

Many Anglican Youth Groups Enjoy Life At Camp Kingston

The Anglican Church Centre, Bacon were very gratefully received. The camp broke up on Saturday, July 18th, and the happy campers returned to their various homes.

The Senior Girls Camp was directed by Miss Carrie Thomson also. Approximately 30 Senior Girls attended. The Chaplain for this camp was Rev. D. S. H. Minton, Rector of St. John's Church, Crapaud. He conducted a very interesting study on the Services of Holy Communion, Matins and Evensong. The children made very helpful work books on the lectures which will serve as guides to the services. The campers day started with morning services in St. John's Church and ended with prayers in the evening.

A very large and well organized swimming class was also held at Hampton Beach. The instructor was Miss Kitty Gass, Charlottetown. A large number of the campers were successful in their tests. (Results are given below).

A most interesting handicraft period was enjoyed each day. The instructresses for this were Miss Thomson, and Miss Laurence Mill who was also the Assistant Director of the Camp. The chief craft was that of Basketry and each camper wove a beautiful basket.

A very strenuous sports program was held every evening with the various team captains taking over.

NEW CABIN

This year, with the addition of a new cabin built by the Diocesan Church Society, which housed three units of eight girls each, a leader and a Councillor in Training were in charge of each team of girls. This method proved very successful.

Other activities included a Nature Hike, and a Weiner Roast at Victoria Beach, along with the usual camp activities of Worship, Work, Recreation and Learning.

The camp mother and nurse was Mrs. Eric Lowther of Crapaud. Her duties were varied and were very capably filled.

Camp administrator was Miss Dorothy Gregg from Hantsport, N.S., who was also a very busy person. She took care of all outgoing and in-coming mail, besides a daily grocery order. She also directed a short sing song each day, at which time the campers had an opportunity to learn new camp songs.

Campfires and marshmallow roasts were also enjoyed by all.

LEADERS

The Leaders and C. I. T.'s were: Ida Wedlock, O'Leary; Janet Ings, Cherry Valley; Elizabeth Horne, Charlottetown; Ruby MacInnis, Kensington; Judy Campbell, Alberton; Janet Murphy, Kensington; Ruth Pidgeon, French River. These girls did an excellent job in providing the necessary leadership.

Donations of Ice Cream and Wood, President; Miss Ada Harris, Treasurer, Mrs. H. S. MacPherson, Diocesan G. A. Secretary; and Mrs. W. R. Aitken. The Rural Dean of P. E. I., Rev. W. E. Ingraham and Mrs. Ingraham also visited the camp on several occasions.

The cooking for both camps was done by Mrs. Harry Sudbury, Spring Valley, who prepared excellent meals in a most interesting and pleasant manner.

The leaders and councillors in training at this camp were: Irene Thomson, Sherbrooke; Cheryl Ozen, Summerside; Gall Vincent, St. Eleanor's; Ruby MacInnis, Kensington; Eleanor Champion, Kensington; Lorraine Coulson, Sea View; Norice Weatherby, Charlottetown; Adrienne Webb, O'Leary.

A very impressive service took place outside on the closing of the Junior Camp, when Rev. D. S. H. Minton presented Miss Judy Campbell, Alberton, with a G. A. Ring of Honor, for special service as a Girls Auxiliary Links for a number of years.

This brings to a close the Girls Camps at Camp Kingston for this year.

Shut-ins Enjoy Callow Bus Tour

ALBERTON — When the Callow wheelchair coach visited Alberton this week 50 people from the town and surrounding communities enjoyed an outing.

The efficient, courteous driver, John Dunbar, and the friendly hostess, Miss Green, who have been here with the coach on several previous occasions, again contributed to the comfort of the coach guests.

On the morning trip 17 folks from Alberton, Alberton, South, and Kildare, were accompanied by Miss Mabel Fielding, Mrs. Charles Johnston and Mrs. John McRae. In the afternoon 23 guests from Alberton, Elmsdale, Hills River and Fortune Cove were accompanied by Mrs. Alvin Bell, and Miss Enid McArthur.

On both occasions the coach stopped at the Dennis Cabins in Fortune Cove and, by courtesy of the owners, refreshments supplied by Regalette Rebekah Lodge were served on the grounds at this picturesque spot on the Mill River.
