The Report of the Commission.

THE CLOSE SEASONS FOR DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Spawn Lobsters are to be Rigidly Preserved.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, April 29.—Recommendations which the Lobster Commission make embrace the following open seasons along the shores in place of the two seasons at present specified by law in the Bay of Fundy and Western Nova Scotia, including Halifax:

The season is to commence in the middle of December and end on May 30th. East of Halifax to Point Mechaul, C. B., and including Casco Straits from April 1st to June 30.

In Northumberland Straits from West Point to Carleton Head, P. E. Island, and the opposite New Brunswick shore, from May 25th to Aug. 10th.

From Head Point, C. B., to Cape St. Lawrence, from May 10th to August 10th. This season will also apply to Magdalen Islands and the North Shore of the St. Lawrence as far as Labrador, around P. E. Island except as above, mentioned, and the shore of Lunenburg County, C. B., and on N. B., and the Quebec shores north of Sheekfish River, N. B., April 20th to July 10th.

Other important recommendations made, but the most vital is the reduction of the size limit of lobsters from 9 to 7 inches, excepting in the Bay of Fundy, Western Nova Scotia, where the 9-inch limit is retained.

The preservation of spawn lobsters as recorded by commissioners in their report is regarded by the Commissioners in their report as requiring most rigid enforcement.

The Commissioners recommend to establish legal distances of 200 yards to salmon nets, within which lobster fishing may not be carried on.

IN THE YUKON.

The Spring Wash up—Estimated at $19,000,000.

The Toronto Globe correspondent in the Yukon writes, March 23: "As the sap runs in the maple down east, so the thrill of the approaching 'wash up' is stirring the Yukon miners with anticipatory hopes and visions.

"The open weather of the past ten days promises an early beginning of the climatic stage of the miners' year of labor, and Dawson is already showing the revivatory effects.

Those unpicturesque dumps—stretching like lines of breastworks all up and down the creeks—whose slow, laborious growth we have watched through the winter months, are piles of paramount importance now, for in them lies the yellow dust that means competency or millionairehood to the men who own them—men who have toiled with pick and shovel through the winter's cold and storm.

The heavy tools will be thrown aside within a few weeks, to be replaced by gold pan, sluice box and cradle, and the dump earth will rock too and fro, to and fro, until the gravel is gone, and only the yellow dust lies gleaming. Pan by pan, or box by box, the process will be repeated, until each big dump is divided into two parts—one, a bank of valueless gravel earth, the other a tiny yellow dust heap. And upon the size of this dust heap will depend the miner's fortune.

Oh, but it will be a sight to see, on some of these richest claims! There will be golden places on the creeks, when wash-up time comes.

"Wash-up time means also royalty time. Already notices have been posted on all the creeks, notifying the miners of the coming collections, and warning them against any attempt to evade the law in this matter; and within a few days Inspector Belcher, of the N. W. M. P. will begin a collecting tour of the creeks nearest Dawson.

"It has been considered advisable that the collection be made throughout by the police, who are generally popular, rather than by the mining inspector or the Government officials. The miners are somewhat irritable over the tax, which they consider altogether too much heavy, and the gathering in of the royalty not only requires collectors who are responsible but who are also firm and tactful. A Dawson citizen recently furnished to a western paper the following estimate of the output for this season of creeks near Dawson: Eldorado, $2,500,000; Bonanza, $2,500,000; French Hill, $1,500,000; Gold Hill, $1,500,000; Big Skukum, $1,000,000; Little Skookum, $1,000,000; Dominion $4,000,000; Honker and Quartz, $5,000,000; total $19,000,000.

The estimate may or may not be correct, but the informant has certainly omitted more than one of the rich locations—Sulphur Creek being left out entirely in the list. In addition to these are the outer mining districts, such as the upper Klondike, and the Stewart River, which may certainly count for something. Albeit, the latest reports from the latter district are not good, Thistle Creek having proven somewhat disappointing. Scroggie Creek a tributary of Stewart, is at present bearing the best reputation.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

The House of Commons in Supply.

DISCUSS THE FAILURE TO PRODUCE THE VOTERS TEST

The Senate and the Cable Scheme, Senate has Adjourned.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, April 29.—It was the intention to take up the Drummond Railway Bill yesterday but Sir Chas' Tupper who is to reply to Mr. Blair is ill and the House went into supply instead.

The House in supply spent the whole evening in a discussion of the failures of the Government to present the Dominion voters' list as required by the Franchise Act passed last year.

An interesting discussion took place in the Senate on the subject of the Pacific cable.

Powell, Scott and Mills all agreed that strong influences were operating in England to prevent the laying of the cable to the shores of Canada.

This opposition is in the interest of the Eastern Extension Telegraph Co., whose lines reach Australia by way of India, and whose monopoly would be broken by the construction of the proposed line.

The Senate has adjourned until the 17th May.

FIRES AT KENSINGTON.

Houses and Workshops Destroyed—Several Narrow Escapes.

The workshop of Mr. R. Tuplin, at Kensington, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The fire was well under way when discovered, and it was found impossible to save the building. The dwelling house, which is not far distant, took fire, and were it not for the strenuous efforts of the citizens would have been destroyed. Mr. Tuplin's loss is estimated at $800. He had no insurance. The origin of the fire is not known.

About two o'clock this morning the dwelling house, workshop and barn, of Mr. John Noonan, tailor, were also destroyed by fire, together with a small building in the vicinity owned by a man named John Burke. The fire started, from some unknown cause, in the kitchen of Mr. Noonan's residence and was so far advanced before being discovered that nothing could be saved, the members of the household making their escape in such clothing as they had on at the time. The furniture was all destroyed. Mr. Noonan's loss is between $800 and $1000. He had some insurance on the house. Mr. Burke's loss is about $300.

As in the case of Mr. Tuplin's fire it was only by the most strenuous efforts the flames were prevented from extending and causing wide-spread disaster.
