SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Newfoundland Question.

Senator Howlan and the Delegates.

A Satisfactory Agreement Expected.

OTTAWA, April 20.

Senator Howlan arrived in England by the same steamer as the Newfoundland delegates. He says the whole Newfoundland question affecting Canada, particularly the bait question was fully discussed by himself and the Newfoundlanders, and he has every reason to expect a speedy and friendly agreement between Newfoundland and Canada. In the meantime, the delegates are very busy in London with the officials of the Colonial Office and members of Parliament, a very large number of whom are taking great interest in the dispute.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

A Wedding Party Poisoned.

NEW YORK, April 20.

A diabolical attempt to poison a wedding party with arsenic at Lyndon, Kentucky, resulted in the death of Mr. B. Frank Guthrie, one of the wealthiest residents of Louisville, and the serious illness of fifteen others, including the bride and groom who were prostrated when at Louisville on their bridal tour.

The Allans and the Mail Service

LONDON, April 20.

Good authorities here discredit the reports from Canada to the effect that satisfactory progress in being made with the negotiations between the Allans and the Barrow-in-Furness Company for a new fast Atlantic mail service. They say that the Allans' offer was to become agents, not partners, in the new company. An Ottawa despatch says that the Allans refused to renew the ocean mail contract for years except at a fifty per cent. advance, thinking that the Government were in a tight place.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, April 20.

The Montreal Board of Trade has asked to have the mails sent via New York, hence the present arrangement.

McDonnell, a Conservative, and Burke, a Liberal, were nominated in Algoma on Saturday.

Satisfactory Conference.

LONDON, April 20.

The Newfoundland delegates had a private, and, they say, satisfactory conference with Lord Salisbury and Lord Knutsford on Saturday last.

An Attack and Seizure.

LONDON, April 20.

A Capetown despatch says that the Portuguese fired on the British steamer Agnes, conveying the Willoughby expedition and seized her cargo and boats.
