Double Ring Wedding At Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, On Sat.

In a double ring ceremony at the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, on Saturday, July 17, 1954, Mary Alfred Gillis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gillis, Alberton, was united in marriage to F/O William Phillip Kirwin, son of Mr. Phillip Kirwin and the late Mrs. Kirwin of Ingersoll, Ontario.

The wedding was celebrated by Rev. W. E. Monaghan, Rev. A. L. Sinnott occupied a seat in the sanctuary. The wedding music was played by Mrs. E. E. Larter. During the Mass Mr. Raymond Ahearn sang, "Mother At Your Feet Is Kneeling," "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy," and "Sweet Sacrament Divine," and during the signing of the register, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother."

The bride's floor-length gown, which had a bouffant skirt of nylon net over creamy satin and draped flounce of nylon tulle, featured a strapless bodice of bead-encrusted chantilly lace with buttoned back, long torso, lily pointed shoulder-length veil of nylon net.

The happy young couple left by car for home in Crapaud, B.C. where the groom is stationed with the R.C. A.F. Prior to her marriage the bride taught school on Prince Edward Island and at Rockcliffe, Ont.

Out of the Province guests at the wedding included Miss Anne Kirwin of London, Ont.; Miss Moira Sims of Ottawa, and Mr. Alexander Boyd of Antigonish, N.S.

The groom was attended by Mr. Arthur Boyd of Antigonish, N.S. The ushers were Mr. Nell Gillis, brother of the bride, and Mr. Raymond McIvor.

Mrs. Gillis, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of navy crepe with black and white accessories. Her corsage was better times roses.

Miss Anne Kirwin, sister of the groom, wore a beige suit with black accessories. Her corsage was carnations.

Following the marriage ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served at the Hillside Tourist Home. The bride's table, with its attractive arrangement of cut flowers and white candles in crystal holders, was centered by a three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom.

Rev. W. E. Monaghan, as toastmaster, called upon Rev. A. L. Sinnott who proposed a toast to the bride. On her behalf the groom made response. Mr. Gillis, father of the bride, and Mr. Boyd, the groomsmen, also offered congratulatory remarks. Mr. Peter Deighan of Freetown, great uncle of the bride and now more than eighty years of age, favored the guests with a number of piano selections.

It is of interest to note that Mr. Deighan served for forty years as organist of the Roman Catholic Church at Summerside.

For going away the bride changed to a pink linen suit with black and white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Church Service At West Point

An impressive service was held in the Presbyterian Church at West Point Tuesday evening when Rev. George Killen was inducted as minister of the Alberton and West Point congregations.

Worship was conducted by Rev. J. D. MacKay of Summerside, moderator of Presbytery. He was assisted by Rev. Lawrence Blaikie of Brookfield who read the Scripture, and Rev. E. H. Bean of Kensington who led in prayer. Presbytery was duly constituted by the moderator. The sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Blaikie.

Rev. Mr. MacKay related the steps leading to the call and then conducted the solemn service of induction. He then addressed the newly inducted minister and Rev. Mr. Bean addressed the people.

The music was led by West Point choir accompanied by members of Alberton choir. A duet, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee," was rendered by Mrs. Melvin Ellis and Mrs. Leslie McLean.

Besides the Presbytery delegation conducting the service there were also present Rev. Donald Nicholson of Tyne Valley and Mr. Mauchin of Tyne Valley who is to be ordained next week.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Killen. Following the induction service a reception was held and refreshments served by the ladies of West Point.

Sixty Prince County Ground Observers Given Wings At Summerside Yesterday

Ground Observer Corps Wings were presented on Wednesday evening to 60 volunteers from 6 observations posts in area C2 of which Ivan Vaughan of Summerside is the regional supervisor.

These posts are located at Con-way, Mt. Pleasant, Port Hill, Belmont, Miscouche, and Summerside. The presentation took place in the Ground Instruction School at RCAF Station Summerside, and was preceded by an entertainment program that included movies and a tour through one of the large airforce hangers and an inspection of the interior of one of the large four engine Lancasters, under the guidance of Flying Officers W. Chiverrie, and W. Woods.

The wings were presented by Flying Officer W. E. Whitford, assisted by LAC Allison J. Arsenault, both of No. 70 Ground Observer Corps detachment, Truro. LAC Arsenault is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Timmy Arsenault, of Cedar Street in Summerside.

Those who received their ground observer corps wings on Wednesday evening have participated in an actual exercise in which aircraft were directed to fly over certain areas in order to test the efficiency of the observers, who make their report by telephone to the filter centre at Truro.

The group heard a very interesting talk on recent incidents in which the ground observer corps in various parts of the Maritimes have been directly responsible for the safe arrival of aircraft to their home bases.

This wings presentation was the second such presentation on P. E. I. The first being held at Ellerslie a few weeks ago.
