard Arthur, Summerside received the sad news on Saturday morning of the sudden passing of her aunt, Mrs. Everett Freeman, Massachusetts. Mrs. Freeman, the former Carrie Tombs of North Wiltshire visited her native province in 1949.

NEAR ACCIDENT - What might have been another serious accident occurred at Beaton's Bridge near the entrance to Coleman Corner on Friday evening when a Mercury car with an Ontario licence plate barely missed going over the bridge, stopping just over the two front wheels of the car over the edge. This is the same place where a light truck went through the rails and into the water on Thursday, June 14th. The car was hauled out without damage and proceeded under its own power.

NAUGLER-PETERS - Trinity Chapel, R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside was the setting for the ceremony on Friday evening which united Inez Dorothy, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peters, Summerside in the bonds of matrimony with Luc. Vernon Alonzo Naugler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Naugler, Bridgewater, N. S. Padre D. H. Royer officiated at the double ring ceremony and F/O Robertson was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of brocaded satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, which had covered buttons to the waist in the back and lily-pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of beaded pearls and her bouquet was of Better Time roses. Mrs. Laurie Peters, her sister's only attendant, was very attractive in a floor-length dress of pink brocaded nylon net with which she wore a matching picture hat and carried yellow roses. Little Miss Sheila Stewart, niece of the bride, was winsome in yellow net over taffeta and on her head, a wreath of yellow daisies. The charming flower girl carried a basket of red roses. Lac. Alan Cottingham was groomsmen while Lac. Byron Freeman and Lac. Edward Auger ushered the guests.

A reception was held for 75 guests at Birch Hill Lodge where the mother of the bride received with the happy couple in an afternoon dress of turquoise crepe and a corsage of red roses. Lac. Auger proposed the toast to the radiant bride, to which the group fittingly responded and Flight Sergeant MacKenzie proposed a toast to the groom. Toasts to the bridesmaid and flower girl were also proposed by Lac. Cottingham.

For travelling to parts of Nova Scotia, the bride chose a pink gabardine suit with navy accessories. Out-of-town guests included sisters of the bride, Mrs. Dannie Stewart and Mrs. Jack Stewart, Jr. of Reserve Mines, Nova Scotia as well as the latter's children, Sheila and Jackie. Also Mrs. John Stewart, Sr. Reserve Mines, Mrs. Elizabeth Cameron, Glace Bay, N. S., Mr. Thomas Harris and Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis and daughter, Doreen of O'Leary, P.E.I. The young couple will reside in Summerside as the groom is a member of R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside and they are wished an abundance of happiness by their many friends.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Joseph Ladner and family upon the death of Mrs. Ladner which occurred in the Prince County Hospital on May 22nd. Mrs. Ladner had been in ill health for several months but death came as a great shock to the community sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved.

This community was shocked when they learned of the death of Mr. Preston Ellis who passed away suddenly at his home in Summerside on Tuesday afternoon May 22nd. Mr. Ellis resided in this vicinity until a few years ago when he and his wife and family moved to Summerside where they made their home. Mr. Ellis was well known in this vicinity where he was always willing to lend a helping hand in time of need. Sincere sympathy is extended to his widow and family in their sad bereavement.

A large number of friends assembled at the Northam School on Tuesday evening, May 15th to honour Miss Freda McLeod who was leaving this community. Miss McLeod was presented with a large sum of money. Mrs. Charles McKay read the address while Mrs. Gradyon Grigg presented Miss McLeod with a well filled purse. Miss McLeod thanked all her many friends for remembering her, after which all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow". The evening was spent in games and music. Lunch was served by the ladies.

A meeting of the Kinette Club of Summerside was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Harry Dickie on Friday evening. Lunch hostesses were Mrs. G. M. Mulholland, Mrs. J. A. Gallant and Mrs. J. Elmer Murphy. The treasurer, Mrs. Norman Hogg gave a very satisfactory report regarding the success of the Kinette booths operated at the recent Kinsmen Carnival. A very satisfactory net profit was realized which will help greatly towards paying for the playground equipment which the club is donating to the new recreation area. The meeting heard that a joint Kinsmen-Kinette committee had selected the equipment which will be purchased this year and will be ordered shortly. The sum of $500 has been set aside for this purpose.

Plans were discussed and laid for Peanut Day which will be held on July 21st. Originally a Kinsmen project this has been turned over to the Kinette club. Mr. Elmer Offer was present at the meeting and gave his assistance in drawing up the plans. It was decided that the next meeting of the club will be on July 12th at the home of Mrs. Roy Johnston.

Nicholson-Arthur Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Trinity United Church parsonage, Summerside, by Rev. K. G. Sullivan, on Saturday morning at 7.30 o'clock when Reta Mae, daughter of Mrs. Arthur and the late Mr. James Arthur, Summerside, became the bride of John MacLean Nicholson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John P. Nicholson, Charlottetown, the couple were unattended. The bride chose for her marriage a suit of light grey mist gabardine with yellow straw hat and accessories and a corsage of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in the Maritime Provinces and on return will reside in Summerside.

Funeral Of Mr. A. R. Brennan Yesterday

Impressive and very largely attended funeral services for the late Arthur R. Brennan, were held yesterday afternoon at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside at three o'clock and were conducted by Ven. Archdeacon G. R. Harrison. It was one of the largest funerals held in Summerside over a long period of time and the high esteem in which the deceased was held was evident as people from all walks of life came to pay a final silent tribute to a friend and fellow citizen for he was indeed a friend to all. Members of the various Masonic Lodges in which he was a high ranking member led the funeral cortege from the home to the church and thence to the People's Cemetery where the Masonic Services were conducted by Past Grand Master Donald Baker. There was a very large attendance of the members of the Canadian Legion B. E. S. L. and the Legion committee service was conducted by Comrade Roland Phillipson. Last Post was sounded by Bugler Alban Gallant. The pall bearers were Messrs. Herbert Stright, John Mungall, Bruce Johnston, Donald Baker, Austin Scales, Russell Hunter.
