

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANTLES A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros. JOURNALISTIC CHANGE.—The Charlotte town Herald has reverted to the original proprietor, Mr. James McIsaac, who will conduct it in the future.

MUSIC IN THE GARDENS.—By special arrangement with Horace Hazard, Esq., the Citizens Band will play on Thursday evening of each week until further notice, commencing this evening.

CONVALESCENT.—Lovers of horses in this city will be glad to learn that Mrs. John Richards' greatly injured little mare Kitty is recovering from a severe and dangerous illness. She had laryngitis.

THE RIFLE.—The annual prize meeting of the Provincial Rifle Association will be held on Kensington Range on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 7th and 8th, commencing at 8 o'clock each day.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Elliot, Capt. Brown, left for Boston at ten o'clock last night with a cargo of fish, mainly lobsters, mackerel and eggs. The Elliot will call at Mulgrave and Haverbury en route.

THE TRIP.—The postponed races on Central Drive Park, Hope River, will take place on the 8th August. The programme will include three-minute, three-year-old and green races. Edith, the famous long-tailed and long-maned horse, will be on exhibition.

THE SCOTT ACT CAMPAIGN.—The first shot in the Scott Act campaign was fired yesterday afternoon when a summons was served on Richard Thorne for selling intoxicants on the street, contrary to the provisions of said act. The summons is returnable on Monday.

PICNICS.—The League of the Cross picnic at Red Point yesterday was a success in every respect. The St. James' Church Sabbath School picnic is in progress at Suffolk to-day. There is a large attendance. The weather is fine, and all present are having a good time.

MASSAGE OPERA HOUSE.—Something new for all.—The Eden-ontana Club, the only combination of the kind in the world. Endorsed by press and public, scientists, physicians and clergymen all over the world. Remember the place and date; Massage Opera House, Monday and Tuesday evenings next.

THEY SHOULD BE CAREFUL.—Bicyclists would do well not to get too fast a move on when riding about the city, especially when on the sidewalk. To-day, we are informed, a child narrowly escaped serious injury at the hands of a bicyclist on the sidewalk on Water Street, and yesterday another child was knocked down on the same street by a passing wheelman.

SCOTT ACT FIXES.—Before H. James Palmer, Stipendiary Magistrate for Queen's County, to-day, Stephen Toole, of the Green Road, was convicted of a first conviction of the Canada Temperance Act, and fined $50 and two months' imprisonment. A similar fine was imposed upon John Percy, of Rustico, for a like offence.

GOLD AT NEW GLASGOW.—It is said that New Glasgow men have struck a splendid lead of Gold at Wine Harbor. A few days ago they took out two tubs of quartz from which they got 20 ounces of gold. They say they have a lead uncovered some distance and think they have $50,000 in sight.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, "Jimmy" Hughes failed to respond to a summons for using profane language on the streets, and a warrant for his arrest was ordered to issue. Peter Grant, charged with unlawfully depositing a dead horse on the beach near the old lunatic asylum, was fined $4 or 20 days.

PARVING SERVICE.—The Agricultural Conference at Charlottetown, at which addresses will be delivered by His Excellency the Earl of Aberdeen, Governor General of Canada, Hon. W. D. Hoard and others, will take place at the Provincial Exhibition Building on Friday, 10th of August next, commencing at 2 o'clock, p. m. Admission free.

DOES' GO TO CALIFORNIA.—The following is an extract from a letter just received from a subscriber to The Star, residing in San Diego, California: "Business is in a bad state in this part of our glorious country, and evidently getting worse. If you know of any disinterested, brave-winded man who is anxious to move to 'God's Country,' please do him the favor to advise him in a note to remain where he is. I would gladly be back in St. John myself."

THE REASON WHY.—A note picked up in front of the Post Office last evening reads: "Dear Sir,—The resin I didn't tell when you asked me in front of the spy hole yesterday was because I had a lie on my face and I couldn't tell. If I had a lie on my face and I couldn't tell, I'd have a lie on my face and I couldn't tell, I'd have a lie on my face and I couldn't tell."

THE DAMAGES.—Large bills for damages to railroad property by the strike rioters are now coming into the Chicago City Hall, according to a recent despatch from that city. J. T. Brooks, secretary and president of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad, has presented a bill which aggregates $449,591. The largest item is $401,531 for 721 freight cars destroyed and 42 damaged. The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad presented a bill of $21,347, the largest item being for 14 freight cars destroyed and 58 damaged.

NEW YORK'S FINEST.—During the course of the police investigation now in progress in New York, Captain Duheroy, on cross-examination swore that his salary as policeman for 17 years was $1,200 a year, as sergeant $1,600 for one year, and $8,000 for three years, and as captain he received $2,750, that he paid $18,000 for his house, and cleared the mortgage of $14,000 in two months, and that he had saved 28,000 while policeman. He gave a broker $20,000 to invest, and made $1,200 and kept investing it, and made $22,000 in five months through broker Gustave Tuller. The captain's story was considered "too thin" and he has since been dismissed.

CITY CLERK'S COURAGEOUS ACT

Yesterday morning what might have proved a most unfortunate accident was prevented by the skill and pluck of one of our city clerks. About nine o'clock the funeral of the late Chief Justice left the Indian encampment for the South Shore cemetery. Most, if not all, the adult population of the Indian village were at the funeral. A seven-year-old grandson of the dead chief being left at home, got into a boat and pushed out too far to be able to return. The boat was carried out some distance when the cries of the boy attracted the attention of the Rev. W. Hamlyn, of St. Paul's, who was bathing at Warren Farm Cove. The reverend gentleman ran back to the Indian village in search of a boat, and finding none there, continued his course until he came to Rocky Point wharf. Here he found a heavy row boat, in which he alone, started in pursuit of the boat with the boy. The tide was running out very fast and the wind was blowing in the same direction. The fugitive boat was overwhelmed by Mr. Hamlyn and taken in tow, but to pull two boats against wind and tide was no easy task. After losing ground at first for some time, he succeeded in getting near the western shore, not far from the Blockhouse, and out of the current. The boat was still a long pull before he reached the Indian village. The young boy probably owes his life to the gallant conduct of the clergyman, who is certainly entitled to the highest praise for the energy and pluck displayed by him in the matter.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE. A large and fashionable audience greeted Harry Lindley and his company of players last evening, on the occasion of their third appearance at the Masonic Opera House. The bill of fare consisted of the musical society play in four acts entitled "Queens," and the laughable English comedy "The Weavers." Both were cleverly put upon the boards, and the pleasure and appreciation of the critical audience was indicated by the applause, which was most generous. In "Queens" Miss Flint took the part of the heroine, "The Weavers," and did it justice. She was especially strong in her scene with "Lord Walter Huntington," which character was well sustained by Mr. Chapman. Ethel Lindley as "Little Queen," was charming, and Miss Mattie made an excellent "Florence Fletcher," a matrimonially-inclined young lady—where there was money in it for her. Harry Lindley made the most of "John Henry Wilkins," a vendor of stomach bitters, furnishing considerable amusement. The other characters were all in good hands. During the play little Ethel Lindley rendered a vocal solo very creditably, considering her years, and gave a humorous recitation in response to an epigram. Harry Lindley, as "Simon" in "The Weavers," was irresistibly comical, and the other players were also good. To-night "The Inside Track," a great scenic play, will be presented, and another large audience is expected.
