

"CANADA'S WELCOME"—A MASQUE.

The History of Canada Allegorically Represented.

[CONCLUDED.]

After this did one advance arrayed in a sea-green dress to represent New Brunswick; having her arms embroidered thereon in gold, and wearing water lilies in her hair; and this one sang a song in praise of the fisher's craft. (SONG—NEW BRUNSWICK.)

I know, I know,
Where the salmon linger; I know—
Come with me and I will show
Haunts the fisher loves to know.

Through the silent, sleepy hollow,
Through the ferny woods, come follow;
Where the sunlight gleams and glances;
Where the spring brooklet dances;
Where it gathers in the pool,
Shaded, quiet, green and cool;
Where the waters as they lie
Mirror back the soft blue sky;
'Neath the roots that meet the stream,
You shall see their silver gleam.
Come with me and I will show
Haunts the fisher loves to know.

Thereafter came two, the one dressed as a trapper and hunter, wearing a deer skin coat and boots, and carrying a rifle on his shoulder; this one represented Manitoba. The other was habited as a fisherman, in a blue jersey and knee boots, to represent Nova Scotia; having the arms of the province embroidered on his breast, and carrying nets. These two sang in praise of their different fashions in life.

(DUETT—MANITOBA AND NOVA SCOTIA.)

Manitoba—
A hunter am I, and the prairie's my home,
Where God's earth is unfettered, and buffalo roam;
Where the breezes that blow, finding never a tree,
Stir the tall prairie grass like the waves of the sea.

Nova Scotia—
As I bend in my saddle, my rifle in hand,
Not a straw would I give to be king of the land.

Now gallop, good horse! quickly bear me beside
You big-headed fellow with shaggy brown hide—
See the foam on his mouth and the steam of his breath!

Full well does he know that the huntsman is Death.
Close up! closer yet! till our sides nearly meet!
Then—one shot! and the monster falls dead at my feet.

(DUETT.)
Ah, the life of the prairies } the life for a man.
'Tis the fisherman's life is }
And the bold heart that lives it must do all it can,
Be they waves of the prairie or waves of the sea,
The heart that beats o'er them is fearless and free.

Nova Scotia—
A fisherman I, with my nets and my boat,
And a King is not freer than I am afloat;
Be there storms on the ocean, or fogs on the shore,
'Tis the fisherman's life I would live evertime;
For the sea is the home where my cradle was swung,
And the voices I hear speak my own native tongue.

There's the dash of my boat in the trough of the sea,
And the swing of the boom as she shakes herself free!
There's the splash of the waves from her bow as they break,
And the hiss of the waters that meet in her wake!
There's the creak of the tackle, the flap of the sail,
And the whistle of winds as they gather the gale.

(DUETT.)
Ah, the life of the prairies } the life for a man.
'Tis the fisherman's life is }
And the bold heart that lives it must do all it can,
Be they waves of the prairie or waves of the sea,
The heart that beats o'er them is fearless and free.

Then was heard the music of an exceedingly noble march, and there entered, headed by their colors, a number of the soldiers of the regiment of the Governor-General's Foot Guards, and all having formed in due order, Canada did advance and proffer her "Welcome," a grand chorus following her words.

(SONG—CANADA.)

Royal lady, on our welcome,
Deign to look with kindly eyes;
Loyal, loving hearts are beating
'Neath its simple, homely guise.

Leaving courtly phrase to others,
We are simple, but we're true;
Canada has one heart only,
And that heart she gives to you.

Noble sir, we hail you gladly,
Loyal to the flag you bear;
For where England's flag is waving,
This—"let right be done"—is there.

Canada would fain grow upward,
Strong and straight, as her own pines;
With her name as clear, untarnished,
As the sun that on her shines.

Loved and honored through the nations,
True and faithful she would stand;
Never should her word be doubted,
Nor dishonor touch her hand.

Guard her so, and she shall bless you;
And her children yet unborn
In the after-days shall honor
You, her ruler, Lord of Lorne.

(FINAL CHORUS.)
Now, to all we have and hold,
Corn, and wine, and yellow gold,
To this happy land of ours.
Welcome!
To its forests and its flowers,
To its sunshine and its showers,
To its winter's ice and snow,
Welcome!
May our friendship stronger grow,
As the years still onward go;
Long united by fond ties,
May our loving prayer's uprising—
"God Save our Gracious Queen,"
&c., &c.

AND SO THE MASQUE WAS ENDED.

(*In allusion to the words in which the Crown gives its sanction to a Petition of Right.)

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS.
The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different; the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.

Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniments. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.

"THE ANAMORADO"

A DRAMA IN V. ACTS,

—BY—
HUNTER DUVAR

THE above interesting book is for sale at all the Bookstores on the Island.

Col. Duvar is happy in having selected for the theme of his drama, one of the most romantic incidents of a romantic and soldierly time. The scene is laid in Spain, amid all the accessories of grave and gay, love and chivalry, poetry and song, with room for the display of many types of character,—knights and ladies, priests and soldiers, courtiers and peasants, cooks and clowns. Many lyrics in the author's best style are interspersed in the dialogue, which is, in general, quaint and sparkling. Price: Paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents.
