Reverence for Old Folks.

The car was crowded, when an old man leaning on a cane entered groping along with the aid of his cane for a seat. He had gone more than half way with out finding one, when a boy, of about ten years old, caught sight of him and was on his feet in a moment.

"Here, sir," he said kindly, "take this seat, sir, if you please."

"But what will you do?" the old man asked.

"I'll stand," was the smiling answer, which he did.

"Well, bless you, my lad!" said the old man, as he sat down in the comfortable seat. "I'm a thousand times obliged, and I'm sure when you get lame and old, there'll be a seat for you."

A Greek historian tells how, in the pure and early and most virtuous days of the republic, if an old man entered the crowded assembly, all ranks rose to give room and place to him. In the "Iliad" thus respect for the aged is prominently portrayed.

In company with several young friends, a boy was hurrying along the walk of a busy street. Suddenly he stopped with a glad exclamation, took off his hat and bowed, while his face grew radiant. A country carriage, in which sat an old-fashioned, but smiling old lady, went rolling swiftly by.

"Who's that old lady that you're so mighty polite to?" asked one of the boys.

"That's the best and dearest old lady in the whole world," was the quick, proud answer. "That's my grandmother."—Canadian Churchman.

Thank-Offering.

Some time ago a woman living in the country, in one of the German States, brought to her minister thirty marks ($7.50), for the work of missions, saying, as she laid down her offering before him: "In former years I have been obliged to pay a doctor's bill of this amount. This year there has been no sickness in my family, which enables me to give so much to the Lord." At another time she brought a donation of twelve marks ($3), saying: "Many of the farmers have been recently visited by a cyclone, but we have been spared. So I bring you this donation for missions as a thank-offering.

I Wouldn't Be Cross.

I wouldn't be cross, dear, it's never worth while; Disarm the vexation by wearing a smile; Let hap a disaster, a trouble, a loss, Just meet the thing boldly, and never be cross.

I wouldn't be cross, dear, with people at home; They love you so fondly, what ever may come, You may count on the kinsfolk around you to stand!

O, loyally true in a brotherhood band! So, since the fine gold far exceedeth the dross, I wouldn't be cross, dear—I wouldn't be cross.

I wouldn't be cross with a stranger, ah no; To the pilgrims we meet on the life path we owe This kindness, to give them good cheer as they pass, To clear out the the flint stones and plant the soft grass.

A PROMINENT VANCOUVERITE.

Permanently Cured of Asthma, Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Mr. F. J. Painton, the well-known proprietor of Painton's Music Store, Vancouver, B. C., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over four years, very often having had to sit up nearly all night. I had consulted physicians both in England and Canada without obtaining any permanent relief and tried many remedies with the same result. A friend who had been cured by Dr. Clarke's Kola Compound advised me to try it. And three bottles have entirely cured me. It is now nearly two years since my recovery, and asthma has not troubled me since. I feel very grateful to Dr. Clarke for introducing this wonderful remedy, suffering as I was, and do not know of a single case where the required number of bottles have been taken that it has failed to cure. See that you get Clarke's Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 123 Church street, Toronto, or Vancouver, B. C., sole Canadian agents.

Woodstock, Ont., May 22.—Never, in the social history of this town since the B. R. hall trial, has such great interest been shown as the "Outmore Case" has caused.

Mr. C. J. Cutmore, 91 Main Street, was crippled by Rheumatism and Lumbago during five years. He couldn't stand straight, and had to be helped from his room.

To-day he is straight and strong; sound in every limb, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills. Other remedies were used, but did no good. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him, Dodd's Kidney Pills ALWAYS cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

Build Up.

When the system is run down, a person becomes an easy prey to Consumption or Scrophula. Many valuable lives are saved by using Scott's Emulsion as soon as a decline in health is obtained.

The statement from Manila that Admiral Dewey is in greater dread of the reception in store for him when he shall set foot on his native land than he was of his reception at Manila when he visited that port in the early morning of May 1, 1898, without asking permission of the commanders of the Spanish forts and fleets, is probably correct. The lion hunters, seven collectors, hero-worshippers, etc., are preparing for a vigorous campaign.

To all who find themselves with health gradually slipping away, Kidneys and Liver so disorganized that they are incapable of keeping the system free from poisonous waste material, Stomach Disordered, Bowels Congested, Head Aching, Back Pain, take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The quick way they help you back to health will surprise you.
